Thompson, Robert A. Neimeyer, 2014-01-10 The use of the arts in psychotherapy is a burgeoning area of interest particularly in the field of bereavement where it is a staple intervention in hospice programs children s grief camps specialized programs for trauma or combat exposure work with bereaved parents widowed elders or suicide survivors and in many other contexts But how should clinicians differentiate between the many different approaches and techniques and what criteria should they use to decide which technique to use and when Grief and the Expressive Arts provides the answers using a crisp coherent structure that creates a conceptual and relational scaffold for an artistically inclined grief therapy Each of the book's brief chapters is accessible and clearly focused conveying concrete methods and anchoring them in brief case studies across a range of approaches featuring music creative writing visual arts dance and movement theatre and performance and multi modal practices Any clinician expressive arts therapist grief counselor or something in between looking for a professionally oriented but scientifically informed book for guidance and inspiration need look no further than Grief and the Expressive Arts

Non-Death Loss and Grief Darcy L. Harris, 2019-10-16 Non-Death Loss and Grief offers an inclusive perspective on loss and grief exploring recent research clinical applications and current thinking on non-death losses and the unique features of the grieving process that accompany them The book places an overarching focus on the losses that we encounter in everyday life and the role of these loss experiences in shaping us as we continue living A main emphasis is the importance of having words to accurately express these living losses such as loss of communication with a loved one due to disease or trauma which are often not acknowledged for the depth of their impact Chapters showcase a wide range of contributions from international leaders in the field and explore individual perspectives on loss as well as experiences that are more interpersonal and sociopolitical in nature Illustrated by case studies and clinical examples throughout this is a highly relevant text for clinicians looking to enhance their support of those living with ongoing loss and grief

Writing for Wellbeing Katrin Den Elzen, Reineke Lengelle, 2023-07-07 Writing can support our wellbeing even under the most difficult life circumstances helping us to adapt to significant change make sense of loss improve our physical and emotional resilience and foster personal growth Numerous studies of Expressive Writing have confirmed this and there are other established methodologies for practice However to date few accounts have offered detailed descriptions showing how and why putting pen to paper can be so beneficial This book delves deeply into the landscape of Writing for wellbeing and demonstrates the transformative power of writing in a wide range of contexts Topics include personal trauma narratives within the Humanities a participatory Writing for wellbeing study that demonstrates the effectiveness of writing in the context of grief and loss surprise as the hidden mainspring of poetry's therapeutic potency the empowerment and healing potential offered by Black women's blogs playwriting positioning LGBTQIA identities as positive through stories of belonging how writing workshops have helped newly literate Indigenous adults and other participants in the Australian outback and how the smuggled writings of Behrouz Boochani have enabled global witnessing of the stories of refugees held in offshore detention This resource sets out the theory and research at the foundation of Writing for wellbeing in close relation to full and engaging accounts of practice It aims to make the topic accessible and affirms its place as an effective reconstructive practice alongside other expressive arts therapies providing a holistic and inspiring resource for anyone wishing to practice teach or research Writing for wellbeing The Publishers Weekly ,2002 Art and Mourning Esther

Dreifuss-Kattan,2016-03-10 Art and Mourning explores the relationship between creativity and the work of self mourning in the lives of 20th century artists and thinkers The role of artistic and creative endeavours is well known within psychoanalytic circles in helping to heal in the face of personal loss trauma and mourning In this book Esther Dreifuss Kattan a psychoanalyst art therapist and artist analyses the work of major modernist and contemporary artists and thinkers through a psychoanalytic lens In coming to terms with their own mortality figures like Albert Einstein Louise Bourgeois Paul Klee Eva Hesse and others were able to access previously unknown reserves of creative energy in their late works as well as a new healing experience of time outside of the continuous temporality of everyday life Dreifuss Kattan explores what we can learn about using the creative process to face and work through traumatic and painful experiences of loss Art and Mourning will inspire psychoanalysts and psychotherapists to understand the power of artistic expression in transforming loss and traumas into perseverance survival and gain Art and Mourning offers a new perspective on trauma and will appeal to psychoanalysts and psychotherapists psychologists clinical social workers and mental health workers as well as artists and art historians

On The Threshold of Mourning Pasquale De Marco,2025-07-14 In the tapestry of human experience grief and mourning are threads that intertwine with the vibrant hues of joy and love Yet in our fast paced and often isolating modern world we often struggle to find the space and support we need to navigate these profound emotions This book offers a compassionate and insightful guide to the journey of grief and mourning providing readers with the tools and understanding they need to heal and find meaning in the face of loss Through a blend of personal anecdotes expert insights and thought provoking reflections this book explores the many facets of grief and mourning It delves into the physical emotional and psychological manifestations of loss helping readers to understand the complex and often contradictory emotions that they may be experiencing It also examines the diverse cultural variations in mourning practices shedding light on the unique ways in which different societies and individuals navigate the terrain of loss Furthermore this book explores the role of art literature and media in shaping our understanding of grief and mourning It analyzes artistic expressions of loss from poignant paintings and sculptures to heart wrenching novels and films It also examines the impact of social media and other digital technologies on the way we grieve and remember our loved ones With warmth empathy and wisdom this book offers a lifeline to those who are grieving It provides practical advice coping strategies and sources of support to help readers navigate the challenging journey of loss It also encourages readers to embrace the healing power of grief and to find new meaning and purpose in their lives after loss This book is an essential resource for anyone who has experienced the loss of a loved one as well as for professionals who work with grieving individuals It is a beacon of hope and a source of comfort during one of life s most difficult passages If you like this book write a review Poetry and Story Therapy Geri Giebel Chavis,2011-08-15 This
