The Longest Way Home:

The Longest Way Home Andrew McCarthy, 2013-06-04 The author a travel writer and actor delivers a memoir about how travel helped him become the man he wanted to be helping him overcome life long fears and confront his resistance to commitment From time immemorial travel has been a pursuit of passion from adventurers of old seeking gold or new lands to today s spiritual and pleasure seekers who follow in the footsteps of Elizabeth Gilbert Some see travel as a form of light hearted escapism while others believe it has the power to open your mind forcing you to confront your demons and discover your true self The author belongs to this second category of traveler His memoir follows his excursions to Patagonia the Amazon Costa Rica Baltimore Vienna Kilimanjaro Dublin and beyond He uses his wanderlust to examine his motives and desires and explore his ambivalence about commitment He ponders his personal life his acting career and his impulse to leave home all building toward one of the most significant moments of his life his wedding day His message about the transformative power of travel is universal and his exploration of the nature and passion of relationships both fleeting and enduring strikes a chord with every man and woman who has ever wondered at the vicissitudes of the human heart The Longest Way Home Robert Silverberg, 2014-04-01 A New York Times Notable Book A far future coming of age tale from the SF Grand Master one of the world s finest stylists and storytellers San Antonio Express News What wonders and adventures he has to tell us is how Ursula K Le Guin characterized the work of Robert Silverberg and in The Longest Way Home he takes readers on another dazzling odyssey Joseph fifteen and separated from his family in the land known as Getfen awakens to an attack on the Great House in which he is visiting Narrowly escaping with his life but still pursued by enemies who wish to see him killed Joseph must journey across a dark unfamiliar world on his quest to return to his home of Helikis and his father He has thousands of miles to travel and much to learn about this perilous alien world in transition and about himself What the greatly changed Joseph might find at the end of his journey and how he might react are questions that I came to care deeply about The New York Times Book Review The Longest Way Home recalls in a lot of ways the old time frontier adventures not the ones with the cowboys and the Indians but the ones where people have to learn to survive in the wilderness or along the prairie Joseph s adventures in survival are exciting and the travels along this world are a pleasant escape SF Site This engaging entertaining book is a fast read with many thoughtful themes School Library Journal The Longest Way Home Robert Silverberg, 2002 For more than a thousand years society on Homeworld has remained rigidly stratified The Great Houses rule peace between them enforced by unbreakable webs of kinship The Folk accept the benefits of the system stability prosperity and peace The Indigenes their world occupied for thousands of years by settlers from Old Earth are placid Then on one night of worldwide rebellion everything changes as the Folk turn against the ruling Houses and annihilate them Joseph scion of one Great House visiting another is one of the few survivors at House Getfen His home is ten thousand miles away The infrastructure which he has taken for granted all his life communications transport has been swept away For all he knows his family has been wiped out as thoroughly as the members of House Getfen But his only hope lies in finding his way home across ten thousand miles of a world turned suddenly strange and hostile To succeed he must set aside all his old beliefs and assumptions and learn the truth about the world he lives in Robert Silverberg s newest novel is a masterful portrayal of a society and turned upside down and a colourful and highly imaginative depiction of an alien world The Longest Way Home William Elmer Bittle,Gilbert Geis,1964 An Oklahoma I Had Never Seen Before Davis D.
