Video Theories Dieter Daniels, Jan Thoben, 2022-01-29 Breaking new ground as the first transdisciplinary reader in this field Video Theories is a resource that will form the basis for further research and teaching While theories of video have not yet formed an academic discipline comparable to the more canonized theories of photography film and television the reader offers a major step toward bridging this video gap in media theory which is remarkable considering today's omnipresence of the medium through online video portals and social media Consisting of a selection of eighty three annotated source texts and twelve chapter introductions written by the editors this book considers fifty years of scholarly and artistic reflections on the topic representing an intergenerational and international set of voices This transdisciplinary reader offers a conceptual framework for diverging and contradictory viewpoints following the continuous transformations of what video was is and will be

Critical Literacy in the Classroom Wendy Morgan, 2002-01-04 Critical literacy investigates how forms of knowledge and the power they bring are created in language and taken up by those who use texts It asks how language might be put to different more equitable uses and how texts might be recreated in a way that would tell a different story This book is a carefully documented and critically analysed example of the growing emphasis on critical literacy in syllabuses government reports and the like It bridges the gap between academics theorizing and teachers work describes how secondary teachers have planned and implemented critical literacy curricula on a range of topics from Shakespeare to the workplace listens to teachers reflecting on their teaching and analyses classroom talk extrapolates from present practice to a future critical literacy in a digitised hypermedia world Teachers and students of education critical literacy advocates and theorists of literacy and schooling can learn much more from this book which shows how critical literacy teachers and their students are contributing to the ongoing reinvention of English education as critical literacy

Postmodern Dilemmas Jan Jagodzinski, 2019-08-22 In Postmodern Dilemmas Outrageous Essays in Art Art Education and Punk Deconstruction Experimental Writings in Art Art Education jan jagodzinski presents a series of essays covering a timespan of approximately ten years These essays chart the theory and practice of art art education as it relates to issues of postmodernity and poststructuralism concerning representation identity politics consumerism postmodern architecture ecology phallogentrism of the artistic canon pluriculturalism media and technology and AIDS As a former editor of The Journal of Social Theory in Art Education and a founding member for the Caucus on Social Theory in Art Education the author attempts to deconstruct the current art education paradigm which is largely based on modernist tenets and to reorient art education practice to social issues as developed in both media education and cultural studies Part of the intent in these two volumes is to undertake a sustained critique of the 1982 Art in the Mainstream A I M statement which continues to be considered as the core value for art education The distinct intention of this critique is to put forward a new value base for art art education in these postmodern times Many of the essays raise the need to be attentive to sex gender issues in art art education and the need to read the artistic discourse otherwise There is a sustained critique of the art programs developed by the Getty Center for the Arts whose arts curriculum presents the paradigm case of late modernist thinking Some essays are written in a provocative form that tries to accommodate such content This is particularly the case in Punk Deconstruction where architectural discourse is deconstructed and which includes an artistic performance given by the author in 1987 This singular set of volumes combines scholarship in the areas of gender studies aesthetics art history art education poststructuralism and cultural studies in a unique blend of theory and practice for rethinking the field of art education

Seduction, Sophistry, and the Woman with the Rhetorical Figure Michelle Ballif, 2001 Ballif questions why the profession wants to retain these beliefs in the face of vociferous arguments from new rhetorics that the discipline no longer posits a foundational self or truth and in the face of the poststructuralist critique which has demonstrated that founding truth is always accomplished by first positing and then negating an other As an alternative to this negative and violent rhetorical process Ballif suggests a turn to sophistry as embodied in the figure of Woman one with the power to seduce us literally to lead astray from our truth and our demand for it

