The Ohlone Way:

The Ohlone Way Malcolm Margolin, 1978 Nonfiction Two hundred years ago herds of elk and antelope dotted the hills of the San Francisco Monterey Bay area Grizzly bears lumbered down to the creeks to fish for salmon and steelhead trout From the vast marshlands geese ducks and other birds rose in thick clouds with a sound like that of a hurricane This land of inexpressible fertility as one early explorer described it supported one of the densest Indian populations in all of North America Clearly and accessibly written uniquely alive and at the same time informed this well loved classic vividly recreates the lost world of the Indian people who lived here such a short time ago Mission San Jose Amy Margaret, 2003-12-15

Mission San Jos was founded in 1797 by a Spanish friar named Fray Ferm n Francisco Lasu n Like other missions the purpose of San Jos was to convert local Indians the Ohlone to Christian and Spanish ways of living Famously in 1828 a local named Estanislao tried to lead a revolt against the mission In 1829 he fought a battle with the Spanish troops but was forced to give up the revolt and return the mission The content provided in this book aligned to California state standards will provide students with a greater insight into the story of San Jos and California s mission system This book is filled with excellent primary source materials and visuals including illustrations paintings and maps A Short History of San Francisco Tom Cole, 2012-03-01 A concise colorful well told history of the City by the Bay from the Gold Rush to the Summer of Love to the twenty first century Los Angeles Times This is the story of San Francisco a unique and rowdy tale with a legendary cast of characters It tells of the Indians and the Spanish missions the arrival of thousands of gold seekers and gamblers crackbrains and dreamers the building of the transcontinental railroad and the cable car labor strife and political shenanigans the 1906 earthquake and fire two World Wars two World s Fairs two great bridges the beatniks and hippies and New Left a story that is so marvelous and wild that it must be true A new afterword from the author in this updated third edition brings The City into the twenty first century a time just as hectic experimental and opportunistic as its rambunctious past Castro Valley Lucille Lorge, Robert Phelps, Devon Weston, 2005 An officer in the Mexican army bequeathed his name to the crescent shaped basin once known as Castro s Valley Driven to ruin by squatters drought and gambling debts he sold a portion of his cattle ranch to Methodist minister Zachariah Hughes who built a church and school in what is now Crow

Canyon The one room redwood school Hughes christened Eden Vale educated about 50 children until a group from the burgeoning town to the south Hayward s stole it by wagon in the dead of night Undaunted Castro Valley delineated from its now friendly neighbors by hills Lake Chabot and an independent spirit built and fully supported its own Redwood School It has now developed into one of the most populous unincorporated areas in the United States Ghosts and Legends of Alcatraz Bob Davis, Brian Clune, 2008-08-29 A pair of paranormal investigators share the supernatural stories surrounding the legendary California island prison Alcatraz is one of the most infamous prisons in the world Evil spirits unknown beasts vicious murderers and an untold number of ghosts all are said to reside on this tiny island in San Francisco Bay Rufus

McCain who died a brutal death at the hands of a fellow inmate is said to roam the grounds and the basement cells used for solitary confinement were rumored to be so frightening that inmates who endured one stint never wanted to go back Multiple escape attempts were thwarted including two attempts by Sam Shockley who was later executed with fellow inmate Miran Thompson Join Bob Davis and Brian Clune as they explore chilling tales of death murder and savagery from America's Devil's Island

San Francisco Bay Shoreline Guide Rasa Gustaitis,1995 This comprehensive region wide guide will become the one essential book for anyone wishing to explore the remarkably diverse San Francisco Bay shoreline Walkers hikers boaters cyclists all will welcome the Guide's compact user friendly format full color maps and many illustrations Covers the entire 400 mile Bay Trail

The Presidio Lisa Benton-Short,1998 The story of the Presidio's conversion from military post to national park

San Francisco Erica J. Peters,2013-08-22 San Francisco is a relatively young city with a well deserved reputation as a food destination situated near lush farmland and a busy port San Francisco's famous restaurant scene has been the subject of books but the full complexity of the city's culinary history is revealed here for the first time This food biography presents the story of how food traveled from farms to markets from markets to kitchens and from kitchens to tables focusing on how people experienced the bounty of the City by the Bay

