Bogdanov and His Work John Biggart, Georgii Gloveli, 2017-07-05 Alexander Bogdanov was a co-founder with Lenin of the Bolshevik faction of the Russian Social Democratic Party in 1904. After 1905, Bogdanov criticized Lenin's adaptation of Bolshevism to the requirements of Duma politics and his authoritarian style of leadership. Expelled from the Bolshevik fraction in 1909, he at first formed the Forward faction of the RSDRP and then turned increasingly to scholarly and publicistic work. In 1910, he published Faith and Science replying to Lenin's Materialism and Empirio-criticism, which had been written to discredit him. His ideas on the sociology of culture led to the founding of the Proletkult in 1917, and during the 1920s these ideas were taken up, adapted, and often distorted in the course of the Cultural Revolution. Bogdanov's textbooks in sociology and economics were widely used during the 1920s. Seeking to liberate Marxism from the shackles of Hegelianism, he developed a theory of organizational science, Tektology, which influenced early economic planning through the work of Groman and Bazarov. As a systems thinker, Bogdanov is now viewed as a precursor of Ludwig von Bertalanffy and Norbert Wiener. Arrested by the GPU in 1923 for alleged political opposition, Bogdanov withdrew even further from public life and returned to medicine, his original calling. In 1926, he founded the first Russian Institute of Blood Transfusion, presiding over pioneering work in this sphere until 1928 when he died. During the Stalin years, Bogdanov's works were judged to be heretical and were not republished. It was not until 1989 that his Universal Organizational Science was republished, though his contribution to systems thinking had been recognized by Russian and East European systems thinkers as early as the 1960s. In the West, the importance of Bogdanov as a cultural Marxist, as an influence upon Gramsci, and as a pioneer in systems thinking is increasingly being acknowledged. This bibliography of Bogdanov's works takes advantage of the opening of the Party and State archives and provides references to the principal relevant archives in Europe and the United States. Its publication is a landmark in the history of Bolshevism and in the history of Russian social thought.

analyzes the relationship since the end of the Cold War between the rise of political Islamism in Muslim majority countries and the rise of a new global middle class of industrial entrepreneurs Challenging common assumptions Utku Balaban questions the idea that political Islamism represents the antithesis of Western modernity and industrialization On the contrary the more enthusiastically a Muslim majority country industrializes the more Islamized its politics becomes The book focuses on Turkey historically the most industrialized Muslim majority country in the world with the most successful Islamist movement and a relatively competitive electoral system It provides a fine grained historical and ethnographic analysis at the local level of urban industrial control over workers in sweatshops and working class neighborhoods by this new global middle class whom Balaban calls the faubourgeoisie As the central actor behind Turkey's post Cold War industrialization the faubourgeoisie allies with the Islamist movement to control its workers and significantly influence national politics The Oxford Handbook of Contextual Political Analysis Robert E. Hibbs, 2023-08-15 This book provides the first sustained philosophical treatment of Pope Francis's Laudato Si and articulates a theology of creation to recover our place within the cosmos In the encyclical Laudato Si Pope Francis discerns beneath the imminent threat of ecological catastrophe an existential affliction of the human person who is lost in the cosmos increasingly alienated from self others nature and God Pope Francis suggests that one must reimagine humanity's place in the created cosmos In this ambitious and distinctive contribution to theological aesthetics Thomas S Hibbs provides the basis for just such a recovery working from Laudato Si to develop a philosophical and theological diagnosis of our ecological dislocation a narrative account of the sources of the crisis and a vision of the way forward Through a critical engagement with the artistic theory of Jacques Maritain Hibbs shows how certain strains of modern art both capture our alienation and anticipate visions of recovered harmony among persons nature and God In the second half of the book in an attempt to fulfill Pope Francis's plea for an aesthetic education and to apply and test Maritain's theory Hibbs examines the work of poets and painters He analyzes the work of poets Robinson Jeffers and

William Everson and considers painters Georges Roualt a friend to Maritain and Makoto Fujimura whose notion of culture care overlaps in suggestive ways with Francis's notion of integral ecology Throughout this tour de force Hibbs calls for a commitment to an ecological poetics a project that responds to the crisis of our times by taking poets and painters as seriously as philosophers and theologians

