Tell No One Who You Are The Hidden Childhood Of Regine Miller:

Tell No One Who You Are Walter Buchignani, 2012-02-14 During the days of Nazi terror in Europe many Jewish children were taken from their families and hidden Regine Miller was one such child who left her mother father and brother when she was 10 years old Utterly alone as she is shunted from place to place told to tell no one she is Jewish she hears that her mother and brother have been taken by the SS the German secret police Only her desperate hope that her father will return sustains her At war's end she must learn to live with the terrible truth of the final solution the Nazi's extermination camps The people who sheltered Regine cover a wide spectrum of human types ranging from callous to kind fearful to defiant exploitive to caring This is a story of a brave girl and an equally brave woman to tell the story so many years later Tell No One who You are Walter Buchignani, 2001

Tell No One Who You Are Walter Buchignani, 1994-01-01 Tells the story of Regine Miller who hid with four Belgium families during the German occupation Tapestry of Hope, 2009-07-10 Winner of the Honor Book award in the 2003 Society of School Librarians International Awards program Selected as a finalist for the Sheila A Egoff Children's Literature Prize Selected by the Pennsylvania School Librarians Association as one of the PSLA YA Top Forty Nonfiction Titles 2003 Tapestry of Hope is an extraordinary anthology of writing about the Holocaust for young people Irene N Watts and Lillian Boraks Nemetz have gathered well known published writing and new first person accounts to reveal the heartbreak courage and hope that define one of history's darkest hours The editors present writing about hiding from the Nazis life in the ghetto resistance the camps escape survival and life after the Holocaust Selections include poetry prose and first hand accounts such as Andre Stein's Hidden Children Jack Kuper's Child of the Holocaust Jason Shermon's A Blessing in Disguise Kathy Kacer's Gaby's Dresser Eva Wiseman's My Canary Yellow Star Leonard Cohen's All There is to Know about Adolph Eichmann Jean Little writing about Anne Frank Karen Levine's Hannah's Suitcase and many others

Hidden Children of the Holocaust Suzanne Vromen, 2010-03-04 In the summer of 1942 in Belgium Jewish parents searched desperately for safe haven for their children As Suzanne Vromen reveals in Hidden Children of the Holocaust they quite often found sanctuary in Roman Catholic convents and orphanages Vromen has interviewed not only those who were hidden as children but also the Christian women who rescued them and the nuns who gave the children shelter all of whose voices are heard in this moving book Indeed here are numerous first hand memoirs of life in a wartime convent the secrecy the deprivation the cruelty and the kindness all with the backdrop of the terror of the Nazi occupation And Life is Changed Forever Martin Ira Glassner, Robert Krell, 2006 Contains brief memoirs some of which describe experiences in the Holocaust Includes commentary by psychologist and child survivor Robert Krell Partial contents The Holocaust David M. Crowe, 2018-05-04 This book details the history of the Jews their two millennia old struggle with a larger Christian world and the historical anti-Semitism that created the environment that helped pave the way for the Holocaust It helps students develop the interpretative skills in the fields of history and law Children's Books from Other Countries Carl M.

Tomlinson, United States Board on Books for Young People, 1998 Every child is entranced by the magic of story regardless of national boundaries Many of the most memorable childhood stories have their origins in other countries Exposing children to this multi national body of literature introduces them to the great diversity of people and cultures that populate the world at a young age enabling them to become more thoughtful and generous individuals Children s Books from Other Countries is a complete and current guide to international children s literature The concept of a bibliography of international children s literature is not new In the past many books have accomplished this task The last two decades however have not yet produced a current reference source devoted to international children s books Children s Books from Other Countries wonderfully rectifies this lack of attention An introductory essay provides an overview of the field including a discussion on the rationale of sharing international books with children a brief history of the children s literature movement related books and awards and basic information about the International Board on Books for Young People IBBY and its American branch the United States Board on Books for Young People USBBY An annotated bibliography contains over 700 titles from 29 different countries printed between 1950 and 1996 All titles are available in English many have been translated and others have originated in other English speaking countries The titles are organized by genre and have been selected for their high quality They are primarily targeted for children ages 0 14 although a few outstanding young adult titles are included Winners of the Mildred Batchelder Award and the Hans Christian Andersen Medal are listed in the appendix Indexes include Author Title Index Country of Origin Index and Subject Index Affordable and readable this timely resource is certainly a must for librarians and teachers and other professionals working with children Sponsored by the United State The Columbia Guide to the Holocaust Donald L. Niewyk, Francis R. Nicosia, 2012-07-24 Offering a multidimensional approach to one of the most important episodes of the twentieth century The Columbia Guide to the Holocaust offers readers and researchers a general history of the Holocaust while delving into the core issues and debates in the study of the Holocaust today Each of the book s five distinct parts stands on its own as valuable research aids together they constitute an integrated whole Part I provides a narrative overview of the Holocaust placing it within the larger context of Nazi Germany and World War II Part II examines eight critical issues or controversies in the study of the Holocaust including the following questions Were the Jews the sole targets of Nazi genocide or must other groups such as homosexuals the handicapped Gypsies and political dissenters also be included What are the historical roots of the Holocaust How and why did the Final Solution come about Why did bystanders extend or withhold aid Part III consists of a concise chronology of major events and developments that took place surrounding the Holocaust including the armistice ending World War I the opening of the first major concentration camp at Dachau Germany s invasion of Poland the failed assassination attempt against Hitler and the formation of Israel Part IV contains short descriptive articles on more than two hundred key people places terms and institutions central to a thorough understanding of the Holocaust Entries include Adolf Eichmann Anne Frank the Warsaw Ghetto Aryanization the SS
