A Soviet Postmortem Sigmund Kranchberg, 1994 In the wake of the Soviet Union's collapse it has become apparent that Sovietology failed with a few praiseworthy exceptions to understand the nature and fragility of the Soviet system A Soviet Postmortem sets the Soviet experiment in a more realistic perspective Kranchberg emphasizes the importance of Marxist Leninist ideology in formulating sociopolitical norms imposed on society by the Communist Party of the Soviet Union Analyzing the realities of the Soviet regime the author reveals the extent to which Soviet political culture was an artificial imposition with only slender roots in the life of Soviet society

Music Video and Transcultural Imaginaries Kathrin Dreckmann, Christofer Jost, Bastian Schramm, 2025 From their inception music videos have served as an important instrument for depicting collective emotional states cultural affiliations and processes of social change At the beginning of the 21st century the utilization of the music video genre changed with more and more artists using it to address social and political grievances as well as questions of identity Both the decline of music television as a gatekeeper limiting access and participation as well as the rise of social media have contributed significantly to the growth of the critical and subversive but also utopian potential of music videos As a result music videos today offer counter proposals to heteronormativity ableism patriarchalism racism and other forms of oppression that not only reach a wider audience but also reflect a broader diversity of lifestyles interests and motivations than was possible during the MTV era This volume explores transcultural imaginaries in music videos from a variety of angles providing a broad overview of approaches to negotiating the cultural in the music video genre both past and present

Post-Marxist Theory Philip Goldstein, 2012-02-01 Poststructuralist Marxism or post Marxism is a theoretical viewpoint that elaborates and revises the work of Louis Althusser and Michel Foucault Unlike traditional Marxism which emphasizes the priority of class struggle and the common humanity of oppressed groups post Marxism reveals the sexual racial class and ethnic divisions of modern Western society This book surveys the different versions of post Marxist theory the economic theory of Stephen Resnick and Richard Wolff the historical methodology of Michel Foucault the political theory of Ernesto Laclau and Chantal Mouffe the feminism of Judith Butler the materialist philosophy of Pierre Macherey and the cultural studies of Tony Bennett and John Frow Providing a coherent framework for these otherwise quite divergent theorists Philip Goldstein outlines the history of Marxist philosophical or theoretical views and explains how they all count as post Marxist

