Animal Biography André Krebber, Mieke Roscher, 2018-10-19 While historiography is dominated by attempts that try to standardize and de-individualize the behavior of animals history proves to be littered with records of the exceptional lives of unusual animals This book introduces animal biography as an approach to the re-framing of animals as both objects of knowledge as well as subjects of individual lives Taking an interdisciplinary perspective and bringing together scholars from among others literary historical and cultural studies the texts collected in this volume seek to refine animal biography as a research method and framework to studying capturing representing and acknowledging animal others as individuals From Heini Hediger's biting monitor Hachik and Murr to celluloid ape Caesar and the mourning of Topsy's gruesome death the authors discuss how animal biographies are discovered and explored through connections with humans that can be traced in archives ethological fieldwork and novels and probe the means of constructing animal biographies from taxidermy to film literature and social media Thus they invite deeper conversations with socio-political and cultural contexts that allow animal biographies to provide narratives that reach beyond individual life stories while experimenting with particular forms of animal biographies that might trigger animal activism and concerns for animal well-being spur historical interest and enrich the literary imagination *Catalog of Copyright Entries. The Souls of Mixed Folk Michele Elam,2011-02-21 The Souls of Mixed Folk examines representations of mixed race in literature and the arts that redefine new millennial aesthetics and politics Focusing on black white mixes Elam analyzes expressive works novels drama

graphic narrative late night television art installations as artistic rejoinders to the perception that post Civil Rights politics are bereft and post Black art is apolitical Reorienting attention to the cultural invention of mixed race from the social sciences to the humanities Elam considers the creative work of Lezley Saar Aaron McGruder Nate Creekmore Danzy Senna Colson Whitehead Emily Raboteau Carl Hancock Rux and Dave Chappelle All these writers and artists address mixed race as both an aesthetic challenge and a social concern and together they gesture toward a poetics of social justice for the mulatto millennium The Souls of Mixed Folk seeks a middle way between competing hagiographic and apocalyptic impulses in mixed race scholarship between those who proselytize mixed race as the great hallelujah to the race problem and those who can only hear the alarmist bells of civil rights destruction Both approaches can obscure some of the more critically astute engagements with new millennial iterations of mixed race by the multi generic cohort of contemporary writers artists and performers discussed in this book The Souls of Mixed Folk offers case studies of their creative work in an effort to expand the contemporary idiom about mixed race in the so called post race moment asking how might new millennial expressive forms suggest an aesthetics of mixed race And how might such an aesthetics productively reimagine the relations between race art and social equity in the twenty first century
