The Sky that Falls Deniz Besim, 2014-06-17 The book is a collection of forty poems that are divided into four groups of poetic forms. The forms include villanelles, sestinas, pantoums, and sonnets. Every poem tells a story, and some of the poetry narrates more optimistic tales, while other poems explore societal issues. Issues explored within the poems include unfaithfulness, the media, bullying, science, agriculture, adoption, and more. The optimistic poems in the collection explore friendship, marriage, love, holidays, seasons, and nature. The optimistic poetry contrasts the serious undertones presented within the more political poems. The author is a creative writing classes teacher who lives in London and has enjoyed discovering expression in her writing by categorising her poems into forms.

Falling Out of the Sky Deborah Pope, 1999-03-01 While the poems of Deborah Pope's latest collection are rooted in the here and now, the place where tables are set, children play, and empty cans collect, they are also suffused with a spirit of transfiguration and the miraculous. They map an earthy, palpable yet oddly luminous landscape that embraces our most intimate relationships with lovers, with relatives, and with the body itself. Ranging over this terrain that is at once familiar and fearsome, Pope engages difficult questions and complex emotions, hard truths, and fierce connections. Pope employs plain yet sensuous language, lyrical intensity, and startling images to deal with both the commonplace Age How to think of it and the extraordinary An angel has begun to speak to me These poems are not passive in their perceptions or their passions There is the anger of children the clutch of illness the rawness of love and grief alike the strangeness of revelation At times they literally wrestle with angels In this mature powerful collection Pope boldly reveals her own grief fears and regrets as well as the grace mercy and love she shows and is shown Falling Out of the Sky beautifully communicates the profound and enigmatic relationship between love and desire hate and betrayal despair and hope