BOOK JACKET      Intelligent Environments P. Droege, 1997-03-20 The environment as modified and created by people is largely about the use of information its generation and exchange How do recent innovations in the technologies of information management and communication affect our use of space and place and the way we perceive and think about our surroundings This volume provides an international exploratory forum for the complex phenomenon of new information and communication technology as it permeates and transforms our physical world and our relation to it the architectural definition of our surrounding geographical space urban form and immediate habitats This book is a reader an attempt at registering disciplinary changes in context at tracing subtexts for which most mainstream disciplines have no established language The project is to give voice to an emerging meta discipline that has its logic across the specializations A wide range of professionals and academics report findings views and ideas Together they describe the architecture of a postmodern paradigm how swiftly mutating the proliferating technology applications have begun to interact with the construction and reading of physical space in architecture economics geography history planning social sciences transport visual art but also in the newer domains that have joined this spectrum through the very nature of their impacts information technology and telecommunications The space navigated in this volume is vast both in physical terms and in its virtual and analogous form It ranges from the space that immediately encompasses or is simulated to encompass the human body as in buildings and virtual tectonics to that of towns and regions We stay clear of molecular scale space and of dimensions that are larger than earth      Social Construction in Context Kenneth J Gergen, 2001-04-03 This latest book by one the world s leading protagonists in the field will be welcomed not just by psychologists but by students academics and professionals interested in social constructionism across a wide range of subjects Social Construction in Context explores the potentials of social constructionist theory when placed in diverse intellectual and practical contexts It demonstrates the achievements of social constructionism and what it can now offer various fields of inquiry both academic professional and applied given the proliferation of the theory across the social sciences and humanities First order issues of concern within the academic world objectivity truth power and ideology are now being augmented by widespread developments in practice therapeutic pedagogical organizational and political This book looks closely at these developments and examines both the positive potentials and limitations of social constructionist theory when applied to a variety of domains It has been written in an accessible and scholarly manner making it suitable for a wide ranging readership      Reimagining Process* Kyle Jensen, 2015 Reimagining Process explores how process and attending concepts such as reflection care power and portfolios might play a more prominent role in emerging writing studies research      Working the Ruins* Elizabeth St. Pierre, Wanda Pillow, 2002-05-03 From some of the leading feminist scholars in education comes a collection of writings discussing how they use feminist poststructural theory in their classrooms and research Drawing on real life situations in their work they show how using this theory has transformed their work Topics covered include theory in everyday life ethnography writing the body emotions in the classroom qualitative research and gossip as a counter discourse The range of topics processes and styles presented provides the reader with a variety of examples illustrating the diversity and power of the effects of poststructural theory as well as showing the possibilities of work still to be done

Digital Performance Steve Dixon, 2015-01-30 The historical roots key practitioners and artistic theoretical and technological trends in the incorporation of new media into the performing arts The past decade has seen an extraordinarily intense period of experimentation with computer technology within the performing arts Digital media has been increasingly incorporated into live theater and dance and new forms of interactive performance have emerged in participatory installations on CD ROM and on the Web In Digital Performance Steve Dixon traces the evolution of these practices presents detailed accounts of key practitioners and performances and analyzes the theoretical artistic and technological contexts of this form of new media art Dixon finds precursors to today's digital performances in past forms of theatrical technology that range from the deus ex machina of classical Greek drama to Wagner's Gesamtkunstwerk concept of the total artwork and draws parallels between contemporary work and the theories and practices of Constructivism Dada Surrealism Expressionism Futurism and multimedia pioneers of the twentieth century For a theoretical perspective on digital performance Dixon draws on the work of Philip Auslander Walter Benjamin Roland Barthes Jean Baudrillard and others To document and analyze contemporary digital performance practice Dixon considers changes in the representation of the body space and time He considers virtual bodies avatars and digital doubles as well as performances by artists including Stelarc Robert Lepage Merce Cunningham Laurie Anderson Blast Theory and Eduardo Kac He investigates new media's novel approaches to creating theatrical spectacle including virtual reality and robot performance work telematic performances in which remote locations are linked in real time Webcams and online drama communities and considers the extratemporal illusion created by some technological theater works Finally he defines categories of interactivity from navigational to participatory and collaborative Dixon challenges dominant theoretical approaches to digital performance including what he calls postmodernism's denial of the new and offers a series of boldly original arguments in their place

