The Rise and Fall of Privatization in the Russian Oil

Industry L. Sim, 2008-10-24 A study of the actors and institutions that shaped decision making on privatization in the Russian oil industry between 1992 and 2006 The book analyses the origins of privatization as a policy on a macro industry wide level as well as presenting three in depth case studies of privatization on a company level

The Depths of Russia

Douglas Rogers, 2015-11-23 Russia is among the world's leading oil producers sitting atop the planet's eighth largest reserves Like other oil producing nations it has been profoundly transformed by the oil industry In The Depths of Russia Douglas Rogers offers a nuanced and multifaceted analysis of oil's place in Soviet and Russian life based on ethnographic fieldwork and archival research in the Perm region of the Urals Moving beyond models of oil calibrated to capitalist centers and postcolonial petrostates Rogers traces the distinctive contours of the socialist and then postsocialist oil complex showing how oil has figured in the making and remaking of space and time state and corporation exchange and money and past and present He pays special attention to the material properties and transformations of oil from depth in subsoil deposits to toxicity in refining and to the ways oil has echoed through a range of cultural registers The Depths of Russia challenges the common focus on high politics and Kremlin intrigue by considering the role of oil in barter exchanges and surrogate currencies industry sponsored social and cultural development initiatives and the city of Perm's campaign to become a European Capital of Culture Rogers also situates Soviet and post Soviet oil in global contexts showing that many of the forms of state and corporate power that emerged in Russia after socialism are not outliers but very much part of a global family of state corporate alliances gathered at the intersection of corporate social responsibility cultural sponsorship and the energy and extractive industries

Writing this book would have been impossible without the help of certain institutions and persons For a gas producing and oil processing country like the Netherlands there was surprisingly very little publicly available research material Public libraries collections contained with a certain degree of inconsistency little of the more specialised sources I would therefore like to express my gratitude towards Royal Dutch Shell and especially the library staff in The Hague for allowing me to use the company's library thanking them for their assistance in finding and supplying the required data I am also grateful for the financial assistance of the Nederlandse organisatie voor wetenschappelijk onderzoek NWO and the Faculty of Law of the University of Leiden They provided the financial means to work a crucial month in the very well equipped library of the Oxford Institute for Energy Studies I am indebted to the staff of the Oxford Institute for Energy Studies and particularly to Robert Mabro and Jeremy Turk for their comments support and friendship After I spent a month in the Institute in July 1989 I was able to return for two five month periods in 1990 and 1991 For both periods the Oxford Institute and the Leiden Law Faculty provided me with the necessary means I would also like to express special gratitude to some people who have been a great support and supplied me with valuable comments at various stages of the study

Gorbachev's export of Perestroika to Eastern Europe Helen Hardman, 2024-06-04 This book available for the first time in paperback looks at the liberalisation process in Central and Eastern Europe CEE during the period 1987-89 focusing on Gorbachev's initiative to encourage perestroika in all the fraternal regimes of CEE outside the Soviet Union Archival materials interviews and textual analysis identify a joint initiative among these fraternal communist parties to perpetuate the one party system For this purpose fraternal parties were expected to follow the example of the CPSU in convening the national party conference an all party meeting on a similar scale to the five yearly congress and yet mysteriously one which was barely described in the Party Statutes and rarely convoked Gorbachev made use of CEE dependence on the Soviet Union for energy supplies to ensure that at least some fraternal parties followed his line This book will be of interest to those studying the transition process in CEE democratisation comparative politics more generally and students of research methods

Disrupted Economic Relationships Tibor Besedes, Volker Nitsch, 2024-07-23 Empirical studies and theoretical analyses examine the causes and consequences of disruptions in cross border economic relationships including political conflict economic sanctions and institutional collapse Cross border economic relationships gradually strengthened in the decades after World War II for most of the postwar period international trade and investment have grown faster than output a process often termed globalization In recent years however economic relationships have grown more fragile subject to disruption by such factors as political conflict economic sanctions and the dissolution of institutional arrangements This timely CESifo volume offers empirical studies and theoretical analyses that examine the causes and consequences of these disrupted economic relationships Contributors propose a new theoretical framework for understanding the economic impact of intergroup conflict and develop a predictive model to analyze the contagion of regional wars They offer empirical studies of the economic effect of targeted sanctions and boycotts including those imposed upon Iran Russia and Myanmar argue provocatively that natural disasters are associated with increased international trade analyze trade duration finding previously identified explanatory factors to be insufficient for explaining variations in trade survival over time and critically review the hypothesis that oil was a crucial factor in the collapse of the Soviet Union Contributors Daniel P Ahn Tibor Besede Kilian Heilmann Wolfgang Hess Julian Hinz Melise Jaud Tristan Kohl Madina Kukenova Chenmei Li Rodney D Ludema Volker Nitsch Maria Persson Chiel Klein Reesink Arthur Silve Enrico Spolaore Martin Strieborny Marvin Suesse Peter A G van Bergeijk Thierry Verdier Romain Wacziarg

