

Alien attack from deep space. It could happen far in the future. Or tomorrow. We cannot tell. But if it comes, how will it come? Why? How will we defend ourselves?

Based entirely on the latest scientific knowledge and thinking, internationally recognised astronomer John Macvey spells out the hard facts.

Death rays, artificial black holes, tractor beams, force fields, teleportation: these are becoming Science Fact. Tactics and strategy, hardware and evaluation of potential danger spots throughout the galaxy: the planning countdown for tomorrow's possibility must start today.
