Techniques Of Privatization Of State Owned Enterprises Vol Ii Selected Country Case Studies:

Techniques of Privatization of State-owned Enterprises: Methods and implementation, 1988-01-01 Advice for teenagers on how to get along with parents drawing on Christian precepts Techniques of Privatization of State-owned Enterprises: Selected country case studies Helen Nankani, 1988 Discusses recent experience in selected developed and developing countries in privatising public enterprises and the techniques used Techniques of Privatization of State-owned Enterprises: Inventory of country experience and reference materials Rebecca Candoy-Sekse, Anne Ruiz Palmer, 1988 Taking into account the need for information on the practical aspects of privatization of state owned enterprises this report reviews what is known about recent experiences in this field of selected developing countries and developed countries Through the description and illustration of methods which were tried as well as options available to governments it deals strictly with techniques on how to privatize as opposed to whether to privatize By and large the report is a cooperative effort of contributors within and outside the World Bank consisting of three volumes Environmental Assessment Sourcebook: sectoral guidelines, 1991 World Bank Technical Paper No 140 Also available Volume 1 ISBN 0 8213 1843 8 Stock No 11843 Volume 3 ISBN 0 8213 1845 4 Stock No 11845 Provides state of the art guidance and information on the procedural requirements and practical aspects of environmental assessment in various sector and location specific contexts Three volumes also available in Arabic Volume 1 ISBN 0 8213 3523 5 Stock No 13523 Volume 2 ISBN 0 8213 3617 7 Stock No 13617 Volume 3 ISBN 0 8213 3618 5 Stock No 13618 Privatization and Control of State-owned Enterprises Ravi Ramamurti, Raymond Vernon, 1991-01-01 Privatizing Public Enterprises and Foreign Investment in Developing Countries, 1988-93 Frank Sader, 1995-01-01 Analyzes impact of privatization programs on direct foreign investment DFI Uses econometric techniques to demonstrate that infrastructure privatization is highly correlated with higher levels of subsequent DFI capital inflows Handbook of Latin American Studies v 57 Environmental Assessment Sourcebook: Policies, procedures, and cross-sectoral issues, 1991 World Bank Technical Paper No 139 Also available Volume 2 ISBN 0 8213 1844 6 Stock No 11844 Volume 3 ISBN 0 8213 1845 4 Stock No 11845 Provides state of the art guidance and information on the procedural requirements and practical aspects of environmental assessment in various sector and location specific contexts Three volumes also available in Arabic Volume 1 ISBN 0 8213 3523 5 Stock No 13523 Volume 2 ISBN 0 8213 3617 7 Stock No 13617 Volume 3 ISBN 0 8213 3618 5 Stock No 13618 , Support for Microenterprises Maryke Dessing, 1990 Microenterprises play an important role in sub Saharan Africa They account for a sizeable portion of the economy by providing employment and a means of livelihood for much of the nonagricultural population This paper is the result of a survey of the literature and extensive discussions with practitioners and its primary focus is a direct approach in support of microenterprises Perhaps the simplest objective to pursue is access to credit The main lesson from experimentation in this field is that the poor are bankable and can be served relatively inexpensively provided nontraditional lending methods are utilized e g group lending Technical assistance and support services can also be provided to help first time entrepreneurs set up their own businesses to assist microenterprises in their daily business or to help them graduate to a larger size The task of assisting microenterprises requires small flexible and responsive organizations with sufficient autonomy to make ad hoc decisions yet with adequate coordination at the national level Such organizations include PVOs NGOs cooperatives banks business associations churches and women s groups The report recommends that capacity building be incorporated as a specific objective of microenterprise support programs and should be budgeted for Shifting the focus of assistance from beneficiaries to support institutions is an effective way of reaching the most marginal groups

Agricultural Biotechnology ,1991 Techniques of Privatization of State-owned Enterprises. Volume 2: Selected Country Case Studies World Bank,Helen Nankani,1988 A Strategy to Develop Agriculture in Sub-Saharan Africa and a Focus for the World Bank Kevin M. Cleaver,1993-01-01 For 25 years population growth has outpaced increases in agricultural production in Sub Saharan Africa The lack of food and the degradation of agricultural land have forced policymakers to reassess agricultural strategies for the region This paper provides such a reassessment by identifying policies and investments that have worked and those that have not The author sets out the common elements required for agricultural and rural development throughout the region The strategy presented in this paper comprises elements from several development sectors including transport water supply education finance and the environment The author makes five broad recommendations to promote Region adoption of policies to promote private sector farming and agricultural marketing processing and credit development and distribution of new technologies inclusion of farmers in decisions affecting their livelihood development of infrastructure and social programs in support of agriculture improved management of natural resources Projections of the likely effects of the proposed policies and investments are included Tables throughout the text present statistics on agricultural growth rates commodity prices and deforestation in the region An annex contains more general tables with information on population growth and fertility rates land use agricultural exports and droughts The strategies suggested in this paper will be of interest to policymakers academics and to development practitioners involved in African agriculture State Holding Companies and Public Enterprises in Transition Anjali Kumar,2016-07-27 very valuable for both policy makers and researchers Professor Athar Hussain Director Development Economics Research Programme STICERD The London School of Economics and Political Science The really novel idea is to bring together the experience of three rather diverse countries and then to discuss Eastern Europe in the light of this experience State holding companies are likely to play a major role in Eastern Europe over the next ten years or more but very little has been written on them and few of the people advising the East Europeans have any real knowledge about them Professor Robert Rowthorn University of Cambridge rich and substantial Professor John Teye Institute of Development Studies University of Sussex most informative The conclusions are appropriately restrained well balanced and wise The emphasis on the differences between portfolio management and enterprise management is a distinction that East Europe will eventually have to learn Raymond Vernon Emeritus Professor John F Kennedy School of Government Harvard University

