Soviet Policies Toward the Developing World During the 1980s Daniel S. Papp, 1986      Soviet Policies Toward the Developing World During the 1980s Daniel S. Papp, 1986      The USSR and Marxist Revolutions in the Third World Mark N. Katz, 1990 This book looks at the role the Soviet Union under Mikhail Gorbachev's leadership played in providing assistance to Marxist revolutionaries      U.S. Interests In, and Policies Toward, the Persian Gulf, 1980 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs. Subcommittee on Europe and the Middle East, 1980      Politics and Society in the Developing World Peter Calvert, Susan Calvert, 2014-06-03 In a world seemingly surfing a wave of unprecedented affluence it is sobering to be reminded that only thirty out of nearly two hundred countries can really be classified as advanced industrialized countries Eighty per cent of the world's population lives in the developing world This popular concise introduction scrutinises the developing world its varied political institutions and the key social economic and environmental issues at the heart of contemporary debates Wide ranging and clearly written Politics and Society in the Developing World begins by providing a brisk survey of the major theoretical and methodological interpretations of the social impact of development It then details the factors which determine the parameters of the developing world before moving on to examine its infrastructure and the crises currently facing it The book also covers the social and economic contexts of developing societies the international arena and its impact on the developing world state building and the tension between dictatorship and democratization The book focuses on four policy areas aid trade tourism and the environment      Problems of Communism, 1989      US Policy Towards Afghanistan, 1979-2014 Anthony Teitler, 2020-06-07 Providing a study of US policy towards Afghanistan from the Soviet intervention of 1979 to the exit of US International Security Assistance Forces combat troops at the end of 2014 this book examines how the United States construction of its interests has shaped its long term involvement with that country Recognising that there is a particular focus on the United States representation and justification of its Afghan policy this work demonstrates how the intertwining of language and social practices provided policymakers with a shared meaning on selling policy In this way Washington justified its practices including covert operations diplomacy counterterrorism and war as essential in ensuring that good prevailed over evil Teitler's argument contrasts with the existing literature which predominantly argues the United States has been motivated by self interest in its dealings with Afghanistan Teitler deploys a constructivist approach to elucidate US Afghan relations in this critical historical juncture Through its particular use of constructivism the work aims to contribute more broadly to international relations and US foreign policy scholarship This book will be of interest to academics and students in various fields including US foreign and security policy international relations theory the Greater Middle East Afghanistan American exceptionalism constructivism and discourse analysis      Inside the Cold War From Marx to Reagan Sven F.