The Five Life Decisions Robert T. Michael,2016-08-05 Choices matter And in your teens and twenties some of the biggest life decisions come about when you feel the least prepared to tackle them Economist Robert T Michael won't tell you what to choose Instead he'll show you how to make smarter choices Michael focuses on five critical decisions we all face about college career partners health and parenting He uses these to demonstrate how the science of scarcity and choice concepts used to guide major business decisions and shape national legislation can offer a solid foundation for our own lives Employing comparative advantage can have a big payoff when picking a job Knowing how to work the marketplace can minimize uncertainty when choosing a partner And understanding externalities the ripple of results from our actions can clarify the if and when of having children Michael also brings in data from the National Longitudinal Survey of Youth a scientific sample of 18 million millennials in the United States that tracks more than a decade of young adult choices and consequences As the survey's longtime principal investigator and project director Michael shows that the aggregate decisions can help us understand what might lie ahead along many possible paths offering readers insights about how their own choices may turn out There's no singular formula for always making the right choice But the adaptable framework and rich data at the heart of The Five Life Decisions will help you feel confident in whatever you decide

Valley of Heart's Delight Anne Marie Todd,2022-10-25 Valley of Heart's Delight explores the transformation of the Santa Clara Valley over the past one hundred years from America's largest fruit producing region into the technology capital of the world Through extensive archival research and interviews Anne Marie Todd explores the concepts of place and placelessness arguing that place is more than a physical location and that exploring a community's sense of place can help us map how individuals experience their natural surroundings and their sense of responsibility towards the local environment Todd extends the concept of sense of place to describe Silicon Valley as a non place where weakened or disrupted attachment to place threatens the environment and community The story of this region is an American story of the development of agricultural lands and the transformation of rural regions Introduction ; Site history ; Existing conditions ; Analysis Jeffrey Killion,2005 Taking the Land to Make the City Mary P. Ryan,2019-03-15 This historical study shows how San Francisco and Baltimore were central to American expansion through the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries The history of the United States is often told as a movement westward beginning at the Atlantic coast and following farmers across the continent But early settlements and towns sprung up along the Pacific as well as the Atlantic as Spaniards and Englishmen took Indian land and converted it into private property In this ambitious study of historical geography and urban development Mary P Ryan reframes the story of American expansion Baltimore and San Francisco share common roots as early coastal trading centers immersed in the international circulation of goods and ideas Ryan traces their beginnings back to the first human habitation of each area showing how the juggernaut toward capitalism and nation building could not commence until Europeans had taken the land for city building She then recounts how Mexican ayuntamientos and Anglo American city councils pioneered a prescient form of municipal sovereignty that served as both a crucible for democracy and a handmaid of capitalism Moving into the nineteenth century Ryan shows how the citizens of Baltimore and San Francisco molded the shape of the modern city the gridded downtown rudimentary streetcar suburbs and outlying great parks This history culminates in the era of the Civil War when the economic engines of cities helped forge the East and the West into one nation Why We Need to Be Wild Jessica Carew Kraft,2023-08-22 In the tradition of the best immersive journalism A J Jacobs author of The Year of Living Biblically A bold examination of how Paleolithic wisdom could solve our 21st century problems Jessica Carew Kraft an urban wife and mom of two was firmly rooted in the modern world complete with a high powered career in tech and the sneaking suspicion that her lifestyle was preventing her and her family from truly thriving Determined to find a better way Jessica quit her job and set out to learn about rewilding from people who reject the comforts and convenience of civilization by using ancient tools and skills to survive Along the way she learned how to turn sticks into fire stones into axes and bones into tools for harvesting wild food and found an entire community walking the path back from our technology focused anxiety ridden way of life to a simpler more human experience Weaving deep research and reportage with her own personal journey Jessica tells the remarkable story of the potential benefits rewilding has for us and our planet and questions what it truly means to be a human in today s world For readers of A Hunter Gatherer s Guide to the 21st Century and Hunt Gather Parent Why We Need to Be Wild is a thought provoking unforgettable narrative that illuminates how we survived in the past how we live now and how each of us can choose to thrive in the years ahead Kraft shows us how we could all benefit from being a little less civilized Tiffany Shlain author of 24 6 The Power of Unplugging One Day a Week We Are Not Animals Martin Rizzo-Martinez,2022-02 Winner of the 2023 John C Ewers

