

English Bible Translations Comparison Chart

Many comparisons assign age based reading levels to each translation. We have found that this can unintentionally stigmatize a translation. This type of evaluation is highly subjective. Having said that, we have provided a passage from the Bible to read so you can make this evaluation for yourself.

Tyndale NT (1525)

16 Wherefore henceforth knowe we no man after the fleshe. In someche though we have knowe Christ after the fleshe now hence forth knowe we hym so no more. 17 Therefore yf eny man be in Christ he is a newe creature. Olde thynges are passed awaye beholde all thinges are be come newe. 18 Neverthelesse all thinges are of god which hath reconciled vs vnto him sylfe by Iesus Christ and hath given vnto vs the office to preach the atonement.
(2 Corinthians 5:16-18)

KJV (1611)

16 Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh; yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more. 17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature; old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. 18 And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;
(2 Corinthians 5:16-18)

NASB (1971)

16 Therefore from now on we recognize no one by the flesh; even though we have known Christ by the flesh, yet now we know Him in this way no longer. 17 Therefore if anyone is in Christ, this person is a new creation; the old things passed away; behold, new things have come. 18 Now all these things are from God, who reconciled us to Himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation,
(2 Corinthians 5:16-18)

NIV (1978)

16 So from now on we regard no one from a worldly point of view. Though we once regarded Christ in this way, we do so no longer. 17 Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here! 18 All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation;
(2 Corinthians 5:16-18)

NKJV (1982)

16 Therefore, from now on, we regard no one according to the flesh. Even though we have known Christ according to the flesh, yet now we know Him thus no longer. 17 Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new. 18 Now all things are of God, who has reconciled us to Himself through Jesus Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation,
(2 Corinthians 5:16-18)

NRSV (1989)

16 From now on, therefore, we regard no one from a human point of view; even though we once knew Christ from a human point of view, we know him no longer in that way. 17 So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new! 18 All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation;
(2 Corinthians 5:16-18)

NLT (1996)

16 So we have stopped evaluating others from a human point of view. At one time we thought of Christ merely from a human point of view. How differently we know him now! 17 This means that anyone who belongs to Christ has become a new person. The old life is gone; a new life has begun! 18 And all of this is a gift from God, who brought us back to himself through Christ. And God has given us this task of reconciling people to him.
(2 Corinthians 5:16-18)

ESV (2001)

16 From now on, therefore, we regard no one according to the flesh. Even though we once regarded Christ according to the flesh, we regard him thus no longer. 17 Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. 18 All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation;
(2 Corinthians 5:16-18)

CSB (2004)

16 From now on, then, we do not know anyone from a worldly perspective. Even if we have known Christ from a worldly perspective, yet now we no longer know him in this way. 17 Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has passed away, and see, the new has come! 18 Everything is from God, who has reconciled us to himself through Christ and has given us the ministry of reconciliation.
(2 Corinthians 5:16-18)

The Other Image Rich Ives,1984-09-01 Words, Images and Performances in Translation Rita Wilson,Brigid Maher,2012-02-02 PROCEEDINGS OF THE SECOND INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON GLOBALIZATION: CHALLENGES FOR TRANSLATORS AND INTERPRETERS Youbin Zhao,Wei Lin,Zhiqing Zhang,2017-07-04 This two volume book contains the refereed proceedings of The Second International Conference on Globalization Challenges for Translators and Interpreters organized by the School of Translation Studies Jinan University China on its Zhuhai campus October 27 29 2016 The interrelation between translation and globalization is essential reading for not only scholars and educators but also anyone with an interest in translation and interpreting studies or a concern for the future of our world s languages and cultures The past decade or so in particular has witnessed remarkable progress concerning research on issues related to this topic Given this dynamic The Second International Conference on Globalization Challenges for Translators and Interpreters organized by the School of Translation Studies Jinan University China organized by the School of Translation Studies Jinan University China was held at the Zhuhai campus of Jinan University on October 27 29 2016 This conference attracts a large number of translators interpreters and researchers providing a rare opportunity for academic exchange in this field The 135 full papers accepted for the proceedings of The Second International Conference on Globalization Challenges for Translators and Interpreters organized by the School of Translation Studies Jinan University China were selected from 350 submissions For each paper the authors were shepherded by an experienced researcher Generally all of the submitted papers went through a rigorous peer review process Byron and Translation Maria Schoina,Alexander Grammatikos,2024-11-15 This collection of essays offers an image of Byron not only as a poet for which he is best known but as a translator of foreign literature and culture To recover this underexplored element of Byron s work the contributors examine his translated pieces in both textual and extra textual contexts including analysis of manuscripts composition history publishing history and other literary and historical factors They explore the motives behind Byron s choice to translate in the first place as well as reconstructing the translational methods he applied and his ideas on translation and the role of the translator in general The book focuses too on Byron s geographical mobility which also involved the act of translation though in a metaphorical sense The cosmopolitan poet mediated and interpreted all the time foreign cultures behaviours modes of living customs and habits In this sense translation becomes for the poet a dynamic movement between languages across texts and around various contexts offering Byron a vital space for the articulation of his ideas Byron s translation work reminds us how Romantic writers and readers sought to learn about and engage with the wider world and its various languages

