Hearings, Reports and Prints of the Senate Committee on Commerce United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Commerce,1975      The Russian Arctic Straits R. Douglas Brubaker,2005-01-01 The issues surrounding the regimes of ice covered areas international straits and passage rights of State vessels are analysed for the purpose of assessing the status of law and State practice in Russian Arctic waters Passage through the Northern Sea Route has for decades been one of the most contentious legal issues in Soviet Russian U S relations The jurisdictional claims of the large Arctic coastal States indicate substantial deviation from application of established law of the sea The regimes of straits used for international navigation and passage rights of State vessels seem subordinate to the regime of ice covered areas The main finding is that there are certain elements of consistency in the common interpretation of existing law and the behaviour of these States These elements seem to have put into action the process of formation of a specific customary international law as well as implementation and interpretation of the law under the Vienna Convention on the Law of Treaties      The Polar Regions and the Development of International Law Donald Rothwell,1996-11-13 A review of international law in the polar regions and its importance to the environment and to international relations      The Korean Straits Chi Young Pak,2024-09-02      Master the GMAT 2014 Peterson's,2013-09-26 Peterson s Master the GMAT 2014 offers complete prep for the GMAT including tips on essay writing and a thorough analysis of the types of verbal and quantitative questions you can expect on the exam This no nonsense eBook includes everything you need to know about the NEW Integrated Reasoning section along with 9 full length practice tests access to 3 computer adaptive tests online all with detailed answer explanations Readers will gain top test prep tips a helpful review of all subject areas reading comprehension sentence correction critical reasoning problem solving data sufficiency and analytical writing The Appendix provides additional valuable information insightful articles on the value of a graduate level business degree and choosing the right program for your career needs resources for GMAT preparation and a Word List to help boost your vocabulary for the GMAT      Regional Co-operation and Protection of the Marine Environment Under International Law Nilufer Oral,2013-07-11 In Regional Co operation and Protection of the Marine Environment Under International Law The Black Sea Nilufer Oral examines the regional co operation mechanism for protection and preservation of the Black Sea marine environment within the framework of international law and subsequently identifies the necessary components for a robust regional regime based on best legal practices The book provides a thorough review of the complex modern challenges related to the Black Sea with particular emphasis on biodiversity fisheries land based pollution and vessel based sources of pollution A history of regional co operation in the Black Sea offers an enlightening comparison to the development of regional co operation in international law in particular to Part IX of the 1982 United Nations Montego Bay Convention on the Law of the Sea Further comparative analyses such as the existing regional regime of the Black Sea as established under the 1992 UNEP Regional Seas Programme and selected regional seas programmes including the acquis communautaire of the European Union cohere into a firm foundation of present findings upon which basis the author makes recommendations for the future All those interested in the Law of the Sea international environmental law and fisheries management will find a critical new text in Regional Co operation and Protection of the Marine Environment Under International Law The Black Sea     China's Marine Legal System and the Law of the Sea Keyuan Zou,2005-06-01 Being one of the largest coastal States in the world China s marine legal system is significant in the overall development of the international law of the sea This book focuses on the establishment and development of China s marine legal system in the context of the new law of the sea centered on the 1982 United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea which China ratified in 1996 It consists of five parts concerning respectively a general survey of China s marine legal system navigation and maritime security marine resources management marine environmental protection and marine scientific research China s basic marine laws and regulations are discussed and assessed in detail throughout the book The book is of interest to lawyers whether practicing or academic officials in national governments and international organizations and students and scholars in academia who are interested in international law international relations and ocean affairs     International Law in Transition R.P. Dhokalia,R.S. Pathak,2023-09-20 The essays in this volume written in memory of Judge Nagendra Singh are centred around the theme of International Law in Transition The international legal system has been in transition ever since the end of the Second World War and it can be argued that a new international law has emerged different from traditional Eurocentric law and comprising legal principles and standards of behaviour acceptable to all States irrespective of their ideological economic or political systems Innovations in international law have been brought about in response to contemporary needs demands and aspirations within the global community to fill gaps in the existing law and in order to bring it into some accord with radically new societal conditions Distinguished scholars jurists and judges from around the world have contributed essays to this thought provoking book     Beyond the Law of the Sea George V. Galdorisi,Kevin R. Vienna,1997-11-20 The 1982 U N Convention of the Law of the Sea took over a decade to produce and was the final result of the largest single international negotiating process undertaken before or since that time As the world s leading maritime nation the U S has vital immediate national interests in the Convention and in the continuing refinement of maritime law based upon the tenets of that comprehensive document The present work describes in detail the concurrent development of international law and the law of the sea the complex negotiating process that resulted in the completed Convention the role of the U S both during the Law of the Sea Convention and during the decade of negotiation that finally made the Convention acceptable and policy directions and issues for the U S in the post Convention environment This is an important new text in international law international relations and maritime affairs     Current Background ,1973-05-16     The Law of the Sea and Northeast Asia Park Hee Kwon,2021-10-25 The Law of the Sea is a vast and multi faceted area of international law The 1982 United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea and the Agreement relating to the implementation of Part XI of the Convention constitute essential instruments of the law of the sea governing a new maritime order for the international community With its entry into force on November 16 1994 the 1982 United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea has virtually become the Magna Carta of the Oceans or the Constitution for the Oceans Testifying to its success is the number of Parties adhering to it now totaling 132 States including one international organization the European Community The world is entering the era of a New Maritime Order based on near universal adherence to the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea In the wake of the Convention s entry into force and its ratification by many States in Northeast Asia a new maritime order is emerging in the region The littoral States have enacted and promulgated new national legislation to incorporate the provisions of the UN Convention into their domestic legal order The three littoral States China Japan and South Korea concluded or initialed bilateral fisheries agreements based on the new concept of extended jurisdiction set forth by the UN Convention The UN Convention will however present even more challenges than opportunities for the littoral States of Northeast Asia in their quest for a new maritime order The maritime security situation in the region has been and will continue to be extremely volatile due to conflicting claims disputed boundaries unregulated pollution of the marine environment and widespread illegal activities at sea The author has set the both pragmatic and ambitious aim of outlining the emerging maritime order in Northeast Asia As a practitioner of the law of the sea who has participated in bilateral and multilateral negotiations on maritime affairs the author sheds light on the new maritime order in the making at the international and regional levels The author also delineates the main issues and disputes hindering the establishment of a new maritime order in the region and present policy options that could contribute to erecting a solid maritime order in the region by peaceful and cooperative means Finally the author presents a compilation of relevant legal texts most of which were produced after the entry into force of the UN Convention in the hope that this collection will prove useful for desk officers in charge of ocean affairs in promoting peaceful and constructive solutions for maritime issues in Northeast Asia This work serves as a realistic analysis of the current law and State practice as well as of the progressive development of the law of the sea and its codification in the wake of the entry into force of the 1982 UN Convention
