A selection from the works of Albrecht Drausler, Serge Sliavanov, Janet Urdler [and others], etc. (An anthology, by N. Coward.) [With portraits.]. Noel Coward, 1932 Acrobatic Modernism from the Avant-Garde to Prehistory Jed Rasula, 2020-02-27 This is a book about artistic modernism contending with the historical transfigurations of modernity As a conscientious engagement with modernity's restructuring of the lifeworld the modernist avant garde raised the stakes of this engagement to programmatic explicitness But even beyond the vanguard the global phenomenon of jazz combined somatic assault with sensory tutelage Jazz like the new technologies of modernity re calibrated sensory ratios The criterion of the new as self making also extended to names pseudonyms and heteronyms The protocols of modernism solicited a pragmatic arousal of bodily sensation as artistic resource validating an acrobatic sensibility ranging from slapstick and laughter to the pathos of bereavement Expressivity trumped representation The artwork was a diagram of perception not a mimetic rendering For artists the historical pressures of altered perception provoked new models and Ezra Pound's slogan Make It New became the generic rallying cry of renovation The paradigmatic stance of the avant garde was established by Futurism but the discovery of prehistoric art added another provocation to artists Paleolithic caves validated the spirit of all over composition unframed and dynamic Geometric abstraction Constructivism and Purism and Surrealism were all in quest of a new mythology Making it new yielded a new pathos in the sensation of radical discrepancy between futurist striving and remotest antiquity The Paleolithic cave and the USSR emitted comparable siren calls on behalf of the remote past and the desired future As such the present was suffused with the pathos of being neither but subject to both

Spangled Unicorn Noel Coward,1933 Spangled unicorn Noel Coward,1933 Noel Coward Philip Hoare,2013-05-21 The definitive biography of one of the 20th century's most celebrated and controversial dramatists. To several generations actor, playwright, songwriter and filmmaker Noël Coward (1899-1973) was the very personification of wit, glamour and elegance. Given unprecedented access to the private papers and correspondence of Coward, family members, compatriots and numerous lovers, Samuel Johnson Prize-winning biographer Philip Hoare has produced an illuminating and sophisticated biography of Coward whose relentless drive for success and approval fueled the stunning bursts of creativity that launched the once painfully middle class boy from the suburbs of London into a pantheon of theatrical deities that includes Gilbert and Sullivan, Oscar Wilde and George Bernard Shaw. As much the embodiment of a lifestyle as an actual inhabitant of it, Coward's carefully cultivated image defined the aspirations of untold numbers of actors, artists and writers who succeeded him, and Hoare's meticulously researched biography peels away the layers of this complex persona to reveal the man underneath it all, whom The Times of London decreed upon his death to be the most versatile of all the great figures of the English theater.

No One Gardens Alone Emily Herring Wilson, 2005-09-15 No One Gardens Alone tells for the first time the story of Elizabeth Lawrence (1904-1985). Like classic biographies of Emily Dickinson and Edna St Vincent Millay, this fascinating book reveals Lawrence in all her complexity and establishes her at last as one of the premier gardeners and gardening writers of the twentieth century. In this first biography of the renowned gardening writer Elizabeth Lawrence, Emily Herring Wilson reminds us that even quiet lives hold unsuspected passions. Written with graceful clarity, sensitivity and empathy, this life is a perennial.

Linda H Davis, author of Onward and Upward: A Biography of Katharine S. White Elizabeth Lawrence (1904-1985) lived a singular, often contradictory life. She was a traditional southerner, a successful independent garden writer with her own newspaper column and numerous books to her credit, a dutiful daughter who cared for her elders and lived with her mother, a landscape architect, a passionate poet, a friend of literary figures like Eudora Welty and Joseph Mitchell, and a very private woman whose recently discovered letters illuminate aspects of her mystery. Lawrence earned many fans during her lifetime and gained even more after her death with the reissue of many of her classic books. When Emily Herring Wilson edited a collection of letters between Lawrence and famed New Yorker editor Katharine S. White in Two Gardeners, she found legions of readers who were eager to know more about the legendary Lawrence. Now, one hundred years after her birth, No One Gardens Alone tells for the first time the story of this fascinating woman. Like classic biographies of literary figures such as Emily Dickinson and Edna St Vincent Millay, this book reveals Lawrence in all her complexity and establishes her at last as one of the premier gardeners and garden writers of the twentieth century.

Noël Coward Collected Verse Noël Coward, 2014-07-21 This volume brings together Coward's celebrated verse from snappy epigrams to seven hundred line short stories such as P, from moving war-time encounters to satirical barbs at familiar Coward targets and from personal reminiscences to occasional verse such as his tribute to Ivor Novello or his counter attack on Graham Greene. Includes an introduction by Martin Tickner and Coward's long time companion Graham Payn.
