Japanese and Western Literature Armando Martins Janeira, 2016-08-09 Japanese and Western Literature delves deeply into Japanese culture to discover the concepts that similarize and differentiate Japanese and Western literary creations Paralleling Japanese literary creations and fundamental thought with those of the West the author draws many illuminating comparisons for example between the novels of Murasaki Shikibu and Marcel Proust between the Portuguese poet Torga and the haiku master Issa and between the picaresque novel in Japan and in the West Contrastive studies are also made into such concepts as time nature love and tragedy This broad yet incisive survey of Japanese literarily genres and themes is more than a comparative study of literature however it is an attempt to grasp the core of Japanese culture by setting it against world culture From this born a complex of new ideas and problems and author is able to probe the extent of Western influence on Japanese fiction poetry and essays in the past hundred years

The Western Crisis of Truth in the Early 21st Century Arvydas Grišinas, 2024-12-16 The Western Crisis of Truth in the Early 21st Century explores the symbolic experiential and associative side of contemporary political culture arguing that phenomena such as post truth digitalization mediatization propaganda illiberalism or populism far from being curiosities have in fact come to represent a uniform aspect of political culture a challenge to the enlightened developed and progressive world that we believed ourselves to be inhabiting Through analyses of visual and textual material such as internet memes academic discourse news articles videos and other media it considers truth making in the epoch of Russia's war in Ukraine Donald Trump the hyper rationalist ritualism of managing the COVID 19 pandemic and the shifting realities on the Eastern border of the West in order to shed light on the transfiguration of the western intellectual tradition by the global political technological and intellectual dynamics of a world that is far from approaching the end of history Asking what is to be done in the face of this new reality The Western Crisis of Truth in the Early 21st Century considers whether the dissident literature of Central and Eastern Europe which has already lived through a period of disenlightenment under the Soviet Union as well as other Eastern European movements of dignity and independence might offer answers A study of the dimming of the Enlightenment this volume will appeal to scholars of social and political theory and political anthropology

Challenges Facing Chinese Political Development Sujian Guo, Baogang Guo, 2007-01-01 Examining the challenges of Chinese political development from a holistic perspective each of the authors emphasizes a particular dimension of political culture political economy foreign policy and environmental and social challenges

The Balkans and the West Andrew Hammond, 2017-03-02 This collection of essays locates investigates and challenges the manner in which the Balkans and the West have constructed each other since 1945 Scholars from the two sections of the continent explore a wide range of fiction film journalism travel writing and diplomatic records both to analyse Western European balkanism and to study Balkan representations of the West over the last fifty years The first section looks back to the Cold War examining the divergent often favourable images of the Balkans that existed in Western culture as well as the variety of responses that appeared in South East European writings on the West The second section analyses the transitions that took place in representation during the 1990s Here contributors explore both the harsh denigration of the Balkans which came to dominate western discourse after the initial euphoria of 1989 and the emerging tradition of contesting Western balkanism in South East European cultural production Through this dual emphasis the volume exposes the representational practices that help to maintain a deeply divided Europe and challenges the economic and political injustices that result Despite the rise to prominence of postcolonial theory with its awareness of global inequality the current crises in many parts of South East Europe have received scant attention in literary and cultural studies The Balkans and the West addresses this deficiency Ranging in focus from Serbian cinema to Romanian travel literature from Western economic writings to Yugoslav fiction and from public discourse in Albania to NATO's vast propaganda machine the essays offer wide insight into representation and power in the contemporary European context
