the Caribbean has been at the heart of modern contests between slavery and freedom racism and equality and empire and independence From the emergence of racial slavery and European colonialism in the early sixteenth century to U S annexations and military occupations in the twentieth systems of exploitation and imperial control have haunted the region Yet the Caribbean is also where empires have been overthrown slavery was first defeated and the most dramatic revolutions triumphed Caribbean peoples have never stopped imagining and pursuing new forms of liberty Dubois and Turits reveal how the region s most vital transformations have been ignited in the conflicts over competing visions of land While the powerful sought a Caribbean awash in plantations for the benefit of the few countless others anchored their quest for freedom in small farming and counter plantation economies at times succeeding against all odds Caribbean realities to this day are rooted in this long and illuminating history of struggle

Cuba and the Fight for Freedom James Hyde Clark, 1896      Pictorial History of Our War with Spain for Cuba's Freedom Trumbull White, 1898      Fidel Castro and Africa's Liberation Struggle Sabella Ogbobode Abidde, Charity Manyeruke, 2020-10-01

The post 1959 Cuban government's engagement with Africa, which was led by its charismatic and revolutionary leader Fidel Castro, had two connecting dimensions: military internationalism and humanitarian internationalism. While African states and societies benefited immensely from these engagements, it was Fidel Castro's military assistance towards the decolonization of and the pushback of Apartheid South Africa that received the loudest attention and ovation in the developing world. Fidel Castro, this book argues, was never motivated by economic selfish or geopolitical considerations but rather by the altruism and the certainty of his worldview and by the historical connection between the peoples of Cuba and Africa. The principle of international solidarity, socialism, and the emancipation of Africa was a much desired aspiration and attainment. Beginning covertly in Algeria in 1961 and the Congo and Guinea-Bissau in 1964 and more conspicuously in Angola in 1975, Fidel Castro and his socialist government were at the forefront supporting liberation movements in their struggle against colonialism. Defining Castro's engagement with Africa was his support for the People's Movement for the Liberation of Angola (MPLA) against the United States-backed Apartheid South Africa, which supported the National Liberation Front of Angola (FNLA) and the National Union for the Total Independence of Angola (UNITA).
