Tell Me A Story A New Look At Real And Artificial Memory:

Tell Me a Story Roger C. Schank, 1990 Schank takes a look at the human side of intelligence thinking memory imagination imagery and mythology A bold attempt at showing how the mind assimilates knowledge and how that knowledge is retrieved a process similar in both humans and machines Tell Me a Story Roger C. Schank, 1995 In this study by an expert on learning and computers the author argues that artificial intelligence must be based on real human intelligence

Guide to Publishing in Psychology Journals Robert J. Sternberg, 2000-08-28 The Guide to Publishing in Psychology Journals is a complete guide to writing psychology articles for publication It goes beyond the formal requirements to the tacit or unspoken knowledge that is key to writing effective articles and to gaining acceptance by quality journals Thus the information in this book is of a kind that cannot be found in publication manuals or formal guides to writing The book emphasizes empirical articles but also discusses theoretical articles and the role of theory in empirical articles as well as literature review articles The editor and the authors of book chapters all have edited major journals in the field of psychology The book deals with general issues in the writing of articles as well as issues pertinent to specific parts of articles such as titles abstracts introductions methods results discussions and references Communicating for Managerial Effectiveness

Phillip G. Clappitt, 2016-10-28 Appreciated by thousands of thoughtful students successful managers and aspiring senior leaders around the world Communicating for Managerial Effectiveness skillfully integrates theory research and real world case studies into models designed to guide thoughtful responses to complex communication issues The highly anticipated Sixth Edition builds on the strategic principles and related tactics highlighted in previous editions to show readers how to add value to their organizations by communicating more effectively Author Phillip G Clappitt Blair Endowed Chair of Communication at the University of Wisconsin Green Bay addresses common communication problems experienced in organizations including Communicating about major changes spanning organizational boundaries Selecting the proper communication technologies Transforming data into knowledge Addressing ethical dilemmas Providing useful performance feedback Structuring and using robust decision making practices Cultivating the innovative spirit Building a world class communication system Exotic Preferences George Loewenstein, 2007-08-02 George Loewenstein is one of the pioneers of the rapidly growing field of behavioral economics For over twenty years he has been working at the intersection of economics and psychology and is one of the few people of whom it can be said that their work is equally respected and well known within both disciplines This book brings together a selection of his papers focusing on what he calls exotic preferences the disparate motives that drive human behavior In addition to covering the history and methodology of behavioral economics they also touch on a wide range of fascinating topics such as the motives that drive extreme athletes our propensity to want to get unpleasant experiences out of the way so we can focus on the more pleasant and the psychology of curiosity There are also papers on social preferences discussing the importance of perceptions of fairness in interpersonal interactions intertemporal choice the tradeoffs between costs and benefits occurring at different points in time and the impact of emotion on economic decision making An original introduction outlines Loewenstein s general approach to research and there are short introductions to each paper outlining briefly when how and why they came to be written providing a fascinating and vivid insight into the process of intellectual creativity      Handbook of Narrative Inquiry D. Walk with Us and Listen Charles Villa-Vicencio, 2009-09-30 Effective peace agreements are rarely accomplished by idealists The process of moving from situations of entrenched oppression armed conflict open warfare and mass atrocities toward peace and reconciliation requires a series of small steps and compromises to open the way for the kind of dialogue and negotiation that make political stability the beginning of democracy and the rule of law a possibility For over forty years Charles Villa Vicencio has been on the front lines of Africa s battle for racial equality In Walk with Us and Listen he argues that reconciliation needs honest talk to promote trust building and enable former enemies and adversaries to explore joint solutions to the cause of their conflicts He offers a critical assessment of the South African experiment in transitional justice as captured in the Truth and Reconciliation Commission and considers the influence of ubuntu in which individuals are defined by their relationships and other traditional African models of reconciliation Political reconciliation is offered as a cautious model against which transitional politics needs to be measured Villa Vicencio challenges those who stress the obligation to prosecute those allegedly guilty of gross violation of human rights replacing this call with the need for more complementarity between the International Criminal Court and

African mechanisms to achieve the greater goals of justice and peace building      Questions and Information Systems
 Thomas W. Lauer,Eileen Peacock,Arthur C. Graesser,2013-04-15 The design and functioning of an information system improve to the extent that the system can handle the questions people ask Surprisingly however researchers in the cognitive computer and information sciences have not thoroughly examined the multitude of relationships between information systems and questions both question asking and answering The purpose of this book is to explicitly examine these relationships Chapter contributors believe that questions play a central role in the analysis design and use of different kinds of natural or artificial information systems such as human cognition social interaction communication networks and intelligent tutoring systems Their efforts show that data structures and representations need to be organized around the questioning mechanisms in order to achieve a quick retrieval of relevant useful information      Hope and Despair in Narrative and Family Therapy Carmel Flaskas,Imelda McCarthy,Jim Sheehan,2007-03-12 How do experiences of hope and despair impact upon our capacity to meet life s challenges in narrative and family therapy Clients experiences of hope and despair can be complex reflecting individual and family histories current patterns and dynamics the stresses of everyday life and the social contexts of families lives This book analyses how therapists meet and engage with these dichotomous aspects of human experience The editors place the themes of hope and despair at the centre of a series of reflections on practice and theory Contributors from all over the world are brought together incorporating a range of perspectives from narrative systemic and social constructionist frameworks The book is divided into three sections covering reflections on hope and despair facing adversity practices of hope reflections on reconciliation and forgiveness Hope and Despair in Narrative and Family Therapy looks at the importance of hope in bringing about positive therapeutic change This book will be of great use to family therapists psychotherapists counsellors and students on therapeutic training courses      The Strategic Use of Stories in Organizational Communication and Learning Terrence L. Gargiulo,2014-12-18 Designed for students and practitioners in the fields of organizational behavior and human resource training and development this groundbreaking book presents a cutting edge approach to improving organizational communication Drawing on his extensive experience as an organizational development consultant and group process facilitator Terrence Gargiulo shows how the use of storytelling is the key to effective communication and learning      Story Harold Scheub,1998-10-01 What is the essence of story How does the storyteller convey meaning Leading scholar Harold Scheub tackles these questions and more demonstrating that the power of story lies in emotion While others have focused on the importance of structure in the art of story Scheub emphasizes emotion He shows how an expert storyteller uses structural elements image rhythm and narrative to shape a story s fundamental emotional content The storyteller uses traditional images repetition and linear narrative to move the audience past the story s surface of morals and ideas and make connections to their past present and future To guide the audience on this emotional journey is the storyteller s art The traditional stories from South African Xhosa and San cultures included in the book lend persuasive support to Scheub's These stories speak for themselves demonstrating that a skilled performer can stir emotions despite the obstacles of space time and culture
