The Journey Home A K Lambert, 2019-05-30 After an audacious escape from Earth the Vercetians and some local friends hurry home to save their own planet from the disaster about to befall it The Zerots intend to seal the fate of another innocent race with the cruelest game in the galaxy Young Prince Ventar has a plan or almost but he needs some extraordinary assistance from an ancient unascended race He'll need even more help to make it home before the genocide game begins

The Zerot Infestation, Books 1 - 3 A K Lambert, 2024-02-13 On the planet Preenasette in the Alpheratz system two countries Verceti and Trun are engaged in a three hundred year war The conflict has become sterile and is mainly carried out in space and is of little interest to the occupants of each country who carry on going about their daily lives Then an unseen foe the Zerots infiltrates the Trun turning vital governing and military members into their bondservants forcing them to carry out atrocities and ramp up the war on the planet's surface as well as in space. The Zerot Cadre has twenty years to bring the world to its knees in readiness for the arrival of a Violation armada that will annihilate all Preenasettians both Vercetian and Trun. Back in Zerot, three ancient dynasties wager on the outcome of the war and how quickly the Violation armada can complete their deadly task. To them, it is just a game: one more planet removed from existence like many hundreds before. On Verceti, their system of ruling is under serious threat, so they decide to send their three youngest Royals in training for the ruling council and referred to as Princes and Princesses but without any bloodlines off-world to protect them from repeated assassination attempts. Grace arrives on Earth with her Life Team that will train and look after her. They settle in a manor house in a secluded part of Southern Ireland, but within the team is a spy who alerts the Trun. A Trun battle cruiser is dispatched to Earth to kill the princess if the spy doesn't. And to add to the princess's woes, there is a Zerot en route to Earth with similar instructions. Grace will need all her training and the help of many Earthlings if she is to escape certain death.

The Gerontological Prism: Developing Interdisciplinary Bridges Jeffrey Michael Clair, Richard Allman, 2018-10-26. The Gerontological Prism promotes disciplinary cooperation in aging research and practice. To some extent, each chapter explores a unified objective that of generating a disciplinary blind gerontology. The fundamental assumption throughout this book is that the aging individual and society can be enhanced by an understanding of the correlates of basic social, behavioral, demographic, economic, political, ethical, and biomedical processes involving aging. Each author touches on issues that have both social, psychological, and practical policy significance. They aim toward sensitizing the reader to the possibilities of a properly informed interdisciplinary approach to gerontology. The Solicitors' Journal, 1879

Journal Keeping Dannelle D. Stevens, Joanne E. Cooper, 2023-07-03. By the authors of the acclaimed Introduction to Rubrics. Major growth of interest in keeping journals or diaries for personal reflection and growth and as a teaching tool. Will appeal to college faculty, administrators, and teachers. One of the most powerful ways to learn, reflect, and make sense of our lives is through journal keeping. This book presents the potential uses and benefits of journals for personal and professional development, particularly for those in academic life, and demonstrates journals' potential to foster college students' learning fluency and voice and creative thinking. In professional life, a journal helps to organize, prioritize, and address the many expectations of a faculty member's or administrator's roles. Journals are effective for developing time management skills, building problem-solving skills, fostering insight, and decreasing stress. Both writing and rereading journal entries allow the journal keeper to document thinking, to track changes, and to review observations and to examine assumptions and so gain fresh perspectives and insights over past events. The authors present the background to help readers make an informed decision about the value of journals and to determine whether journals will fit appropriately with their teaching objectives or help manage their personal and professional lives. They offer insights and advice on selecting the format or formats and techniques most appropriate for the reader's purposes. Embodiment and the Arts: Views from South Africa Jenni
