Technology And The Canadian Mind:

Technology and the Canadian Mind Arthur Kroker, 1985      Technology and the Canadian Mind Arthur Kroker, 1984 The Canadian discourse Technological dependency George Grant as the Nietzsche of the New World Technological humanism the processed World of Marshall McLuhan Technological realism Harold Innis empire of communications      Image and Identity R. Bruce Elder, 2006-01-01 What do images of the body which recent poets and filmmakers have given us tell us about ourselves about the way we think and about the culture in which we live In his new book A Body of Vision R Bruce Elder situates contemporary poetic and cinematic body images in their cultural context Elder examines how recent artists have tried to recognize and to convey primordial forms of experiences He proposes the daring thesis that in their efforts to do so artists have resorted to gnostic models of consciousness He argues that the attempt to convey these primordial modes of awareness demands a different conception of artistic meaning from any of those that currently dominate contemporary critical discussion By reworking theories and speech in highly original ways Elder formulates this new conception The works of Brakhage Artaud Schneeman Cohen and others lie naked under Elder's razor sharp dissecting knife and he exposes the essence of their work cutting deeply into the themes and theses from which the works are derived His remarks on the gaps in contemporary critical practices will likely become the focus of much debate      The ^AOxford Handbook of Canadian Cinema Janine Marchessault, Will Straw, 2019-03-20 This handbook uncovers the complex social and institutional contexts in which Canadian cinema is made and consumed      Canadian Intellectuals, the Tory Tradition, and the Challenge of Modernity, 1939-1970 Philip Massolin, 2015-05-27 In this well researched book Philip Massolin takes a fascinating look at the forces of modernization that swept through English Canada beginning at the turn of the twentieth century Victorian values agrarian religious and the adherence to a rigid set of philosophical and moral codes were being replaced with those intrinsic to the modern age industrial secular scientific and anti intellectual This work analyses the development of a modern consciousness through the eyes of the most fervent critics of modernity adherents to the moral and value systems associated with Canada's tory tradition The work and thought of social and moral critics Harold Innis Donald Creighton Vincent Massey Hilda Neatby George P Grant W L Morton Northrop Frye and Marshall McLuhan are considered for their views of modernization and for their strong opinions on the nature and implications of the modern age These scholars shared concerns over the dire effects of modernity and the need to attune Canadians to the realities of the modern age Whereas most Canadians were oblivious to the effects of modernization these critics perceived something ominous far from being a sign of true progress modernization was a blight on cultural development In spite of the efforts of these critics Canada emerged as a fully modern nation by the 1970s Because of the triumph of modernity the toryism that the critics advocated ceased to be a defining feature of the nation's life Modernization in short contributed to the passing of an intellectual tradition centuries in the making and rapidly led to the ideological underpinnings of today's modern Canada      Technology and Nationalism Marco Adria, 2010-01-28 Revisiting Marshall McLuhan's work on the ways that technologies influence societies Adria reconsiders the effects technologies have had on Canadian regionalism and nationalism Offering key insights into media history the author outlines the influence that newspapers radio and television have had in forming a mindset ready to welcome the internet age As the digital revolution continues to shape the world into a global village Technology and Nationalism provides a detailed and overdue reflection on the influence of technology on the social and political bonds we form and inhabit Canadian Idealism and the Philosophy of Freedom Robert Meynell, 2011-05-18 Twentieth century

Canada fostered a range of great minds but the country's diversity and wide range of academic fields have led to their ideas being portrayed as the work of isolated thinkers Canadian Idealism and the Philosophy of Freedom contests this assumption by linking the works of C B Macpherson George Grant and Charles Taylor to demonstrate the presence of a Canadian intellectual tradition The New Practical Guide to Canadian Political Economy Daniel Drache, Wallace Clement, 1985-01-01

The New Practical Guide to Canadian Political Economy is a handy reference to the vast range of research and writing that political economists in Canada have completed to the date of publication The book is divided into twenty five subject bibliographies each one compiled and introduced by an expert in the field The overall range of subjects includes economic development in Canada Canada's external economic relations regional disparities and regional development social and economic classes women Native peoples politics and the Canadian state nationalism culture and political thought The book is indexed by author and includes a helpful shortlist of the staples in Canadian political economy Published in 1985 The New Practical Guide to Canadian Political Economy remains a useful reference to some of the classic literature of the discipline