Global South Asia on Screen John Hutnyk, 2018-06-14 With importance for geopolitical cultural economy anthropology and media studies John Hutnyk brings South Asian circuits of scholarship to attention where alongside critical Marxist and poststructuralist authors a new take on film and television is on offer The book presents Raj era costume dramas as a commentary on contemporary anti-Muslim racism a new political compact in film and television studies and the President watching a snuff film from Pakistan Hanif Kureishi's postcolonial fuck Sandwich sits alongside Salman Rushdie's Satanic Verses updated for the war on terror with low brow high brow versions of Asia that carry us up the Himalayas with magic carpet TV nostalgia Maoists rage below and books go up in flames while News network phone ins end with executions on the Hanging Channel and arms trade and immigration paranoia thrives Multiplying filmi versions of Mela are measured against a transnational realignment towards Global South Asia in a contested and testing political future Each chapter offers a slice of historical study and assessment of media theory appropriate for viewers of Global South Asia seeking to understand why lurid exoticism and paralysing terror go hand in hand The answers are in the images always open to interpretation but Global South Asia on Screen examines the ways film and TV trade on stereotype and fear nationalism and desire politics and context and with this the book calls for wider reading than media theory has hitherto entertained Virtualpolitik Elizabeth Mathews Losh,2009 Government media making from official websites to whistleblowers e mail and its sometimes unintended consequences Today government agencies not only have official Web sites but also sponsor moderated chats blogs digital video clips online tutorials videogames and virtual tours of national landmarks Sophisticated online marketing campaigns target citizens with messages from the government even as officials make news with digital gaffes involving embarrassing e mails instant messages and videos In Virtualpolitik Elizabeth Losh closely examines the government s digital rhetoric in such cases and its dual role as mediamaker and regulator Looking beyond the usual focus on interfaces operations and procedures Losh analyzes the ideologies revealed in government s digital discourse its anxieties about new online practices and what happens when officially sanctioned material is parodied remixed or recontextualized by users Losh reports on a video game that panicked the House Intelligence Committee pedagogic and therapeutic digital products aimed at American soldiers government Web sites in the weeks and months following 9 11 PowerPoint presentations by government officials and gadflies e mail as a channel for whistleblowing digital satire of surveillance practices national digital libraries and computer based training for health professionals Losh concludes that the government s virtualpolitik its digital realpolitik aimed at preserving its own power is focused on regulation casting as criminal such common online activities as file sharing video game play and social networking This policy approach she warns indefinitely postpones building effective institutions for electronic governance ignores constituents need to shape electronic identities to suit their personal politics and misses an opportunity to learn how citizens can have meaningful interaction with the virtual manifestations of the state Culture and Technology Andrew Murphie,John Potts,2017-03-14 We are going virtual in more and more areas of our lives from shopping to education filing systems to love affairs How can we assess the relationship between technology and culture when culture is so imbued with technology This clear concise and readable text aims to offer the student a one stop guide through this complex and slippery terrain Introducing a wealth of theoretical perspectives in a lucid and engaging style and covering a range of topical challenging and intriguing examples from cyborgs to digital art it will be an essential text for everyone wanting to make sense of crucial forces of change on contemporary culture Margins in the Classroom Kostas Myrsiades,Linda S. Myrsiades,1994 Legal Studies as Cultural Studies Jerry D. Leonard,1995-01-13 This book is an inaugural integration of Contemporary Cultural Studies and Critical Legal Studies that sets the question of justice at the fore of postmodern critical theory Opening with introductory level discussions of key theoretical models in postmodern thought the collection culminates in a series of radical critiques of existing modes of cultural and legal theory Contributors to this volume include David S Caudill Marie Ashe Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Nancy Fraser Costas Douzinas and Ronnie Warrington Drucilla Cornell Eugene D Genovese Peter Goodrich Teresa L Ebert and Jerry D Leonard      Deconstructing Derrida M. Peters,P. Trifonas,2005-11-04 Responding to Jacques Derrida s vision for what a new humanities should strive toward Peter Trifonas and Michael Peters gather together in a single volume original essays by major scholars in the humanities today Using Derrida s seven programmatic theses as a springboard the contributors aim to reimagine as Derrida did the tasks for the new humanities in such areas as history of literature history of democracy history of profession idea of sovereignty and history of man Deconstructing Derrida engages Jacques Derrida s polemic on the future of the humanities to come and expands on the notion of what is proper to the humanities in the current age of globalism and change      Psychoanalysis and Performance Patrick Campbell,Adrian Kear,2002-09-11 The field of literary studies has long recognised the centrality of psychoanalysis as a method for looking at texts in a new way But rarely has the relationship between psychoanalysis and performance been mapped out either in terms of analysing the nature of performance itself or in terms of making sense of specific performance related activities In this volume some of the most distinguished thinkers in the field make this exciting new connection and offer original perspectives on a wide variety of topics including hypnotism and hysteria ventriloquism and the body dance and sublimation the unconscious and the rehearsal process melancholia and the uncanny cloning and theatrical mimesis censorship and activist performance theatre and social memory The arguments advanced here are based on the dual principle that psychoanalysis can provide a productive framework for understanding the work of performance and that performance itself can help to investigate the problematic of identity
