

Country Music

• THE LISTENER'S GUIDES are a lively and original series of books about music of all types, from chamber music to the blues. Written by acknowledged authorities, every title provides a historical account of the development of a particular genre, which places in context the outstanding personalities, whether composers or performers, and their music. Each author draws on a comprehensive understanding of the music under discussion in order to select the major works in the field and the best available recorded interpretations—the recordings that belong in every music lover's collection. Easy-to-use, regularly revised, THE LISTENER'S GUIDES are essential companions for anyone who enjoys music.