Award from the Western History Association 2023 Choice Outstanding Academic Title By examining historical records and drawing on oral histories and the work of anthropologists archaeologists ecologists and psychologists We Are Not Animals sets out to answer questions regarding who the Indigenous people in the Santa Cruz region were and how they survived through the nineteenth century Between 1770 and 1900 the linguistically and culturally diverse Ohlone and Yokuts tribes adapted to and expressed themselves politically and culturally through three distinct colonial encounters with Spain Mexico and the United States In We Are Not Animals Martin Rizzo Martinez traces tribal familial and kinship networks through the missions chancery registry records to reveal stories of individuals and families and shows how ethnic and tribal differences and politics shaped strategies of survival within the diverse population that came to live at Mission Santa Cruz We Are Not Animals illuminates the stories of Indigenous individuals and families to reveal how Indigenous politics informed each of their choices within a context of immense loss and violent disruption Santa Clara Bea Lichtenstein,2004 Santa Clara s nineteenth and twentieth century history is presented through vintage photographs The World We Need Audrea Lim,2021-05-04 The inspiring people and grassroots organizations that are on the front lines of the battle to save the planet As the world s scientists have come together and declared a climate emergency the fight to protect our planet s ecological resources and the people that depend on them is more urgent than ever But the real battles for our future are taking place far from the headlines and international conferences in mostly forgotten American communities where the brutal realities of industrial pollution and environmental degradation have long been playing out The World We Need provides a vivid introduction to America s largely unsung grassroots environmental groups often led by activists of color and the poor valiantly fighting back in America s so called sacrifice zones against industries poisoning our skies and waterways and heating our planet Through original reporting profiles artwork and interviews we learn how these activist groups almost always working on shoestring budgets are devising creative new tactics building sustainable projects to transform local economies and organizing people long overlooked by the environmental movement changing its face along the way Capturing the riveting stories and hard won strategies from a broad cross section of pivotal environmental actions from Standing Rock to Puerto Rico The World We Need offers a powerful new model for the larger environmental movement and inspiration for concerned citizens everywhere Walkabout Northern California Tom Courtney,2011-04-01 Europe is renowned for romantic inn to inn vacation opportunities on paths worn by centuries of travelers Modern day trekkers can hike the Alps or Southern France explore the British Isles at three miles an hour or pilgrimage through Northern Spain to Santiago de Compostela stopping each night at a hostel or inn Now adventurers in California are creating a new tradition of multi day treks from inn to inn in the U S Walkabout Northern California Hiking Inn to Inn describes twelve walks or walkabouts along the wild Pacific Coast through the majestic Sierra Nevada Mountains in the Cascades and through the parklands around the San Francisco Bay Each walkabout organized by individual chapters contains all the information to create a memorable and invigorating vacation with a sketch map recommendations for optional maps mile by mile details of the route and logistical tips on places to stay and eat Many trips contain variations for different lengths of time and budgets With a light daypack and a few reservations hikers can travel for days on California s breathtaking coastline or in mountain ranges Each day on a walkabout ends with a comfortable bed a glass of wine a good meal and maybe even a hot tub Some of the hikes can take a week but many can be enjoyed in a weekend Some are challenging but the majority are perfect for the casual hiker The accommodations for the walkabouts include a B B perched on the cliffs above the Pacific a resort on the shore of a Sierra lake a historic hotel in a coastal village a hostel in a national park and a retreat center that soothes the soul El Presidio de San Francisco John Phillip Langellier, Daniel Bernard Rosen, 1992 Historic Resource Study, El Presidio de San Francisco John Phillip Langellier, 1992 The Ghostly Tales of Alcatraz Stacia Deutsch, 2025-01-22 Ghost stories from America s most infamous prison have never been so creepy fun and full of mystery Welcome to the spooky island of Alcatraz Stay alert Ghosts lurk around every corner Even the most unexpected places might be haunted by wandering phantoms Did you know a ghost nurse wanders the halls in search of prisoners to heal Or that nobody has ever escaped from Alcatraz and lived to tell the tale Can you believe Cell 14D is haunted by a mysterious red eyed monster Pulled right from history these ghostly tales will change the way you see Alcatraz and have you sleeping with the light on
