

Skylark Three

A detailed illustration of a sleek, dark-colored spacecraft with a complex, multi-segmented design. The ship is angled diagonally across the frame, moving from the lower left towards the upper right. It features several glowing purple and blue lights along its length, suggesting internal systems or engines. The background is a deep blue space filled with stars and a large, bright, swirling nebula or planet in the upper left corner, partially obscured by the ship's silhouette.