Theories on the Move Şebnem Susam-Sarajeva,2006-01-01 Within translation studies books on translating conceptually dense texts such as philosophical or theoretical writings are remarkably few Although the translation of literature has been a favourite topic for many decades the translation of theories on literature has been neglected The phrase theories of translation is everywhere but translation of theories is a rare sight On the other hand the term translation has become a commonplace in literary and cultural studies yet usually as a rhetorical figure describing the fate of those who struggle between two worlds and two languages such as migrants or women Not much attention has been paid to the role of translation proper in contemporary circulation of ideas The book addresses these gaps in translation studies and in literary studies for the first time by examining two specific cases where translation strategies and patterns crucially influenced the reception of imported schools of thought By examining the importation of structuralism and semiotics into Turkish and of French feminism into English it invites the readers to think about the impact of translation on the transmission of ideas across linguistic cultural borders and power differentials It is therefore of particular interest to the scholars working in translation studies in literary and cultural theory and in gender studies

Translating Great Russian Literature Cathy McAteer, 2021-01-03 Launched in 1950 Penguin's Russian Classics quickly progressed to include translations of many great works of Russian literature and the series came to be regarded by readers both academic and general as the de facto provider of classic Russian literature in English translation the legacy of which reputation resonates right up to the present day Through an analysis of the individuals involved their agendas and their socio cultural context this book based on extensive original research examines how Penguin's decisions and practices when translating and publishing the series played a significant role in deciding how Russian literature would be produced and marketed in English translation As such the book represents a major contribution to Translation Studies to the study of Russian literature to book history and to the history of publishing

Translation and Contemporary Art MaCarmen África Vidal Claramonte, 2022-03-01 This book looks to expand the definition of translation in line with Susan Bassnett and David Johnston's notion of the outward turn applying this perspective to contemporary art to broaden the scope of how we understand translation in today's global multisemiotic world The book takes as its point of departure the idea that texts are comprised of not only words but other semiotic systems and therefore expanding our notions of both language and translation can better equip us to translate stories told via non traditional means in novel ways While the outward turn has been analyzed in literature Vidal directs this spotlight to contemporary art a field which has already engaged in disciplinary connections with Translation Studies The volume highlights how the unpacking of such connections between disciplines encourages engagement with contemporary social issues around identity power migration and globalization and in turn new ways of thinking and bringing about wider cultural change This innovative book will be of interest to scholars in translation studies and contemporary art

PROCEEDINGS OF THE THIRD INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON GLOBALIZATION: CHALLENGES FOR TRANSLATORS AND INTERPRETERS Zhiqing Zhang, Youbin Zhao, Xinjie Wang, 2020-05-26 With the implementation of the Belt and Road Initiative and the development of Guangdong Hong Kong Macau Greater Bay Area the demand for translators and interpreters continues to grow in China The breakthrough in artificial intelligence which has contributed to an enormous improvement in the quality of machine translation means challenges and opportunities for translators and interpreters as well as studies of translation and interpreting Studies of translation and interpreting have been further expanded and diversified in the era of globalized communications The interrelation between translation and globalization is essential reading for not only scholars and educators but also anyone with an interest in translation and interpreting studies or a concern for the future of our world's languages and cultures By focusing on the connection between the two various researches have been conducted in all forms of communication between languages including translation interpreting cross cultural communication language teaching and the various specializations involved in such activities This has resulted in The Third International Conference on Globalization Challenges for Translators and Interpreters co organized by the School of Translation Studies Jinan University on its Zhuhai campus and

