

Space Satellite Handbook

A satellite is depicted in orbit against a dark background. The satellite has a central body with various instruments and a large, rectangular solar panel extended outwards. The panel is divided into several segments and has a metallic, reflective surface. The satellite's orientation is such that it appears to be moving from the upper right towards the lower left of the frame.

Third Edition

Background facts and data on more than 22,000 satellites, payloads, platforms, and rockets
... everything ever sent into orbit!