Bulletin of the Bureau of Labor Statistics , 1990 Productivity: a Selected Annotated Bibliography , 1990 Area Wage Survey , 1990 Signs in Activities Dorthe Duncker, Adrian Pablé, 2024-03-27 This book is a collective volume bringing together scholars who share an interest in linguistics from an integrational point of view and in developing new directions for future scholarship Integrational linguistics invites us to rethink the theoretical and methodological premises of general linguistics by drawing on a different conception of the sign and by recognizing the creativity that human communication requires Some chapters are concerned with concepts like the sign contextualization activity and integration Although being core concepts developed by the founder of integrational linguistics Roy Harris they have arguably remained underdeveloped in Harris writings and thus call for further clarification and investigation Other chapters are concerned with the notions of the self and the social experience and interaction with questions about individual agency and will and human sociality and social organization which all occupy a central position in integrational theory Finally remaining chapters focus on how scriptism and the language myth have influenced our way of thinking about communication in a broad sense This edited collection will be of interest to a multidisciplinary readership comprising those engaged in study teaching and research in the humanities and social sciences including anthropology the arts education linguistics literary studies philosophy psychology and semiotics      George Grant Hugh Donald Forbes, 2007-01-01 George Grant 1918 1988 is the most engaging and provocative writer to have dealt with Canadian politics in the last fifty years His Lament for a Nation 1965 is an undisputed classic of our nations political literature An instant best seller on account of its practical political argument it has endured as an interpretation of Canadian history and a justification for nationalism in this country Along with Grants other books it has also helped to clarify what is meant by the malaise of modernity said to characterize our time and thus has served to introduce more than a generation of students to the basic questions of political philosophy This study aims to guide the reader toward a clearer understanding of Grants thought Focusing on his six short books and some of his most revealing articles and addresses it serves as both an introduction to and an overview of George Grants career and his many contributions to the fields of political science philosophy religion and Canadian studies Hugh Donald Forbes relates Grants work to that of three disparate and controversial European thinkers Martin Heidegger Leo Strauss and Simone Weil exploring Grant outside of the strictly Canadian framework in which he is normally situated This volume offers fresh perspective on the work of an important political philosopher It will prove invaluable reading for students new to the subject as well as for those interested in a comprehensive study of an outstanding Canadian thinker      Who Killed Shakespeare Patrick Brantlinger, 2013-09-13 First published in 2001 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

The River of History Peter Farrugia, 2005 The articles in this collection are dedicated to the proposition that human beings make history not just in the sense of being agents of change in the here and now but in the sense that we interpret appropriate and make use of the past for our own purposes in the future Covering topics that range from teaching history to the concept of property rights and the discipline of history in the television age these essays will radically alter the notion of how we make history It will show that we are never fully able to bend history to our will and that as we attempt to do so we are often shocked at the turns it takes despite our best efforts to shape it for future generations      Northern Sparks Michael Century, 2022-06-28 An episode of light in Canada sparked by Expo 67 when new art forms innovative technologies and novel institutional and policy frameworks emerged together Understanding how experimental art catalyzes technological innovation is often prized yet typically reduced to the magic formula of creativity In Northern Sparks Michael Century emphasizes the role of policy and institutions by showing how novel art forms and media technologies in Canada emerged during a period of political and social reinvention starting in the 1960s with the energies unleashed by Expo 67 Debunking conventional wisdom Century reclaims innovation from both its present day devotees and detractors by revealing how experimental artists critically challenge as well as discover and extend the capacities of new technologies Century offers a series of detailed cross media case studies that illustrate the cross fertilization of art technology and policy These cases span animation music sound art and acoustic ecology cybernetic cinema interactive installation art virtual reality telecommunications art software applications and the emergent metadiscipline of human computer interaction They include

Norman McLaren's proto computational film animations projects in which the computer itself became an agent as in computer aided musical composition and choreography an ill fated government foray into interactive networking the videotext system Telidon and the beginnings of virtual reality at the Banff Centre Century shows how Canadian artists approached new media technologies as malleable creative materials while Canada undertook a political reinvention alongside its centennial celebrations Northern Sparks offers a uniquely nuanced account of innovation in art and technology illuminated by critical policy analysis

Interactive Realism Daniel Downes, 2005-03-03 Distinguishing between the Internet a communication system and cyberspace an environment for human exchange the author provides a framework for exploring the metaphors and images used in cyberspace to represent and model social reality He clarifies how these symbolic interactions are linked to the technologies used to create store and transmit them and to their social context

Media, Structures, and Power Robert E. Babe, 2011-01-01 Containing introductions and contributions by other prominent scholars this volume situates Babe's work within contemporary scholarship and underscores the extent to which he is one of Canada's most prescient thinkers

Chiasma: A Site for Thought Issue #1 Various Authors, 2014-07-24 Chiasma A Site For Thought is a journal of theory and criticism housed in the Centre for the Study of Theory and Criticism

Wilbur Schramm and Noam Chomsky Meet Harold Innis Robert E. Babe, 2015-04-21 Wilbur Schramm and Noam Chomsky Meet Harold Innis is an original critical in depth analysis of the media and communication thought of Canada's most highly acclaimed scholar Harold Adams Innis Even in Canada however Innis's writings until now have been only partially cited and interpreted Innis is usually stereotyped as being merely an economic historian fixated on previous civilizations whereas in fact he was an astute analyst whose main concerns were with present problems and future trajectories In the United States meanwhile Innis's media and communication writings have been quite neglected and even denigrated Drawing on Innis's less frequently cited work including his long neglected Political Economy in the Modern State Robert Babe opens up Innis's media scholarship as a whole unfolding it in startling critical yet ultimately appreciative ways By comparing Innis's media scholarship with Wilbur Schramm's and Noam Chomsky's moreover Babe tests the claims positions and modes of analysis not only of Innis but also of the other two celebrated scholars as well casting new light on their works and allowing the reader to imagine what sort of discourses might have been possible had the three been in conversation together Wilbur Schramm and Noam Chomsky Meet Harold Innis provides comparative insight into foundational media scholarship in the United States and Canada and explores in some detail the relevance of Innis for twenty first century digitized society