Key Works in Critical Pedagogy kecia hayes, Shirley R. Steinberg, Kenneth Tobin, 2011-11-22 Key Works in Critical Pedagogy Joe L Kincheloe comprises sixteen papers written within a twenty year period in which Kincheloe inspired legions of educators with his incisive analyses of education Kincheloe was a prolific thinker and writer who produced an enormous number of books and chapters and journal articles In a career cut short by his untimely death Kincheloe led the way with an approach to research and pedagogy that incorporated multiperspectival approaches that examined a wide range of topics including schooling cultural studies research bricolage kinderculture Christotainment and capitalism In these works Kincheloe used accessible elegantly produced language to capture his emotional yet scholarly ways of engaging with the world He was a champion of the disenfranchised and his writing consistently examined social life from the perspective of participants who were often treated harshly because of their marginalization The articles in this book were selected to encompass Kincheloe's impressive scholarly career and to draw attention to the necessity for educators to take a critical stance with respect to the enactment of education to reproduce disadvantage Among the theoretical frameworks included in the works are critical pedagogy research hermeneutics phenomenology cultural studies and post formal thought Key Works

The selected chapters and associated scholarly review essays constitute a reference resource for researchers, educators, students of education and all of those with an interest in adopting a deeper view of ways in which policies and practices shape education and social life to produce privilege and disadvantage simultaneously in ways that are often hidden from view. The critical perspective that permeates these works constitutes ways of thinking and being in the world that others can adopt as a framework for analyzing their engagement in education as researchers, teacher educators, policymakers, students, parents of students and members of the community at large. Responding to each of Kincheloe's chapters is a scholar-teacher who is intimately familiar with the works, theories and epistemologies of this unique scholar.

Working in the Magic City Thomas A. Castillo, 2022-06-28 In the early twentieth century Miami cultivated an image of itself as a destination for leisure and sunshine free from labor strife. Thomas A. Castillo unpacks this idea of class harmony and the language that articulated its presence by delving into the conflicts, repression and progressive grassroots politics of the time. Castillo pays particular attention to how class and race relations reflected and reinforced the nature of power in Miami. Class harmony argued against the existence of labor conflict but in reality obscured how workers struggled within the city's service-oriented seasonal economy. Castillo shows how and why such an ideal thrived in Miami's atmosphere of growth and boosterism and amidst the political economy of tourism. His analysis also presents class harmony as a theoretical framework that broadens our definitions of class conflict and class consciousness. The Journeyman Barber, 1931

Digital Mythologies Thomas Valovic, 2000 A collection of essays on where computer and communications technology is taking us. He explores the underlying social and political implications of the Internet and its associated technologies based on his contention that the cyberspace experience is far more complex than it is commonly assumed. Power in the Highest Degree Charles Derber, William A. Schwartz, Yale Magrass, 1990-06-21 Lawyer, doctor, scientist: these are the jobs Americans commonly cite when asked to list the most prestigious occupations. The word professional today implies expertise, authority and excellence. To do a job professionally is to do it well. Yet in a society in which knowledge has become a prized asset and an advanced degree the ticket to wealth and power, the rise of professionalism has a darker, more ominous side. Power in the Highest Degree one of the most comprehensive studies of professionals ever undertaken, exposes professionalism as a double-edged sword. It illustrates how experts have come to own and control knowledge much like the wealthy control capital, thereby transforming capitalist and socialist society both for better and for worse. Knowledge long predates money as a source of power and wealth in human society and professionals are only the most recent in a long succession of powerful knowledge classes that have included shaman, witchdoctors and the Confucian mandarins who ruled China for over a thousand years. Drawing on interviews with over 1,000 practicing professionals, the authors show how, by dispensing self-interested and morally colored judgements as scientific truth, modern professionals are consolidating a monopoly over what passes for objective knowledge Experts discredit the ordinary knowledge of the general public to generate a vast market of dependent clients The result is a powerful professional class that creates vital new knowledge and life saving services but also wields growing influence over a population deeply insecure about its ability to manage private and public affairs without expert guidance This sweeping study also reveals that more and more experts are abandoning private practice to work for corporations becoming junior partners in a new Mandarin capitalism While often outspoken advocates of a more socially responsible business world professionals have joined big business to produce one of the most pronounced divisions of mental and manual work in history creating a new dispossessed majority the uncredentialed We learn of an experiment at Polaroid to give machine operators more responsibility which is cancelled when managers and engineers decided that they just didn't want operators that qualified The authors argue that as this new mandarin class radically transforms the social order it helps to reform some of the traditional scourges of the business world but also poses a new threat to equality in America To reverse this trend they propose a post professional society that de-emphasizes skill hierarchies and substantially democratizes knowledge A bold and incisive new work of social criticism this book provides a fascinating look at the modern professional and provokes Americans to think in a new way about democracy in the age of experts
