Gang, 2020-11-22 On a bright sunny day Connecticut senator Theodore Lucci is driven home to his waterfront estate in Greenwich An unexpected sight meets him several police vehicles parked by his front door As he exits his car he is placed under arrest and his life is changed forever According to authorities Theodore killed two men in cold blood and robbed 30 000 from a local bank but there's no motive Theodore is the son of a self made billionaire and has a beautiful wife twin boys and a successful political career Nothing makes sense unless Theodore is in the midst of a conspiracy It's possible his father Anthony Lucci and his father's best friend and head of a Columbian drug cartel could be involved Perhaps the eyewitnesses who identified Theodore are wrong but if Theodore is innocent who was the mystery man at the bank There are too many questions not enough answers and a man's life at stake as authorities struggle to uncover a truth that is deeply buried
