Fong,Martin C.S. Wong,2021-08-29 Community health is an emerging and growing discipline of public health and it focuses on the physical social and mental well being of the people of specific districts This interdisciplinary field brings together aspects of health care economics environment and people interaction This handbook is a comprehensive reference on public health for higher education students scholars practitioners and policymakers of health care There are five key thematic sections in the book perspectives in public health community health in practise planning built and social environment and community health digital and mobile health and towards sustainable health in the community Each theme explores the leading research and trends This book aims to help achieve the shared goal of healthier communities and quality of life for the residents This collaborative work should be a very useful handbook to health professionals and government bodies in the planning of initiatives to improve population health prevent chronic diseases control infectious diseases and outbreaks and prepare for natural disasters This handbook integrates research and practise of public health in the community Giving to Help, Helping to Give Tade Akin Aina,2013-08-01 The past decade has seen a flowering of philanthropic activities across many parts of Africa Unlike before this flowering has the distinct character of African agency energy and engagement Philanthropy is no longer about narratives of passive poor and miserable Africans receiving help from rich fortunate and often Western outsiders The emerging narratives about philanthropy in Africa are about an increasingly confident and knowledgeable assertion of African capacities to give not only to help but also to transform and seek to address the root causes of injustice want ignorance and disease The narratives are also about the increasing questioning of the role and place of Africans in the world s philanthropic traditions and what constitutes African specificities but also African differences and varieties This book is about African philanthropic experiences their varieties challenges and opportunities It is about documenting investigating describing questioning and reflecting on philanthropy in Africa Because Africa is not a monolithic entity with one single history cultural political and economic experience this ground breaking book rightly tackles the varied modes forms vehicles and means in which the philanthropic experiences are expressed in Africa It is a pioneering and ambitious effort in a field and community of practice that is new both in terms of scholarship and in professional practice Many of the chapters boldly engage the burden of reflections questions ambivalences and ambiguities that one often finds in an emerging field innovatively positing the outlines concepts frameworks and theories of scholarship and practice for a field critical to development on the continent
