Malcolm Abbott, Bruce Cohen

Telecommunications 1995 International Performance Indicators Research Report 65:

Telecommunications Harry C. Katz, 2019-05-15 Telecommunications provides the first comparative description of a pivotal service industry in which deregulation privatization and globalization have shaped corporate strategies and structure and altered the nature of work A chapter is devoted to each of the countries discussed the United States England Canada Australia Japan Germany Italy Norway Mexico and Korea To facilitate comparisons the authors use a common framework in analyzing changes and their implications for work and employment relations Most employees in telecommunications both white collar and blue collar are unionized and that has highlighted the tension between downsizing and participatory employment strategies The authors describe adjustment paths adopted in the Anglo Saxon countries which emphasize a technology and market driven approach in contrast to Japan and several European countries where labor and social pressures have mediated the course and consequences of industrial adjustment The strategic approach in Korea and Mexico is again different relying on the state to set the pace and terms of change The United States and United Kingdom have emerged as pattern leaders in the international telecommunications industry through their aggressive deregulation and restructuring While downsizing has devastated employee morale experiments in alternative solutions based on union and employee participation are simultaneously underway

Utilities Reform in Twenty-First Century Australia Malcolm Abbott, Bruce Cohen, 2021 The book traces the development and consequences of the economic reform measures undertaken in the utilities sector in Australia communications energy water wastewater services and transport in the last years of the 20th century and early decades of the 21st century

Contemporary Economic Issues Y. Mundlak, 1998-03-15 An overview of many currently topical issues around food and agriculture with particular emphasis on their implications for development These include Nobel Laureate Robert Fogel's discussion of nutritional standards and the implications of new theories of evolution in assessing the extent of malnutrition Historical analysis informs contemporary surveys including Yair Mundlak's comparison of the postwar record of 130 countries in agricultural technology and outputs The important implications of labour markets income distributions and the impact of welfare states on these issues are considered by a number of papers The contributors include many leading academics from North America Europe Africa Australia and Israel
