Benner, Gary W. Moon, 2025-06-23 In recent years many Christian clergy laity and mental health professionals have rediscovered the ancient practices of spiritual direction Seen as a refreshing alternative to the techniques and limitations of modern psychology such practices offer new insights for pastoral care But many remain unclear on what spiritual direction is and whether its methods are applicable to their own clients and parishioners Spiritual direction is a practice of Christian soul care that is found most notably in the Catholic Orthodox and Episcopal traditions but is also present in Wesleyan Holiness Pentecostal charismatic social justice and Reformed communities Predating modern counseling and psychotherapy movements but sharing key principles and insights for spiritual formation spiritual direction offers significant resources for today's pastors counselors therapists chaplains and other caregivers attuned to the work of God in people's lives In this landmark volume editors Gary W Moon and David G Benner along with a team of expert contributors provide a comprehensive survey of spiritual direction in its myriad Christian forms Specific chapters offer careful historical perspective and contemporary analysis of how Christians from various backgrounds have practiced spiritual direction with particular attention to each tradition's definition of spiritual direction the process of authentic transformation the role of the spiritual director indicators of mature spirituality and other aspects of the spiritual direction process Chapters also provide psychological and clinical insight into how spiritual direction is similar to and can be integrated with psychotherapy and pastoral counseling to help others experience spiritual transformation and union with God Organix Bob Whitesel, 2011-11-01 Does your leadership style fit new ways of doing church leadership that is organic and elastic and that finds ways to seize God-given opportunities Looking back and drawing on the ancient Christian tradition Bob Whitesel describes seven traits for successful leadership which he characterizes by seven symbols O the Greek symbol theta the first letter of the Greek word theos stresses that God is the source of the burden for others and provides the power to help them Rx the medical prescription symbol an emphasis on addressing the spiritual and physical health of leaders G a stylized G for graffiti the edgy colorful and artful collages that help define contemporary organizations A inspired by the recycle symbol the idea of recycling places experiences and people rather than discarding them N emerging networks that connect people more quickly efficiently precisely and continuously I an emphasis on incarnation a going in the flesh to

Making Disciples Sylvia Wilkey Collinson,2007-01-01 The Christian faith community regards the making of disciples as a prime directive of Jesus himself though this theme is not dominant in contemporary models of teaching in the church This investigation seeks to develop a theory of discipling and to test its congruence as an effective educational strategy with the objectives of modern Christian faith communities After briefly examining the discipling model of teaching as practiced in the world of the Ancient Near East a detailed study of New Testament texts investigates the practice of discipling by Jesus and his followers and in the church of the first century An understanding of the concept of discipling is gained by gradually refining its definition as the study progresses through a contemporary examination of other informal models of education Religious and educational research findings are explored to enable the validity of the discipling model to be determined Finally the definition is used as a benchmark to examine various contemporary educational theories within the community of faith In contrast to the schooling model discipling has been shown to be an effective model for teaching attitudes values and behavior as well as knowledge and beliefs in today s church Its emphasis on commitment to learning relationships within a nurturing community and active involvement in the mission of Christ to the world and its capacity to adapt to differences in age culture ability and interests make it a model of teaching worthy of much greater attention by the Christian faith community
