Comprehension skills for the Caribbean Roy Narinesingh,1982 Designed for teaching and testing comprehension and language skills in Caribbean primary schools Preface Films Into Books Randall D. Larson,1995 Bibliography of novels based on films Not many books like this Space, Place and Mental Health Sarah Curtis,2016-04-01 There is a strong case today for a specific focus on mental public health and its relation to social and physical environments From a public health perspective we now appreciate the enormous significance of mental distress and illness as causes of disability and impairment Stress and anxiety and other mental illnesses are linked to risks in the environment This book questions how and why the social and physical environment matters for mental health and psychological wellbeing in human populations While putting forward a number of different points of view there is a particular emphasis on ideas and research from health geography which conceptualises space and place in ways that provide a distinctive focus on the interactions between people and their social and physical environment The book begins with an overview of a rich body of theory and research from sociology psychology social epidemiology social psychiatry and neuroscience considering arguments concerning mind body dualism and presenting a conceptual framework for studying how attributes of space and place are associated with human mental wellbeing It goes on to look in detail at how our mental health is associated with material or physical aspects of our environment such as natural and built landscapes with social environments involving social relationships in communities and with symbolic and imagined spaces representing the personal cultural and spiritual meanings of places These relationships are shown to be complex with potential to be beneficial or hazardous for mental health The final chapters of the book consider spaces of care and the implications of space and place for public mental health policy offering a broader view of how mental health might be improved at the population level With boxed case studies of specific research ideas and methods chapter summaries and suggestions for introductory reading this book offers a comprehensive introduction which will be valuable for students of health geography public health sociology and anthropology of health and illness It also provides an interdisciplinary review of the literature by the author and by other writers to frame a discussion of issues that challenge more advanced researchers in these fields

Struggles for Hindu Sacred Space in the Netherlands Priya Swamy, 2024-09-19

This book asks us to consider what is absent rather than what is present when studying religions Priya Swamy argues that absent religious spaces are in themselves abstract locations that painfully memorialize feelings of shame oppression and marginalization She shows that these traumas of absence the complex entwined and emotional responses to absent spaces can be articulated through mob violence and destruction but also anticolonial struggles or human rights issues This study focusses on the absence of temples across the global Hindu diaspora taking the tumultuous narrative of the Devi Dhaam community in Amsterdam Southeast as a central location to detail the over thirty year struggle to build a Hindu temple in a neighbourhood of vibrant mosques and churches In 2010 their makeshift space was pulled away from them provoking tears among elderly devotees rage among board members and devastation in the wider community Leaving their goddess with no place to live some devotees feared for the dangerous repercussions that would follow from uprooting a divine presence from its home By exploring the ways in which the trauma of absent religious spaces has become a formative aspect of localized but also globalized Hindu identity this book rethinks the way that empty lots piles of rubble and abandoned buildings around the world are themselves powerful monuments to the trauma of absent temple spaces that mobilize campaigns for Hindu spaces