Architecture Post Mortem Donald Kunze, David Bertolini, Simone Brott, 2016-04-15 Architecture Post Mortem surveys architecture s encounter with death decline and ruination following late capitalism As the world moves closer to an economic abyss that many perceive to be the death of capital contraction and crisis are no longer mere phases of normal market fluctuations but rather the irruption of the unconscious of ideology itself Post mortem is that historical moment wherein architecture s symbolic contract with capital is put on stage naked to all Architecture is not irrelevant to fiscal and political contagion as is commonly believed it is the victim and penetrating analytical agent of the current crisis As the very apparatus for modernity s guilt and unfulfilled drives modernity s debt architecture is that ideological element that functions as a master signifier of its own destruction ordering all other signifiers and modes of signification beneath it It is under these conditions that architecture theory has retreated to an Alamo of history a final desert outpost where history has been asked to transcend itself For architecture s hoped for utopia always involves an apocalypse This timely collection of essays reformulates architecture s relation to modernity via the operational death drive architecture is but a passage between life and death This collection includes essays by Kazi K Ashraf David Bertolini Simone Brott Peggy Deamer Didem Ekici Paul Emmons Donald Kunze Todd McGowan Gevork Hartoonian Nadir Lahiji Erika Naginski and Dennis Maher history of one of the fiercest battles of World War II This definitive history of one of the fiercest battles of World War II describes the siege of Budapest in unprecedented detail Both Stalin and Hitler demanded victory at all costs and the cost was extreme 80 000 Soviet troops 38 000 German and Hungarian soldiers and 38 000 Hungarian civilians perished The book provides the first full account of this shocking battle As a military history The Siege of Budapest is unrivaled Magisterial John Lukacs New York Review of Books An exceedingly dramatic book filled with fascinating stories some of them even humorous and with heart rending accounts of suffering limitless cruelty and amazing decency Istv n De k New Republic Ungv ry has written a dramatic gripping history of this siege filling a gap in WWII history Choice The Saturday Evening Post ,1922 SCC Library has 1974 89 plus scattered issues Russian/Soviet Studies in the United States, Amerikanistika in Russia Ivan Kurilla,Victoria I. Zhuravleva,2015-12-09 The contributors in this interdisciplinary collection address the problem of interconnection between the study of the Other either Russian or American and the shaping of national identities in the two countries at different stages of US Russian relations The focus of research interests were typically determined by the political and social debates in scholars native countries In this book leading Russian and American scholars analyze the problems arising from these intersections of academic political and sociocultural contexts and the implicit biases they entail The book is divided into two parts the first being a historical overview of past configurations of the interrelationship between fields and agendas and the second covering the role of institutionalized area studies in the twentieth and early twenty first centuries In both parts the role of the human factor in the study of mutual representations is elucidating Systemic Change in Post-Communist Economies Paul Hare,1999-09-05 Early transition was characterized by debate over shock therapy and gradualism as alternative reform strategies Other important debates concerned the nature of the former USSR Was it ever Socialist and what were its laws of motion What implications does the old system have for the course of post communist reforms These are among the key issues analysed in this book through a mix of conceptual analysis and an interesting selection of country studies To Run the World Sergey Radchenko,2024-05-30 What would it feel like To Run the World Soviet rulers spent the Cold War trying desperately to find out Perennial insecurities delusions of grandeur and desire for recognition propelled Moscow on a headlong quest for global power with dire consequences and painful legacies that continue to shape our world The Totalitarian Paradigm after the End of Communism ,2022-06-08 Concepts of totalitarianism have undergone an academic revival in recent years particularly since the breakdown of communist systems in Europe in 1989 91 the totalitarian paradigm so it seems to many scholars today had been discarded prematurely in the heat of the Cold War The demise of communism as a social system is however not only an important cause of the recurring attractiveness of the totalitarian paradigm but provides at the same time new evidence and correspondingly new problems of explanation for all approaches in communist studies and totalitarianism theory in particular This book contains articles by philosophers social scientists and historians who reassess the validity of the totalitarian approach in the light of the recent historical developments in Eastern Europe A first group of authors focus on the analytical usefulness and explanatory power of classic concepts of totalitarianism after having observed the failed reforms of the Gorbachev era and the collapse of Europe's communist systems in 1989-91 In these contributions the totalitarian paradigm is contrasted with other approaches with respect to cognitive power as well as normative implications In the second group of contributions the focus is on the reassessment of methodological and theoretical problems of the classic concepts of totalitarianism The authors attempt to reinterpret the classic concepts so as to meet the objections which have been put forward against those concepts during the last decades The study thereby traces some of the intellectual roots of the totalitarian paradigm that precede the outbreak of the Cold War such as the work of Sigmund Neumann and Franz Borkenau It also focuses on the most famous authors in the field Hannah Arendt and Carl Joachim Friedrich In addition it discusses theorists of totalitarianism like Juan Linz whose contributions to totalitarianism theory have too often been overlooked

Gulag Literature and the Literature of Nazi Camps Leona Toker, 2019-08-28 A literary scholar examines survival narratives from Russian and German concentration camps shedding new light on testimony in the face of evil In this illuminating study Leona Toker demonstrates how Holocaust literature and Gulag literature provide contexts for each other especially how the prominent features of one shed light on the veiled features and methods of the other Toker's analysis concentrates on the narrative qualities of the works as well as how each text documents the writer's experience in a form where fictionalized narrative can double as historical testimony Toker also views these texts against the background of historical information about the Soviet and the Nazi regimes of repression Writers at the center of this work include Varlam Shalamov Primo Levi Elie Wiesel and Ka Tzetnik and others including Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn Evgeniya Ginzburg and Jorge Sempr n illuminate the discussion Toker also provides context for references to potentially obscure historical events and shows how they form new meaning in the text

Adolf Hitler & Eva Braun Luc Vanhise, 2023-06-05 After a brief investigation in 1945 a British secret agent concluded that Hitler and Braun committed suicide together in the Führerbunker in Berlin shortly before the fall of the German capital and were cremated immediately afterwards although he had no concrete evidence to support this hypothesis Nevertheless this has been the official version ever since Between 1945 and 2009 however testimony and evidence began to emerge that suggested otherwise Luc Vanhise criminologist and retired senior level officer of the Belgian Federal Police conducted a seven year modern police investigation into the death of this notorious couple based on all the original data and traces And as unlikely as it may sound this investigation shows with absolute certainty that Adolf Hitler and Eva Braun did not die together in the Berlin Führerbunker on April 30 1945      Political Science Abstracts IFI/Plenum Data Company staff,2013-11-11 Political Science Abstracts is an annual supplement to the Political Science Government and Public Policy Series of The Universal Reference System which was first published in 1967 All back issues are still available
