author also demonstrates the close connections between the Communist International and the CMF as a communist front organisation to provide context for the group's decision making and prioritisation of certain campaigns over others This book will be of interest to scholars of anti fascism feminism women s history communism activism internationalism anti imperialism and French history The Serge Trotsky Papers David Cotterill, 1994-04-20 At a time when the orthodox Leninist regimes of Eastern Europe are in crisis Serge and Trotsky both stand as non orthodox revolutionaries whose messages will now emerge from underserved obscurity The Serge Trotsky Papers presents hitherto unpublished material from the Trotsky Archive at Harvard and the Serge Archive in Mexico Correspondence and other writings dating from 1936 to 1940 are drawn upon to illustrate the nature of the debate between these two great revolutionaries. Their private debate is revealed in the correspondence begun in 1936 upon Serge's emergence from internal exile in the Soviet Union Their public polemic continues a highly animated dialogue on such matters as Kronstadt the Fourth International and the Spanish Revolution The editor provides clear introductions which contextualize and clarify the documents Cotterill has done a truly magnificent job Everything is accurate informative enriching and both scholarly and political The five essays are all of high quality I call this a model of the genre Professor Richard Greeman President of the Victor Serge Association Reborn Chris Bambery, George Kerevan, 2020-04-24 2017 saw Catalonia come under the world's spotlight as it again fought for independence and the preservation and protection of its unique Catalan culture Answering the questions and complications behind the fight for Catalonian Independence Catalonia Reborn is a detailed guide to the region s political historical and cultural issues For the layman as well as the expert it takes the reader through the rich history of Catalonia its language culture and political background to the present day covering defining eras of the region from Franco s dictatorship to the 2017 independence referendum and elections Fighting fascism: the British Left and the rise of fascism, 1919–39 Keith Hodgson, 2013-07-19 In the years between the two world wars fascism triumphed in Italy Germany Spain and elsewhere coming to power after intense struggles with the labour movements of those countries This book available in paperback for the first time analyses the way in which the British left responded to this new challenge How did socialists and communists in Britain explain what fascism was What did they do to oppose it and how successful were they In examining the theories and actions of the Labour Party the TUC the Communist Party and other smaller left wing groups the book explains their different approaches while at the same time highlighting the common thread that ran through all their interpretations of fascism The author argues that the British left has been largely overlooked in the few specific studies of anti fascism that exist with the focus being disproportionately applied to its European counterparts He also takes issue with recent developments in the study of fascism and argues that the views of the left often derided by modern historians are still relevant today The war that won't die David Archibald, 2021-06-15 The war that won t die charts the changing nature of cinematic depictions of the Spanish Civil War In 1936 a significant number of artists filmmakers and writers from George Orwell and Pablo Picasso to Joris Ivens and Joan Mir rallied to support the country's democratically elected Republican government. The arts have played an important role in shaping popular understandings of the Spanish Civil War and this book examines the specific role cinema has played in this process. The book's focus is on fictional feature films produced within Spain and beyond its borders between the 1940s and the early years of the twenty first century including Hollywood blockbusters. East European films the work of the avant garde in Paris and films produced under Franco's censorial dictatorship.
