The Monkeys Mask Identity Memory Narrative And Voice:

The Monkey's Mask Christopher Kearney, 2001 Monkeys Mask Chris Kearney, 2014-09-16 Identity affects education at the marrow particularly in the areas of motivation and relevance which both powerfully affect success at school An understanding of identity is crucial for teachers working in culturally diverse contexts The Monkey's Mask takes a refreshingly original look at the problem of identity in our so called globalised postmodern and mass mediated times It is based on research into the life histories of six academically successful people in their thirties who come from a range of cultural heritages Their stories unsettle the myths surrounding culture and identity Their voices are powerful clear and distinctive providing fascinating insight into what changes when we cross boundaries and borders They show how we construct our individual identities and how certain aspects of culture and identity persist across time and space The book highlights the need to afford a central place to autobiography and life history in children's exploration of their world This book will help academics educators and policy makers to critique the current bland curriculum and provide approaches to learning which are relevant and inspiring to all school students

Intercultural Experience and Identity Lily Lei Ye, 2018-06-13 This book examines the identity formation and negotiation of Chinese doctoral students in the UK and the opportunity for self transformation this experience offers As the largest group of international students in the English speaking world Mainland Chinese students encounter a range of difficulties and prospects that may be relevant to the wider international student community Using extensive qualitative and empirical data the author explores the narratives of eleven Chinese doctoral students at two British universities through a sociological perspective Balancing analysis with solid theoretical framework and the voices of the students themselves the author moves away from essentialism and othering instead shining a light on the effects of globalisation internationalisation and recent policy strategies This volume will be of interest and value to students and scholars of comparative and international education identity formation intercultural communication the sociology of education and study abroad

Language, Identity and Symbolic Culture David Evans, 2018-05-31 Language is integral to the construction of personal socio cultural and socio political identities Language Identity and Symbolic Culture closely investigates the relationship between language and identities offering a comprehensive yet progressive view of how linguistics relates to development and education both in theoretical and real world applications Progressing from a theoretical core examining the connection between language and individual identity this book moves on to look at the wider socio political discourse involving the marginalization and resistance of communities in the world Beginning with the philosophical paradigms of language Evans questions whether language shapes personal identities in its daily use or whether language is simply a tool for describing rather than creating the world Extrapolating on this the contributors utilise case studies from across the globe to see how these linguistic perspectives are played out in the real world considering the role of language in issues surrounding power colonization marginalization and education Language

Identity and Symbolic Culture offers a view of language identity conflicts around the world and an understanding of the opportunities of political and cultural emancipation created through language and open discourse Archiving Creole Voices Marl'ene Edwin,2024-12-20 Archiving Creole Voices Representations of Language and Culture begins with a re-reading of selected texts by female Caribbean writers specifically Joan Anim Addo Olive Senior and Merle Collins and proclaims that literary fiction can and does function as a creolised archive Marl'ene Edwin argues that historic marginalisation which has barred Caribbean scholars from entering formal archival spaces has created an alternative discourse Consequently Caribbean writers have chosen the imagined landscapes of literature a new archival space for the Caribbean within which to document and preserve Caribbean cultural traditions Fiction allows for the safeguarding of traditions so how then should Caribbean literature be read The combination of a physical and a virtual archive questions the literary and linguistic interface that such a mingling entails in a preservation of Caribbean culture Edwin argues for an appreciation of orality as performance as well as the reading of texts as creolised archive Here, There and Everywhere Robin Richardson,2004 At the heart of this book is an exploration of each subject or curriculum area the general principles notes on practice and opportunities and questions for review and development Students at a rural secondary school set up a Web site in collaboration with students at a multiethnic school some 25 miles away They wanted to explore differences and similarities between their schools and to share reports and reflections about the projects they were doing jointly They called the site Here There and Everywhere after the Beatles song The title also captures the spirit and concerns of this handbook exploring how schools can combat racism and how issues of belonging identity and equality can be here there and everywhere in every school A piece of forum theatre Sticks Stones and Macpherson introduces the book The overarching themes and big ideas that should permeate every curriculum subject and all aspects of the hidden curriculum in the school are discussed The discussions and examples are consistent with but frequently go further than statutory requirements and expectations Training exercises and materials for staff discussion provide guidance on dealing with racist incidents and finally threads from the book are drawn together to support the creation and development of formal school policies The book draws extensively on work developed in Derbyshire It has been compiled and edited for Derbyshire Advisory and Inspection Service by Robin Richardson a director of the Insted consultancy He and Insted colleague Angela Wood are the authors of The Achievement of British Pakistani Learners Digital Media and Learner Identity J. Potter,2012-11-27 Drawing on research into autobiographical video production by young learners to present a theory of curatorship and new media this work explores facets of literacy and identity theory which provided the initial frames for examining the work and shows how curatorship works as a metaphor for new cultural and literacy practices The Primary English Encyclopedia Margaret Mallett,2008-03-25 A comprehensive user friendly and interesting reference book that explains key concepts ideas and current requirements in primary English Includes over 600 entries short definitions of key concepts e g parts of speech
