Space, a New Direction for Mankind Edward B. Lindaman, 1969 Space, a New Direction for Mankind [by] Edward B. Lindaman Edward B. Lindaman, 1969 NASA Technical Translation, 1975 Air and Space Law: De Lege Ferenda Tanja L. Masson-Zwaan, Pablo Mendes de Leon, Frans G. von der Dunk, Peter van Fenema, Peter P.C. Haanappel, 1992-06-01 The aim of this unique volume is twofold First and foremost it sets out to offer the reader a comprehensive and challenging view from some of the most distinguished scholars in the field of present and future trends and issues in the fields of international air and space law By breaking new ground in this way it pays tribute to the scholarly achievements of Henri Or Wassenbergh whose ideas and work have helped to shape both air and space law throughout his long and distinguished career Air and Space Law De Lege Ferenda will be of interest to all those concerned with the present status of air and space law and with the challenges the aviation and space industry must face in the century to come New Directions in Jewish Philosophy Aaron W. Hughes, Elliot R. Wolfson, 2010 Breaking with strictly historical or textual perspectives this book explores Jewish philosophy as philosophy Often regarded as too technical for Judaic studies and too religious for philosophy departments Jewish philosophy has had an ambiguous position in the academy These provocative essays propose new models for the study of Jewish philosophy that embrace wider intellectual arenas including linguistics poetics aesthetics and visual culture as a path toward understanding the particular philosophic concerns of Judaism As they reread classic Jewish texts the essays articulate a new set of questions and demonstrate the vitality and originality of Jewish philosophy New Directions in Women, Peace and Security Soumita Basu, Paul C. Kirby, Laura J. Shepherd, 2020-06-12 What does gender equality mean for peace justice and security At the turn of the 21st century feminist advocates persuaded the United Nations Security Council to adopt a resolution that drew attention to this question at the highest levels of international policy deliberations Today the Women Peace and Security agenda is a complex field relevant to every conceivable dimension of war and peace This groundbreaking book engages vexed and vexing questions about the future of the agenda from the legacies of coloniality to the prospects of international law and from the implications of the global arms trade to the impact of climate change It balances analysis of emerging trends with specially commissioned reflections from those at the forefront of policy and practice Space for Mankind's Benefit Jesco von Puttkamer, Thomas J. McCullough, 1972 From Coexistence to Cooperation Edward McWhinney, Douglas Ross, Grigory Tunkin, Vladien Vereshchetin, 2023-11-27 In four short years the international landscape has been completely reorganized The major political fault line of the Cold War has been for the most part erased and the foundations have been laid for an entirely new era in international relations Serious focused analysis is urgently needed to help facilitate the process of ending the Cold War This volume the product of a Canada Soviet bilateral conference of jurists and other scholars specialized in International Law and International Organizatin and International Conflicts Resolution held at Simon Fraser University Vancouver in June 1990

attempts to provide such analysis Written by a professionally and scientifically distinguished team of Canadian and Soviet experts it deals with such issues as the winding up of the Nuclear and General Disarmament process the current main proposals on strengthening the United Nations and on reforming and modernizing its main arenas and institutions new approaches to International Trade and Commerce on a multilateral basis developing new norms of International Environmental Protection Law and the International protection of Human Rights It is characterized above all by a common emphasis Soviet and Canadian on pragmatism and on a rigorously empirical problem oriented approach and offers not merely a description of international Law as it might now happen to exist The result is a surprisingly far ranging consensus not merely on the major World Community problems that should be deemed ripe for present study but also on their most desirable practical and realizable solutions

Contact with Extraterrestrial Intelligence and Human Law Michael Bohlander,2023-08-07 It is statistically unlikely that humans are the only intelligent species in the universe Nothing about the others will be known until contact is made beyond a radio signal from space that merely tells us they existed when it was sent That contact may occur tomorrow in a hundred years or never If it does it will be a high risk scenario for humanity It may be peaceful or hostile Relying on alien altruism and benign intentions is wishful thinking We need to begin identifying as a planetary species and develop a global consensus on how to respond in either scenario

New Directions in Diaspora Studies Sarah Illott,Ana Cristina Mendes,Lucinda Newns,2018-07-02 This collection brings together new critical approaches to diaspora studies branching out to areas such as literary studies visual culture and museum studies and explores them in relation to a variety of fictional works cultural traditions theoretical paradigms and geopolitical contexts The innovation of this volume lies in the interplay of both texts and theoretical insights from these different areas of cultural analysis drawn together to probe diverse manifestations of diaspora while pointing out new directions of critique Moving between representations of real and imaginary violent and utopian past present and future diasporas contributors demonstrate the ways in which authors performers and artists are establishing new modes of representing and imagining diaspora in an increasingly globalised age Contributions are organised into sections on performance speculative fiction city spaces affective or violent diasporas and silence and voice Bringing together these wide ranging histories contexts and media allows for dialogue across vastly divergent experiences and representations of diaspora and opens up a theoretical debate on the changing nature of this field of study

New Directions in Islamic Thought Kari Vogt,Lena Larsen,Christian Moe,2011-02-25 This is an important and prestigious volume showcasing leading progressive Islamic thinkers It includes new essay by controversial public intellectual and Muslim scholar Tariq Ramadan It offers strong appeal to policymakers and as well as students and scholars of religion and the Middle East How are Muslims to reconcile their beliefs with the pressures and imperatives of the modern world How should they handle the tension between their roles as private citizens and their religious affiliations and identities This groundbreaking volume shows in what ways prominent Muslim intellectuals have themselves attempted to bridge the gap by recasting traditional Islamic notions in the light of contemporary understandings of equality justice and pluralism The contributors to the book examine the tradition that they seek to reform in relation to the human rights ethic of the modern world The new wave of Islamic thinking which they represent emerges as multi stranded rather than defined by a single trend or doctrine Themes covered include a deconstruction of patriarchal interpretations of the Qur'an the distinctions between universal and context specific parts of Islamic texts a re contextualisation of Shari'a law and a critique of religious jurisprudence particularly where this impacts on matters of sex and gender Old texts are re interpreted through the lived situations of real people today The result is an indispensable portrayal of progressive Islamic thought in the twenty first century which will be an invaluable resource for students and scholars of religion ethics and Middle East studies

Principles of Space Anthropology Cameron M. Smith,2019-09-16 This book shows how anthropology can provide an innovative perspective on the human movement into space It examines adaptation to space on timescales of generations rather than merely months or years and uses evolutionary adaptation as a guiding theme Employing the lessons of evolutionary adaptation Principles of Extraterrestrial Anthropology recommends evolutionarily sound strategies of space settlement covering genetics at the organismal and population levels The author organizes the concept of cultural adaptation to environments beyond Earth according to observed patterns in human adaptation on Earth He uses original artwork and tables to help convey complex information in a form accessible to undergraduate and graduate students Though primarily written to engage students interested in space settlement and exploration who will eventually build a full anthropology of space settlement Principles of Extraterrestrial Anthropology is engaging to anthropologists across sub disciplines as well as scholars interested in the human dimensions of space exploration and settlement Just as the term exobiology was invented only a few decades ago to shape the field of space life studies exoanthropology is outlined to assist in the perpetuation of Earth life through human space settlement The New Way Herbert Coryn, Percy Leonard, 1928 Social Sciences and Space Exploration ,1984 Management Information Guide ,1973
