Soviet Rubian Dialectical Materialism:

Soviet Russian Dialectical Materialism [Diamat] J.E. Blakeley, 2012-12-06 This book offers a critical outline of the sources of the history of the spirit and of the doctrines of present day Soviet Russian Dialectical Materialism Diamat i e of the philosophical foundations of Marxism Leninism It is scarcely necessary to stress the usefulness of a short outline of this kind as Russian sources are not easily accessible in the West and as it is of considerable interest to know the doctrines which make up the faith of the Communists in all countries The material for this book was first made public in a series of lectures at the University of Fribourg Switzerland first in French in the summer term of 1949 later in English at the Summer School in the same year The French text slightly expanded was translated into German by Miss M Hoerkens Dipl rer pol Various imperfections in the wording of the text and in the bibliography can be explained by the process of formation of this book The author hopes that such imperfections will not prove disturbing

The Industrialisation of Soviet Russia Volume 4: Crisis and Progress in the Soviet Economy, 1931-1933 R. W. Davies, 2016-07-27 The profound economic crisis of 1931-33 undermined the process of industrialisation and the stability of the regime In spite of feverish efforts to achieve the over ambitious first five year plan the great industrial projects lagged far behind schedule These were years of inflation economic disorder and of terrible famine in 1933 In response to the crisis policies and systems changed significantly Greater realism prevailed more moderate plans reduced investment strict monetary controls and more emphasis on economic incentives and the role of the market The reforms failed to prevent the terrible famine of 1933 in which millions of peasants died But the last months of 1933 saw the first signs of an industrial boom the outcome of the huge investments of previous years Using the previously secret archives of the Politburo and the Council of People s Commissars the author shows how during these formative years the economic system acquired the shape which it retained until the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1991

Dialectical Materialism Gustav Andreas Wetter, 1973 The Dialectics of Ecology John Bellamy Foster, 2024-04-01 Explores ecological socialism s potential against capitalist environmental degradation Today the fate of the earth as a home for humanity is in question and yet contends John Bellamy Foster the reunification of humanity and the earth remains possible if we are prepared to make revolutionary changes As with his prior books The Dialectics of Ecology is grounded in the contention that we are now faced with a concrete choice between ecological socialism and capitalist exterminism and rooted in insights drawn from the classical historical materialist tradition In this latest work Foster explores the complex theoretical debates that have arisen historically with respect to the dialectics of nature and society He then goes on to examine the current contradictions associated with the confrontation between capitalist extractivism and the financialization of nature on the one hand and the radical challenges to these represented by emergent visions of ecological civilization and planned degrowth on the other The product of contemporary ecosocialist debates The Dialectics of Ecology builds on earlier works by Foster including Marx s Ecology and The Return of Nature aimed at the development of a dialectical naturalism and the formation of a path to sustainable human development Dialectics of the Ideal ,2013-11-28 In Dialectics of the Ideal Evald Ilyenkov and Creative Soviet Marxism Levant and Oittinen provide a window into the subterranean tradition of creative Soviet Marxism which developed on the margins of the Soviet academe and remains largely outside the orbit of contemporary theory in the West With his activity approach E V Ilyenkov its principal figure in the post Stalin period makes a substantial contribution toward an anti reductionist Marxist theory of the subject which should be of interest to contemporary theorists who seek to avoid economic and cultural reductionism as well as the malaise of postmodern relativism This volume features Levant s translation of Ilyenkov s Dialectics of the Ideal 2009 which remained unpublished until thirty years after the author s tragic suicide in 1979 Contributors include Evald Ilyenkov Tarja Knuuttila Alex Levant Andrey Maidansky Vesa Oittinen Paula Rauhala and Birger Siebert Soviet Psychology John McLeish,2015-12-22 Originally published in 1975 this title sets out to show us the differences between Soviet and other ways of thinking about nature man and society The basic factor distinguishing Soviet psychology is that it views phenomena from the perspective of a highly articulated body of theoretical assumptions and rejects the inductive eclecticism of Western psychology The theoretical framework within which Soviet psychology functions is the product of a distinctive socio political and cultural development in Russia profoundly shaped by the institutions of autocracy and Orthodox religion and the economic system of serfdom and the radical revolt which grew up in opposition to this and advocated materialism secularism and atheism This radical philosophic tradition in Russia best represented by the writings of Chernishevski fused with the doctrines of Marxism and the new science of behaviour developed by Sechenov and Pavlov to create the theoretical framework of Soviet psychology The book also analyses the discussions controversies and decrees which are at the root of the contemporary science of behaviour in the Soviet Union and points to the impressive body of empirical knowledge which has arisen Soviet Psychology is unique in presenting Soviet psychology from an inside point of view and in making us appreciate the strongly theoretical stance of Soviet psychology which Professor McLeish claims is unlikely to be much influenced by the new atmosphere of détente Jews in Soviet Culture Jack Miller, Jews in Soviet Culture is the first authoritative book on Jewish contributions to Soviet culture covering the fields of literature painting sculpture music philosophy and Oriental studies Unlike other works on Jews in the Soviet Union that deal mainly with political history especially with discrimination and repression this book focusses on the creative role of Jews in various aspects of Soviet culture and civilization This is a substantial contribution to modern Jewish studies Soviet studies and European cultural history The contributors several of whom have recently emigrated to the West are experts from a variety of cultural fields The volume is a painful but useful reminder that the cultural life of a people and a nation continues sometimes in harmony other times at odds but it continues Soviet Russian Dialectical Materialism Josef Maria Bocheński,1963 The Categories of Dialectical Materialism Guy Planty-Bonjour,2012-12-06 Consciousness and Revolution in Soviet Philosophy David Bakhurst,1991 A critical study of the philosophical culture of the USSR Russia's Muslim Heartlands Dominic Rubin, 2018-05-15 Moscow has the largest Muslim population of any city in Europe In 2015 some 2 million Muslim Muscovites celebrated the opening of the continent's biggest mosque One quarter of the Soviet population was ethnically Muslim and today their grandchildren living in the lands between Bukhara Kazan and the Caucasus once again have access to their historical traditions But they also suffer the effects of civil war mass migration and political instability At the highest levels Islam has been swept up into Russia's broader search for identity as the old question of eastern versus western takes on new force Dominic Rubin has spent the last three years interviewing Muslims across Russia from Sufi shaykhs in Dagestan new Muslim artists on the Volga and professionals in Kyrgyzstan to guest workers commuting between Russia and Uzbekistan and Kremlin sponsored muftis hammering out a new Russian Muslim ideology in Moscow He discovers their family histories their faith journeys and their hopes and fears caught between roles as traditionalist allies in the new Eurasian Russia and as potential traitors in Moscow's war on terror This story of Islam adapting in a paradoxical landscape against all odds brings alive the human reality behind the headlines where philosophical culture was preserved in an often hostile environment Situated between the ideological exigencies of the Soviet system with its Marxist Leninist theoretical foundation and the need for an objective account of philosophy's past Soviet history of philosophy displays the characteristic features of Soviet philosophy as a whole including a forceful reappearance of its Hegelian background This book is the only Western monograph on this important part of Soviet philosophy thus filling the last main gap in Western Philosophical Sovietology At the same time it offers the first survey of Soviet philosophy after the disappearance of the Soviet system itself embarking on an historical and meta philosophical investigation of Soviet philosophical culture The book will be of interest to students of Soviet and Russian philosophy historians of philosophy and specialists in Soviet studies Soviet Law and Government ,1973 Soviet and East European Law and the Scientific-Technical Revolution Gordon B.
