Views from a Jagged Orbit: Essays Richard D. Erlich,2017-03-17 These are essays indeed but generally not the sort taught in schools or that I taught for forty years not in the elegant Intro Thesis Proof Conclusion tradition but more in the older tradition of Michel de Montaigne and les essais and of satire That is they are attempts explorations and well also traps where I wander around a bit in apparent innocence and then spring on readers a possibly outrageous idea one they wouldn't have considered for a moment if I hadn't lulled them into trusting me a bit. Some of the essays are also in the satiric tradition where one tries for some startling combinations of learned language and vulgarity, short shocker sentences in the midst of some knotty convolutions. Anyway, the essays usually do come to some fairly clear, fairly serious, non-random conclusion, and Views can't be entirely without form. So my initial editor and I have arranged them into categories. The overarching meta-category for most is POLITICS or POLITICS AND CULTURE. I was brought up political in Chicago and have remained true to my breeding as a thoroughly political animal, and of course I am a student of and participant in at least a couple of cultures.

Hard Reading: Learning from Science Fiction Tom Shippey, 2016-02-23. An exploration of politics and the role of the soft sciences in Science Fiction.

Literature and Meat Since 1900 Seán McCorry, John Miller, 2019-10-29. This collection of essays centers on literary representations of meat eating, bringing aesthetic questions into dialogue with more established research on the ethics and politics of meat. From the decline of traditional animal husbandry to the emergence of intensive agriculture and the biotechnological innovation of in vitro meat, the last hundred years have seen dramatic changes in meat production. Meat consumption has risen substantially, inciting the emergence of new forms of political subjectivity such as the radical rejection of meat production in veganism. Featuring essays on both canonical and lesser-known authors, Literature and Meat Since 1900 illustrates the ways in which our meat regime is shaped, reproduced, and challenged as much by cultural and imaginative factors as by political contestation and moral reasoning.

Realizing Tomorrow Chris Dubbs, Emeline Paat-Dahlstrom, 2020-04-01. U.S.A.F. Chief of Staff 2013 Professional Reading List Selection. Nearly forty years passed between the Apollo moon landings, the grandest accomplishment of a government-run space program, and the Ansari X PRIZE-winning flights of SpaceShipOne, the greatest achievement of a private space program. Now, as we hover on the threshold of commercial spaceflight, authors Chris Dubbs and Emeline Paat Dahlstrom look back at how we got to this point. Their book traces the lives of the individuals who shared the dream that private individuals and private enterprise belong in space. Realizing Tomorrow provides a behind-the-scenes look at the visionaries, the crackpots, the financial schemes, the legal wrangling, the turf battles, and underpinning the entire drama, the overwhelming desire of ordinary people to visit outer space. A compelling story of the pioneers of commercial spaceflight and their efforts to open the final frontier to everyone, this book traces the path to private spaceflight even as it offers an instructive, entertaining, and cautionary note about its future.

Space Pioneer Mack Reynolds, 2011-09-29. New Arizona, a lush virgin planet teeming with rich vegetation and a vast hoard of mineral wealth. A company had been formed to colonize and exploit it, and the spaceship Titov set out with the Board of Directors and two thousand colonists. And shortly after the trip had begun, the trouble started. The Board of Directors was only interested in the vast profits that could be made by stripping the planet of its natural resources, which could be sold to the highest bidder. Not for them the gradual establishment of a pioneer community of farmlands and villages The Colonists had given up everything by leaving Earth and they wanted a new planet where they could work prosper and establish a new and better way of life They were determined to thwart the directors by any means they could find And after landing on New Arizona someone smashes the radio and sabotages the life craft Now the balance is more even but when a real crisis erupts it seems as if neither side will be alive to win
