Language Across Boundaries Janet Cotterill, Anne Ife, 2005-11-17 Language across Boundaries is a selection of papers from the millennium conference of the British Association of Applied Linguistics The thirteen papers are written by applied linguists from Britain mainland Europe the USA Australia and Singapore working in a variety of sub disciplines of the field The boundaries of the title have been widely interpreted and the book reflects a spectrum of research ranging from work on the linguistic repercussions of individual and group identity boundaries to work dealing with ways of crossing national and cultural boundaries through language learning and language mediation in the form of translation Included in the volumes are the plenary papers given by Jennifer Coates well known for her work on language and gender on the expression of alternative masculinities and by Bencie Woll holder of the first chair of Sign Language and Deaf Studies in the UK on the insights to be gained from sign language in exploring language culture and identity

Living with Mental Illness in a Globalised World Ugo Ikwuka, 2021-05-03 Living with Mental Illness in a Globalised World systematically examines the manifold contributions to the burdens of living with mental illness in a developing and globalised world It explores the stigma of mental illness the burden of which compares to the symptoms of and is sometimes considered more disabling than the illness itself The book starts by reviewing the socio psychological and cultural processes that contribute to stigma and providing evidence based interventions to combat it Chapters critically investigate the ideological and instrumental barriers to mental healthcare and establish that determining the conceptualisations of mental illness helps to unravel the reasons for the underutilisation of mental health services A compelling case is made for a complementary healthcare model and bottom up approach that is sensitive to the spiritual and cultural needs of the people The text s specific examination of mental healthcare in African countries makes it a timely piece for assisting mental health professionals in understanding the inequities in care that Black Asian and Minority Ethnic groups face and how to improve mental healthcare and delivery to these groups Dreams, Questions, Struggles Amrit

Wilson,2006-02-20 From schoolgirls to matriarchs single mothers to extended families and businesswomen to factory workers the experience of Asian women in Britain today is polarised by class and religion This book explores the lives and struggles of two generations of British Asian women to present a political account of their experiences personal and public individual and collective their struggles take on power structures within the family the community and on occasion the British state Combining their personal testimony within a theoretical framework Amrit Wilson locates their experiences in the wider context of global and regional politics She examines what impact the feminist movement has had on their lives and explores issues such as domestic violence Asian marriages representations of Asian women mental disturbance and suicide

Islam, Crime and Criminal Justice Basia Spalek,2013-01-11 This book provides an important contribution to debates over the role of Muslims in British society generally as well as their experiences of and involvement in the criminal justice system and the policy implications that arise from this It is a particularly timely collection in light of both the recent disturbances in several northern English cities as well as the impact of the events of 11 September 2001 and their aftermath Combating

Social Exclusion in University Adult Education Julia Preece,2018-08-17 Published in 1999 this work suggests that widening participation is not just about changing learner expectations it is also about changing institutional expectations and practices Higher learning for example should include a broader more inclusive range of knowledge and ways of knowing than at present and criteria for learning achievement should include assessment of citizenship as well as linear outcomes

International Perspectives on Citizenship, Education and Religious Diversity Robert Jackson,2003-09-02 Citizenship is high on the agenda of education systems in many of the world s democracies As yet however discussions of citizenship education have neglected issues of religious diversity and how the study of religions can contribute to our understanding of citizenship International Perspectives on Citizenship Education and Religious Diversity brings together an international range of contributions from religious studies scholars and educators specialising in the study of religions Together these illustrate and explore the key questions for educational theory and pedagogy raised by drawing issues of religious diversity into citizenship education The chapters address and extend debates over the nature of citizenship in late modernity highlighting local and global dimensions of citizenship in relation to issues of national religious ethnic and cultural identity

As well as emphasising the role religious education has to play in citizenship education this book also covers wider issues such as state supported faith schools and cultural diversity in relation to common citizenship The authors argue that critical yet reflective approaches to religious education have a distinctive and valuable contribution to make to citizenship education Issues addressed within the study of religions are related to new forms of global and cultural citizenship as well as citizenship within the nation state Ultimately this stimulating and original collection highlights the challenges and possibilities for teaching and learning about religion religions and religious diversity within an inclusive educational practice
