Science fiction one of the most popular literary cinematic and televisual genres has received increasing academic attention in recent years For many theorists science fiction opens up a space in which the here and now can be made strange or remade where virtual reality and cyborg are no longer gimmicks or predictions but new spaces and subjects Lost in space brings together an international collection of authors to explore the diverse geographies of spaceexploring imagination nature scale geopolitics modernity time identity the body power relations and the representation of space The essays explore the writings of a broad selection of writers including J G Ballard Frank Herbert Marge Piercy Kim Stanley Robinson Mary Shelley and Neal Stephenson and films from Bladerunner to Dark City The Fly The Invisible Man and Metropolis 40 Intermediate Snare Drum Solos Ben Hans,2002 Miscellaneous Percussion Music Mixed Levels The Technology Teacher ,1997

Evidence in Action between Science and Society Sarah Ehlers,Stefan Esselborn,2022-07-15 This volume is an interdisciplinary attempt to insert a broader historically informed perspective into current political and academic debates on the issue of evidence and the reliability of scientific knowledge The tensions between competing paradigms different bodies of knowledge and the relative hierarchies between them are a crucial element of the historical and contemporary dynamics of scientific knowledge production The negotiation of evidence is at the heart of this process Starting from the premise that evidence constitutes a central but also essentially contested concept in contemporary knowledge based societies this volume focuses on how evidence is generated and applied in practice in other words on evidence in action The contributions analyze and compare different evidence practices within the field of science and technology how they interlink with different forms of power their interaction with and impact on the legal and political domain and their relationship to other more heterodox forms of evidence that challenge traditional notions of evidence In doing so this volume provides much needed context and historical background to contemporary debates on the so called post truth society Evidence in Action is the perfect resource for all those interested in the relationship between science technology and the role of knowledge in society Chapter 6 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
