Jesus Tradition in the Apostolic Fathers Stephen E. Young,2011 This dissertation reevaluates the tradition of Jesus sayings in the Apostolic Fathers in light of the growing recognition of the impact of orality upon early Christianity and its writings At the beginning of the last century it was common to hold that the Apostolic Fathers made wide use of the canonical Gospels While a number of studies have since called this view into question many of them simply replace the theory of dependence upon canonical Gospels with one of dependence upon other written sources No full scale study of Jesus tradition in the Apostolic Fathers has been published which takes into account the last four decades of new research into oral tradition in the wake of the pioneering work of Milman Parry and Albert Lord Based on this new research the present dissertation advances the thesis that an oral traditional source best explains the form and content of the explicit appeals to Jesus tradition in the Apostolic Fathers that predate 2 Clement In the course of the discussion attention is drawn to the ways in which the Jesus tradition in the Apostolic Fathers informs our understanding of the use of oral tradition in Christian antiquity Pleistocene Archaeology Rintaro Ono,Alfred Pawlik,2020-12 This book presents an overview of recent research in the field of Pleistocene Archaeology around the world The main topics of this book are 1 human migrations particularly by Homo sapiens who have migrated into most regions of the world and settled in different environments 2 the development of human technology from early to archaic hominins and Homo sapiens and 3 human adaptation to new environments and responses to environmental changes caused by climate changes during the Pleistocene With such perspectives in mind this book contains a total of nine insightful and stimulating chapters on these topics in which human history during the time of the Pleistocene is reviewed and discussed Constructing International Relations: The Next Generation Karin M.
