The Figure in the Carpet and Other Stories Henry James, 2007-12-06 The stories in this collection were written mostly between 1888 and 1897 a time when Henry James's writing was concerned with the art of fiction and the position of the artist in society The motif and title story The Figure in the Carpet is an inspired joke a masterpiece of double entendre that demands the reader's undivided love and attention and continues to baffle its critics Also included are The Author of Beltraffio an absorbing story of family infighting authorship and tragedy and The Private Life a spirited tale that considers the contrast between the artist alone and at work While many of these stories appear to be elaborate Jamesian games all employ irony and humour to allegorize artistic creation

Ethical Foundations for Educational Administration Eugenie Samier, 2003-12-16 Christopher Hodgkinson is one of the most important contributors to the field of educational administration This collection of essays open up the philosophical foundations of ethical educational administration by reviewing his writings and exploring the ethical theories of major philosophers as they apply to administration and leadership Ethical Foundations of Educational Administration is published in honour of the work of Christopher Hodgkinson. It is divided into two sections. The first comprises biographical essays and a critical evaluation of Professor Hodgkinson's work focusing on his personal and intellectual contributions to a moral theory of educational administration and leadership. The second section looks at how his moral philosophy can inform administrative practice. The work of a broad range of philosophers is discussed from the pre-20th century theories of Aquinas, Adam Smith and Kant to the pragmatists Peirce, James and Dewey, Heidegger, MacIntyre, Bourdieu, Churchland and Thagard. Christopher Hodgkinson's definition of administration as philosophy in action is now famous within the field. This collection illustrates the essential truth of that maxim showing that moral philosophy approached in the spirit promoted by Hodgkinson has both practical and critical purpose when brought to bear upon educational administration and leadership.

Gray Dusk Octavus Roy Cohen, 1919      Walking His Trail Steve Saint, Ginny Saint, 2007

Steve Saint, author of the best-selling autobiography End of the Spear which sold over 100 000 copies and was made into a feature film, returns with a series of adventurous inspiring stories of how God makes himself known through both the dramatic and the seemingly mundane events of life. While walking God's trail all over the world, Steve has spotted the Creator's hand at work in many significant life moments: from finding the love of his life to befriending the tribe that murdered his missionary father, from living in the Ecuadorian jungle to creating a major motion picture and presenting it before the United Nations. Sometimes triumphant, sometimes tragic, Steve's invariably thrilling tales are those of a born storyteller.