Collapse of an Empire Yegor Gaidar, 2010-01-01 My goal is to show the reader that the Soviet political and economic system was unstable by its very nature It was just a question of when and how it would collapse From the Introduction to Collapse of an Empire The Soviet Union was an empire in many senses of the word a vast mix of far flung regions and accidental citizens by way of conquest or annexation Typical of such empires it was built on shaky foundations That instability made its demise inevitable asserts Yegor Gaidar former prime minister of Russia and architect of the shock therapy economic reforms of the 1990s Yet a growing desire to return to the glory days of empire is pushing today's Russia backward into many of the same traps that made the Soviet Union untenable In this important new book Gaidar clearly illustrates why Russian nostalgia for empire is dangerous and ill fated Dreams of returning to another era are illusory Attempts to do so will lead to defeat Gaidar uses world history the Soviet experience and economic analysis to demonstrate why swimming against this tide of history would be a huge mistake The USSR sowed the seeds of its own economic destruction and Gaidar worries that Russia is repeating some of those mistakes Once again for example the nation is putting too many eggs into one basket leaving the nation vulnerable to fluctuations in the energy market The Soviets had used revenues from energy sales to prop up struggling sectors such as agriculture which was so thoroughly ravaged by hyperindustrialization that the Soviet Union became a net importer of food When oil prices dropped in the 1980s that revenue stream diminished and dependent sectors suffered heavily Although strategies requiring austerity or sacrifice can be politically difficult Russia needs to prepare for such downturns and restrain spending during prosperous times Collapse of an Empire shows why it is imperative to fix the roof before it starts to rain and why so Oil & Gas Tax Quarterly, 1987

International Political Economy and Socialism Marie Lavigne, 1991-03-14 This book first published in 1991 is a revised and updated version of Professor Marie Lavigne's best seller Economie Internationale des Pays Socialistes The Turning Points of Environmental History Frank Uekötter, 2010-11-21 From the time when humans first learned to harness fire

cultivate crops and domesticate livestock they have altered their environment as a means of survival In the modern era however natural resources have been devoured and defiled in the wake of a consumerism that goes beyond mere subsistence In this volume an international group of environmental historians documents the significant ways in which humans have impacted their surroundings throughout history John McNeill introduces the collection with an overarching account of the history of human environmental impact Other contributors explore the use and abuse of the earth's land in the development of agriculture commercial forestry and in the battle against desertification in arid and semi arid regions Cities which first appeared some 5 500 years ago have posed their own unique environmental challenges including dilemmas of solid waste disposal sewerage disease pollution and sustainable food and water supplies The rise of nation states brought environmental legislation which often meant selling off natural resources through eminent domain Perhaps the most damaging environmental event in history resulted from a perfect storm of effects cheap fossil fuels especially petroleum and the rapid rise of personal incomes during the 1950s brought an exponential increase in energy consumption and unforeseen levels of greenhouse gases to the earth's atmosphere By the 1970s the deterioration of air land and water due to industrialization population growth and consumerism led to the birth of the environmental and ecological movements Overall the volume points to the ability and responsibility of humans to reverse the course of detrimental trends and to achieve environmental sustainability for existing and future populations

Export Pipelines from the CIS Region Andreas,2014-04-15 This timely collection offers fresh perspectives to the analysis of the New Great Game the fight for access to the Caspian Sea region's energy resources To date the export of the Caspian crude oil and natural gas has only been assessed geopolitically which oversimplifies the political dynamics of the region and neglects to acknowledge the Caspian countries as actors in their own right

Counter-shock Duccio Basosi,Giuliano Garavini,Massimiliano Trentin,2018-04-30 The oil price collapse of 1985-6 had momentous global consequences non fossil energy sources quickly became uncompetitive the previous talk of an OPEC imperium was turned upside down the Soviet Union lost a large portion of its external revenues and many Third World producers saw their foreign debts peak Compared to the much debated 1973 oil shock the countershock has not received the same degree of attention even though its legacy has shaped the present day energy scenario This volume is the first to put the oil counter shock of the mid 1980s into historical perspective Featuring some of the most knowledgeable experts in the field Counter Shock offers a balanced approach between the global picture and local study cases In particular it highlights the crucial interaction between the oil counter shock and the political counterrevolution against state intervention in economic management put forward by Ronald Reagan and Margaret Thatcher in the same period
