A Tale of the Twenty-Second Century* Jane Webb, 2022-04-05 Frankenstein wasn't the only classic horror novel created by a woman Within a decade of the 1818 publication of Mary Shelley's Frankenstein another Englishwoman invented a foundational work of science fiction Seventeen year old Jane Webb Loudon took up the theme of reanimation moved it three hundred years into the future and applied it to Cheops an ancient Egyptian mummy Unlike Shelley's horrifying death dealing monster this revived creature bears the wisdom of the ages and is eager to share his insights with humanity Cheops boards a hot air balloon and travels to 22nd century England where he sets about remedying the ills of a corrupt government In recounting Cheops attempts to put the futuristic society to rights the young author offers a fascinating portrait of the preoccupations of her own era as well as some remarkably prescient predictions of technological advances The Mummy envisions a world in which automatons perform surgery undersea tunnels connect England and Ireland weather control devices provide crop irrigation and messages are transmitted with the speed of cannonball fire The first novel to feature the concept of a living mummy this pioneering tale offers an engaging mix of comedy politics and science fiction Other books in the Haunted Library of Horror Classics series The Phantom of the Opera by Gaston Leroux The Beetle by Richard Marsh Vathek by William Beckford The House on the Borderland by William Hope Hodgson The Parasite and Other Tales of Terror by Arthur Conan Doyle Of One Blood by Pauline Hopkins The King in Yellow by Robert W Chambers Antony and Cleopatra: A Critical Reader Domenico Lovascio, 2019-10-17 Arden Early Modern Drama Guides offer students and academics practical and accessible introductions to the critical and performance contexts of

"You, who Disturb My Sleep..." - The Figure of the Mummy in 19th and 20th Century American Literature Desirée Kuthe, 2007-11 Seminar paper from the year 2006 in the subject American Studies Literature grade 1.3 University of Dortmund Institut für Anglistik und Amerikanistik course Way down to Egypt s Land 9 entries in the bibliography language English abstract The fascination with old Egypt which came up in the western world after Napoleon s conquest of Egypt in 1798 and reached a peak in 19th century America was uttered in a vast amount of novels and stories concerned with Egypt and its symbols One of the most important of these symbols among pyramids and Pharaohs is the mummy the human body which has survived not only centuries but millenniums The interest of novelists with Egypt in general and the mummy in particular may have been in its zenith in 19th century but it has never completely ceased as the great variety of books about mummies recently published shows In this paper Louisa May Alcott s little known short story Trafton 2005 126 Lost in a Pyramid or the Mummy s Curse which was published in 1869 will be compared to a novel by Anne Rice The Mummy or Ramses the Damned having been published in 1980 but having chosen a setting at the beginning of the 20th century 1914 This paper wants to show that in spite of having been written with 111 years time distance the two texts use a surprisingly similar set of themes and motives to develop their story After a short exploration of the historical background of the two texts I will try to identify and analyze these elements The examination of the single motives will then lead to the question of a general classification of the two texts answering the question if or if not they belong to the Gothic genre This paper will also try to make clear that regardless of the similarity of the set of conventions used in the texts the means with which this set has been used differ very much
