Exploration James S.J. Schwartz, Tony Milligan, 2016-07-25 This book aims to contribute significantly to the understanding of issues of value including the ultimate value of space related activities which repeatedly emerge in interdisciplinary discussions on space and society Although a recurring feature of discussions about space in the humanities the treatment of value questions has tended to be patchy of uneven quality and even on occasion idiosyncratic rather than drawing upon a close familiarity with state of the art ethical theory One of the volume s aims is to promote a more robust and theoretically informed approach to the ethical dimension of discussions on space and society While the contributions are written in a manner which is accessible across disciplines the book still withstands scrutiny by those whose work is primarily on ethics At the same time it allows academics across a range of disciplines an insight into current approaches toward how the work of ethics gets done The issues of value raised could be used to inform debates about regulation space law and protocols for microbial discovery as well as longer range policy debates about funding

Cream Teas, Traffic Jams and Sunburn Brian Viner, 2011-05-26 The British on holiday how can four simple words evoke so many vivid images images of raw sunburn and relentless rain of John Bull s Pub in Lanzarote and Antonio s Tapas Bar in Torquay of endless queues to get through security at Manchester Airport or Gatwick or Glasgow or Luton and endless tailbacks on the M5 or M6 or M25 but also images of carefree splashing in Portuguese swimming pools and lazy lunches in the Provencal sun In this funny acutely observed and engaging social history Brian Viner celebrates the holidaying British with their quirks and their quinine tablets and their blithe assumption that the elderly man selling oranges at the roadside in Corfu so photogenic with his walnut face and three teeth must surely understand just a few uncomplicated

English sentences He examines the fortnight long cruise at one end of the holiday spectrum and a day s rambling in the Lake District at the other He looks at how the holidaying British evolved into the big spending many headed beast we know today by recalling not only the holidays that we took as children but the holidays our grandparents and their grandparents took It is a story that connects Blackpool with Barcelona Mauritius with Margate It is a story indeed that connects us all Cosmic Fragments Asif A.
