The Myrtle And The Rose:

The Excursion and Wordsworth's Iconography Brandon C. Yen, 2018-09-20 This book considers William Wordsworth's use of iconography in his long poem The Excursion. Through the iconographical approach the author steers a middle course between The Excursion's two very different interpretive traditions: one focusing upon the poem's philosophical abstraction, the other upon its touristic realism. Fresh readings are also offered of Wordsworth's other major works including The Prelude. Yen explores Wordsworth's iconography in The Excursion by tracing allusions and correspondences in an abundance of post-1789 and earlier verbal and pictorial sources as well as in Wordsworth's prose and poetry. He analyses how the iconographical images in The Excursion contribute to and impose limitations on the overarching preoccupations of Wordsworth's writings, particularly the themes of paradise lost and paradise regained in the post-revolutionary context. Shedding light on a vital aspect of Wordsworth's poetic method, this study reveals the visual etymologies together with the nuances and rhetorical capacities of five categories of apparently collateral images: envisioning, rooting, dwelling, flowing, and reflecting.

Selected Poems Charles Hubert Sisson, 1996 C. H. Sisson's Selected Poems presents a half-century's work by the writer deemed England's finest living poet by the London Times. Sisson's poems are characterized by a mastery of speech rhythms and imagery learned from Eliot, Pound, and T. E. Hulme. Serious and highly charged, they are steeped in literary tradition. Sisson is one of the great translators of Dante, Horace, Lucretius, and Virgil, and they draw on Sisson's remarkable knowledge of history and culture. Starting with poems written on a troopship and ending on home ground in Somerset, England, Selected Poems provides a comprehensive selection of Sisson's work, including Tristan, a sequence written in the poet's eighty-first year.