Large and poorly performing state owned enterprises pose a problem for countries attempting to move away from government controls towards more liberal economic environments Privatization is an unproven solution which is proving difficult to implement on a major scale Intermediate solutions may therefore prove to be the way forward This book focuses on one of these the state holding company It first discusses the state holding company as a managerial form which permits decentralised public enterprise management and offers a framework for its analysis Then drawing upon the experience of both developed and developing countries it examines the extent to which the indirect state ownership of public enterprises through holding companies can contribute to transition processes It shows that the experience of countries like Italy Egypt and Algeria has direct relevance for institutional structures evolving in the newly transforming countries of Eastern Europe which are struggling to find a balance between public enterprise ownership and efficiency Restructuring Public Enterprises in India R. K. Mishra,Bulusu Navin,2002 Pinochet's Economic Accomplices Juan Pablo Bohoslavsky,Karina Fernández,Sebastián Smart,2021-01-12 With a focus on Chile Pinochet's Economic Accomplices An Unequal Country by Force uses theoretical arguments and empirical studies to argue that focusing on the behavior of economic actors of the dictatorship is crucial to achieve basic objectives in terms of justice memory reparation and non repetition measures This book makes visible a number of cases of economic complicity with the Chilean dictatorship and explains their links with the radical inequalities the country has today while proposing a theoretical framework for their study Scholars of Latin American studies history sociology economics business and human rights will find this book particularly useful Privatizing Eastern Europe J.M. Van Brabant,2012-12-06 This volume is meant to be a modest contribution to the ongoing debate about the transitions away from the administrative planning environment typical of the former communist regimes The central subject matter is a fairly special one namely the privatization of these economies together with the restoration and effective monitoring of property rights These are paramount tasks of the ongoing transformations once progress toward political democracy is secured Though I would not allot divestment of existing state owned assets the kind of pivotal importance that some observers reserve for it changing rules on the utilization of these assets is evidently at the core of what the transition toward market based economic systems should be all about Rather than examining the entire range of issues that surround the controversy on privatization this volume is primarily concerned with the economics of taking the state out of the decision making about existing assets Among the several aspects of this discussion three stand out One is the establishment of clear property rights This is fundamental to minimize transaction costs in an environment where decisions will increasingly be taken by independent economic agents acting on their own account Second I look only incidentally at the various angles of creating capital markets particularly for existing assets in these economies The Political Economy of Privatization Thomas Clarke, Christos Pitelis, 2005-08-17 In The Political Economy of Privatization the authors assess the success of privatization. The work is an international study of the extensive privatization and the pressure towards privatization in different parts of the world. The book includes: A study of the relationship between ownership and performance; An assessment of the importance of market structure and regulation; A discussion of privatization strategies within the public sector; Individual country case studies looking at the experience of different countries engaged in the contrasting approaches to privatization; A critical assessment of the much vaunted relationship between ownership and efficiency. Latin American and East European Economies in Transition Claude Auroi, 1998 Within the global framework of the major transformation of development models the various contributors to this collection seek to compare the Latin American experiences of macroeconomic changes or adjustments with those of East European countries. The Transition from Socialism in Eastern Europe Arye L. Hillman, Branko Milanović, 1992-01-01

Collapse of Development Planning Peter J. Boettke, 1994-07-01 Addresses one of the most pressing issues of international political economy. Conventional wisdom has it that government management of the economy is the means to transform a backward economy into a dynamic modern one. Yet after decades of international aid programs development planning is today largely perceived as a failure paralyzed by its own bureaucracy and inefficiency. Despite billions of dollars of investment development successes are few and far between and waste and mismanagement abounds. This book showcases a diverse range of development experiences in order to ascertain the reasons for this quagmire. Case studies of development planning in China, India post WWII, Japan, South Korea, Africa and Eastern Europe and of foreign aid programs including the Marshall Plan illustrate the insights an Austrian approach provides toward an understanding of the failure of government development planning. While economists working within the Austrian tradition have previously addressed development issues this volume represents the first full length treatment of the subject from a modern market process perspective. Exploding the hegemony of the traditional development paradigm The Collapse of Development Planning addresses one of the most pressing issues of international political economy. Contributing to the volume are George Ayittey, American University; Wayne T. Brough, Citizens for a Sound Economy, Washington DC; Young Back Choi, St. John's University; Steven Hanke, Johns Hopkins University; Steve Horowitz, St. Lawrence University; Shyam J. Kamath, California State University, Hayward; Shigeto Naka, Hiroshima City University; David Osterfeld, St. Joseph's College; Manisha Perera, University of Northern Colorado; Jan S. Prybyla, Pennsylvania State University; Ralph Raico, State University College, Buffalo; Parth Shah, University of Michigan, Dearborn; Kurt Schuller, Johns Hopkins University; Kiyokazu Tanaka, Sophia University, Tokyo; and Mark Thorton, Auburn University.
