Thoughts: Chapters Two and Three James L. Harter Sr., 2010-09-02 We all have gone on family automobile trips to some much anticipated destination But it is the child who expresses the thrill of what is to come when he pleads incessantly and cries desperately Are we there yet I feel like that enthusiastic child as I travel through my lifetime journey ever searching for the answers to life I have experienced the time of my life yet the mystery lingers and slips through my groping fingers My poetic endeavors reflect that feeling and my mind cries back to me Keep exploring for you will get there Join me in the search I think you will enjoy the trip I m going from here to there from now to then Moving on but never back again Moving on to the other side of the great somewhere God of All Things

Andrew Wilson, 2021-03-02 Abstract theology is overrated for God can be found in even the most ordinary of things Jesus used things like a lily sparrow and sheep to teach about the kingdom of God And in the Old Testament God repeatedly describes himself and his saving work in relation to physical things such as a rock horn or eagle In God of All Things pastor and author Andrew Wilson invites you to rediscover God in this way too through ordinary everyday things He explores the idea of a material world and presents a variety of created marvels that reveal the gospel in everyday life and fuel worship and joy in God marvels like Dust the image of God Horns the salvation of God Donkeys the peace of God Water the life of God Viruses the problem of God Cities the kingdom of God God of All Things

Indo-European Poetry and Myth M. L. West, 2008-11-13 The Indo Europeans speakers of the prehistoric parent language from which most European and some Asiatic languages are descended most probably lived on the Eurasian steppes some five or six thousand years ago Martin West investigates their traditional mythologies religions and poetries and points to elements of common heritage In The East Face of Helicon 1997 West showed the extent to which Homeric and other early Greek poetry was influenced by Near Eastern traditions mainly non Indo European His new book presents a foil to that work by identifying elements of more ancient Indo European heritage in the Greek material Topics covered include the status of poets and poetry in Indo European societies metre style and diction gods and other supernatural beings from Father Sky and Mother Earth to the Sun god and his beautiful daughter the Thunder god and other elemental deities and earthly orders such as Nymphs and Elves the forms of hymns prayers and incantations conceptions about the world its origin mankind death and fate the ideology of fame and of immortalization through poetry the typology of the king and the hero the hero as warrior and the conventions of battle narrative Mindscaping the Landscape of Tibet Dan Smyer Yü, 2015-03-30 Based on the author's cross regional fieldwork archival findings and critical reading of memoirs and creative works of Tibetans and Chinese this book recounts how the potency of Tibet manifests itself in modern material culture concerning Tibet which is interwoven with state ideology politics of identity imagination nostalgia forgetting remembering and earth inspired transcendence The physical place of Tibet is the antecedent point of contact for subsequent spiritual imaginations acts of destruction and reconstruction collective nostalgia and delayed aesthetic and environmental awareness shown in the eco religious acts of native Tibetans Communist radical utopianism former military officers recollections Tibetan and Chinese artwork and touristic consumption of the Tibetan landscape By drawing connections between differences dichotomies and oppositions this book explores the interiors of the diverse agentive modes of imaginations from which Tibet is imagined in China On the theoretical front this book attempts to bring forth a set of fresh perspectives on how a culturally and religiously specific landscape is antecedent to simultaneous processes of place making identity making and the bonding between place and people The Way of the World , 2009-12-01 The dynamic relationship between the individual and society has been a central concern of Taoism from its ancient beginnings which is perhaps why certain Taoist classics like Sun Tzu's Art of War are so often consulted these days for leadership advice This anthology presents a wide range of texts revealing the processes of integrating personal spirituality with social responsibility central to Taoist tradition across the centuries and throughout the schools There are a wealth of approaches to life in the world presented here but at the heart of each is an understanding that even a mystic must be socially responsible and that self cultivation is primary preparation for anyone called to lead The Sign Language of Astronomical Mythology Gerald Massey, 2008-01-01 The origin of a saviour in the guise of a little child is traceable to Child Horus who brought new life to Egypt every year as the Messu of the inundation This was Horus in his pre solar and pre human characters of the fish the shoot of the papyrus or the branch of the endless years In a later stage the image of Horus on his papyrus represented the young god as solar cause in creation But in the primitive phase it was a soul of life or of food ascending from the water in vegetation as he who climbs the stalk ranging from Child Horus to the Polynesian hero and to Jack ascending heavenward by means of his bean stalk from The Sign Language of Astronomical Mythology It goes unappreciated by modern Egyptologists but it is embraced by those who savor the concept of a hidden history of humanity and those who approach all human knowledge from the perspective of the esoteric Gerard Massey s massive Ancient Egypt The Light of the World first published in 1907 and the crowning achievement of the self taught scholar redefines the roots of Christianity via Egypt proposing that Egyptian mythology was the basis for Jewish and Christian beliefs Here Cosimo proudly presents the combined Books 5 and 6 of Ancient Egypt in which Massey discusses the primeval iconic representations that link the Earth and the heavens and ties the oldest understandings of astronomy with the mythology of the creation of the universe and humanity From the symbols and myths of water drowning and floods to those light and darkness blindness and sight and many others Massey shows how that imagery plays out in the Egyptian zodiac and in turn indelibly influenced modern religion Peculiar and profound this work will intrigue and delight readers of history religion and mythology British author GERALD MASSEY 1828 1907 published works of poetry spiritualism Shakespearean criticism and theology but his best known works are in the realm of Egyptology including A Book of the Beginnings and The Natural Genesis Ancient Egypt Light Of The World 2 Vol set Gerald Massey, 2013-10-15 First published in 2005 This expansive and fascinating treatment of ancient Egyptian mythology and its influence on the traditions that followed from it includes explorations of sign language in mythological representation totemism fetishism spirits and Gods the Egyptian Book of the Dead and Egyptian wisdom in the Hebrew Genesis Readers will enjoy the wealth of information offered by Massey as well as his clear and readable style Good words for the young, ed. by N. Macleod Norman Macleod, 1869 Ancient Egypt, the Light of the World Gerald Massey, 1907 Tafsir of Surah al-Fātiḥah and Surah al-Baqarah Amīn Aḥsan Iṣlāḥī, 2007 Cultural Contact and Linguistic Relativity Among the Indians of Northwestern California Sean O'Neill, 2008 Examines the linguistic relativity principle in relation to the Hupa Yurok and Karuk Indians Despite centuries of intertribal contact the American Indian peoples of northwestern California have continued to speak a variety of distinct languages At the same time they have come to embrace a common way of life based on salmon fishing and shared religious practices In this thought provoking re examination of the hypothesis of linguistic relativity Sean O'Neill looks closely at the Hupa Yurok and Karuk peoples to explore the striking juxtaposition between linguistic diversity and relative cultural uniformity among their communities O'Neill examines intertribal contact multilingualism storytelling and historical change among the three tribes focusing on the traditional culture of the region as it existed during the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries He asks important historical questions at the heart of the linguistic relativity hypothesis Have the languages in fact grown more similar as a result of contact multilingualism and cultural convergence Or have they instead maintained some of their striking grammatical and semantic differences Through comparison of the three languages O Neill shows that long term contact among the tribes intensified their linguistic differences creating unique Hupa Yurok and Karuk identities If language encapsulates worldview as the principle of linguistic relativity suggests then this region s linguistic diversity is puzzling Analyzing patterns of linguistic accommodation as seen in the semantics of space and time grammatical classification and specialized cultural vocabularies O Neill resolves the apparent paradox by assessing long term effects of contact