South China Business College Guangdong University of Foreign Studies November 16 17 2019 The response to the conference was once more overwhelming which was partly attributed to the previous two conferences held successfully under the same title Apart from five keynote speakers over one hundred and fifty participants came from universities institutions or organizations from mainland China Spain New Zealand as well as Hong Kong and Macao to attend the event contributing over 130 papers in total Among the keynote speakers are internationally renowned scholars in translation studies such as Dr Roberto Valde n professor of English Linguistics at the University of Oviedo Spain and the Chief Editor of Perspective Studies in Translatology Dr Sun Yifeng chair professor of Translation Studies and head of the English Department at the University of Macau Dr Tan Zaixi distinguished professor of Shenzhen University and Chair Professor of Beijing Foreign Studies University and Professor Emeritus of Hong Kong Baptist University After careful evaluation and compilation 90 papers have been selected for this conference proceedings which was summarized into the following four topics Translation and Interpreting Theory and Practice Translation and Cross cultural Studies Evaluation of Translation and Interpretation and Studies on the Teaching of Translation By no means is it difficult to find some interesting and thought provoking papers under each topic For example concerning Translation and Interpreting Theory and Practice To Translate or not to Translate That is the Question On Metaphor Translation in Chinese Political works by Dong Yu explains that in judging whether or not a Chinese metaphor can be translated into English an indispensable step is to decide whether or not the two cultural connotations can be connected But this can easily be influenced by subjective factors Yu has suggested some ways in which subjective factors could be controlled to some extent so that the translator could be more confident in his or her decision He has also suggested three steps The first step is to assume that the cultural connotation of the Chinese metaphor can be connected with that of its English version For example the metaphor in could be translated as rain or shine The second step is to find out whether or not this translated version is acceptable both linguistically and culturally in English The third step is to consider the systematicity of the metaphor in regard with the context in both the source and target texts This involves a process of recontextualization When it comes to Translation and Cross cultural Studies On Translation of the English Guide interpreter from the Perspective of Intercultural Communication by Fengxia Liua and Xiaoning Bi points out that inbound tourism serves as a window through which foreign tourists get to know China so the interaction between the guide interpreters and foreign tourists are the typical activity of cultural communication Foreign language speaking guides are usually regarded as people to people ambassadors or cultural ambassadors who have played an essential role in the international tourist industry Therefore they argue that it is extremely important for tourist guides to cultivate their cross cultural communication awareness enhance their overall communicative competence observe and distinguish east and west differences with multi dimensional perspective transcend cultural barriers and learn to use translation skills Studies on the Teaching of Translation is another interesting topic that has attracted enormous attention such as Business Translation

Teaching from the Perspective of Metaphors by Dandan Li which explores application of conceptual metaphor theory in the translation process of business lexicons business discourse and business English culture so as to provide a new perspective in business English pedagogy Another study entitled Cognitive Studies in Translation by Xin Huang analyzes the cognitive studies of translation interpreting processes over the past three decades with focus on the issues examined the findings reached as well as the recent development She explains that cognitive studies of translation process examine the translation competence on line translation behaviors such as how the eye gazes and how the words are typed and the brain activities when doing translation Special interests are paid to the working memory problem solving the executive function and some linguistic relative factors such as text difficulty Over the past thirty years the interest in the field has been gaining considerable momentum and increasing issues have been involved Finally she concludes that with the advancement of technologies and interdisciplinary approaches the black box the previously unforeseeable cognitive activities of how human process translation can be unfolded Considering the importance of integrating theory with practice the proceedings are therefore compiled in such a way as to be balanced and inclusive in the hope of summarizing current accomplishments as well as providing certain insights for teaching and further research in the field of translation and interpretation studies
