college students about their experiences attending college at an open admissions institution Sullivan examines the history of the modern community college and the economic model that is driving much of the current discussion in higher education today Sullivan argues that the community college has done much to promote social justice and economic equality in America since the founding of the modern community college in 1947 by the Truman Commission American Foreign Policy and The Politics of Fear A. Trevor Thrall, Jane K. Cramer, 2009-05-07 This edited volume addresses the issue of threat inflation in American foreign policy and domestic politics The Bush administration's aggressive campaign to build public support for an invasion of Iraq reheated fears about the president's ability to manipulate the public and many charged the administration with threat inflation duping the news media and misleading the public into supporting the war under false pretences Presenting the latest research these essays seek to answer the question of why threat inflation occurs and when it will be successful Simply defined it is the effort by elites to create concern for a threat that goes beyond the scope and urgency that disinterested analysis would justify More broadly the process concerns how elites view threats the political uses of threat inflation the politics of threat framing among competing elites and how the public interprets and perceives threats via the news media The war with Iraq gets special attention in this volume along with the War on Terror Although many believe that the Bush administration successfully inflated the Iraq threat there is not a neat consensus about why this was successful Through both theoretical contributions and case studies this book showcases the four major explanations of threat inflation realism domestic politics psychology and constructivism and makes them confront one another directly The result is a richer appreciation of this important dynamic in US politics and foreign policy present and future This book will be of much interests to students of US foreign and national security policy international security strategic studies and IR in general Trevor Thrall is Assistant Professor of Political Science and directs the Master of Public Policy program at the University of Michigan Dearborn Jane Kellett Cramer is an Assistant Professor of Political Science at the University of Oregon SMP

Poker and Philosophy Eric Bronson,2012-03-30 Does God play cards with the universe Do women have better poker faces than men What's the most existential poker movie ever made Is life more meaningful when you go all in Is online poker really still poker Poker and Philosophy ponders these questions and more pitting young lions against old masters as the brashness of Phil Hellmuth meets the arrogance of Socrates the recklessness of Doyle Brunson challenges the desperation of Dostoyevsky and the coolness of Chris MoneyMaker takes on the American tradition of capitalist ingenuity This witty collection of essays demonstrates what serious card sharks have long known winning big takes more than a good hand and a straight face Stacking the metaphorical deck with a serious grounding in philosophy is the key to raking it in because as Machiavelli proved long ago it's a lot better to be feared than loved and lying is not the same as cheating
