Geehr, 1980 New Perspectives on Early Cinema History Mario Sluġan, Daniël Biltereyst, 2022-06-02 In this book editors Mario Sluġan and Daniël Biltereyst present a theoretical reconceptualization of early cinema To do so they highlight the latest methods and tools for analysis and cast new light on the experience of early cinema through the application of these concepts and methods The international host of contributors evaluate examples of early cinema across the globe including The May Irwin Kiss 1896 Un homme de t tes 1900 The Terrible Turkish Executioner 1904 and Tom Tom the Piper's Son 1905 In doing so they address the periodization of the era emphasizing the recent boon in the availability of primary materials the rise of digital technologies the developments in new cinema history and the persistence of some conceptualizations as key incentives for rethinking early cinema in theoretical and methodological terms They go on to highlight cutting edge approaches to the study of early cinema including the use of the Mediathread Platform the formation of new datasets with the help of digital technologies and exploring the early era in non western cultures Finally the contributors revisit early cinema audiences and exhibition contexts by investigating some of the earliest screenings in Denmark and the US exploring the details of black cinema going in Harlem and examining exhibition practices in Germany

animal and plant communities superbly adapted to cold and high places cope with less ice or even none at all The ecological services provided by ice are breath taking providing mobility water and food security for hundreds of millions of people around the world often Indigenous and vulnerable communities The stakes could not be higher Drawing on sources ranging from oral testimony to technical scientific expertise this path breaking collection sets out a highly compelling claim for the emerging field of ice humanities convincingly demonstrating that the centrality of ice in human and non human life is now impossible to ignore
