The Muse Upon My Shoulder Discussions Of The Creative Process:

The Muse Upon My Shoulder Sylvia Skaggs McTague, 2004 In The Muse upon My Shoulder an exceptionally diverse group of writers including Evan S Connell Anthony Piccione David Trinidad William Stafford Jean Thompson Vance Bourjaily E L Doctorow Stanley Elkin Jay McInerney Beth Henley David Hwang Bud Schulberg and Mary Gordon discuss the creative process They entertain self revealing questions about their status as writers their inspiration to write and their relationship to an audience The conversational form of the interview allows for candid answers that readers rarely hear to questions that seldom are answered The final chapter lets readers participate in the conflicts that surround the production of a good interview Sylvia Skaggs McTague is a lecturer at Fairleigh Dickinson University Conversations with Beth Henley Jackson R. Bryer, Mary C. Hartig, 2023-03-24 With roots in the American South Beth Henley b 1952 has for four decades been a working playwright and screenwriter Winner of the Pulitzer Prize in 1981 at the age of twenty eight Henley so far has written twenty five produced plays that are always original usually darkly comic and often experimental In these interviews Henley speaks of the plays from her early crowd pleasers Crimes of the Heart and The Miss Firecracker Contest to her more experimental plays including The Debutante Ball and Control Freaks to her brilliant and time bending play The Jacksonian Henley is a master at writing about the duality of human experience the beautiful and the grotesque the cruel and the loving This duality provokes in Henley both amazement and compassion She discusses here not only her admiration for Chekhov and other influences but also her process of bringing a play from notebooks of images and bits of dialogues through rumination writing and rewriting to rehearsals and previews The interviews range from 1981 just before she won the Pulitzer Prize to 2020 and cover nearly forty years of a creative life which as Henley remarks in the most recent interview is such a life worth living to be in tune with the creative process Understanding Beth Henley Robert J. Andreach, 2006 Beth Henley remains best known for Crimes of the Heart a play that won the Pulitzer Prize and the New York Drama Critics Circle Award and later was made into a major motion picture This introduction to the Mississippi born playwright and her body of work presents Henley's plays as a unified whole Literary Alchemist Steve Paul, 2021-10-29 Winner 2022 Society of Midland Authors award for Biography Memoir Evan S Connell 1924 2013 emerged from the American Midwest determined to become a writer He eventually made his mark with attention getting fiction and deep explorations into history His linked novels Mrs Bridge 1959 and Mr Bridge 1969 paint a devastating portrait of the lives of a prosperous suburban family not unlike his own that more than a half century later continue to haunt readers with their minimalist elegance and muted satire As an essayist and historian Connell produced a wide range of work including a sumptuous body of travel writing a bestselling epic account of Custer at the Little Bighorn and a singular series of meditations on history and the human tragedy This first portrait and appraisal of an under recognized American writer is based on personal accounts by friends relatives writers and others who knew him extensive correspondence in library archives and insightful literary and cultural analysis of Connell's work and its context. It also illuminates aspects of American publishing, Hollywood male anxieties, and the power of place.

Why Any Woman Keira V. Williams, 2023-11-15. Scholars are revisiting the history of feminist activism and organizations, mining it for a revisionist grassroots gender politics in the South. Why Any Woman advances this line of historical inquiry by focusing on one of the most productive sites of late twentieth-century southern feminism: popular culture. By and about southern women, the nature of popular culture is such that the challenges it poses to the gendered and racial order, for instance, are likely to be consumed privately in theaters or at home alone or with friends or family by more people than would ever read a feminist manifesto, attend a civil rights demonstration, or lobby a legislator for change. In the cultural desert of the late twentieth-century pre-internet South, during a time in which there were fewer avenues of activism and organizing, other sources of feminism predominated, and pop culture is where many of us turned for guidance, for role models, and whether or not we knew it, for consciousness-raising. In a region and during a time of neoconservative backlash in which women's liberation was under attack, southern women's pop culture offered a bridge between the second and third waves of feminism and a major challenge to contemporary antifeminist forces. Why Any

Woman examines key texts by and about southern women the play Crimes of the Heart the novels The Color Purple and Ugly Ways the films Thelma and Louise and Beloved the television shows Designing Women and The Oprah Winfrey Show as a means of understanding the role of regional popular culture in defining and redefining American feminisms as we approached the twenty first century Taken as a collective these texts expand how we think about the whats wheres whens and hows of feminisms in recent U S history Why any woman give a shit what people think is a mystery to me muses the blueswoman Shug Avery in Alice Walker s The Color Purple Why Any Woman features southerners who like Shug rejected and reshaped gender norms and their stories illustrate some of the ways regional pop culture has been and still is a crucial site of American feminisms
