Telex Iran Gilles Peress, 1980 Telex Iran Gilles Peress, Ghulām Ḥusayn Sā'īdī, 1997 Telex Iran is an extraordinarily personal document of a public event The photographs Gilles Peress took over a five week period during the 1979 80 seizure of the American embassy in Tehran form neither a study nor an analysis Peress didn't plan to go to Iran the instant imagery the caricatures of fanatics on his TV got to him He felt the need to understand for himself the apparent madness about which the Western media could only generalize The A to Z of Iran John H. Lorentz, 2010-04-14 Iran is a country with a deep and complex history Over several thousand years Iran has been the source of numerous creative contributions to the spiritual and literary world and the site of many remarkable manifestations of material culture The special place that Iran has come to hold in contemporary historical events most recently as a center stage actor in the unfolding and interconnected drama of worldwide nuclear arms proliferation and terrorism is all the more reason to explore the characters and personality of Iran and Iranians The A to Z of Iran is designed to give the reader a quick and understandable overview of specific events movements people political and social groups places and trends Through its extensive chronology introduction bibliography appendixes and more than double the number of cross referenced dictionary entries as in the previous edition the work allows for considerable exploration of a number of historical and contemporary topics and issues In particular the modern period defined as 1800 present is covered extensively Iran-US Claims Tribunal Reports: Volume 39 Lee M. Tremor Teju Cole, 2024-10-01 An extraordinary ambitious The Times UK novel that masterfully explores what constitutes a meaningful life in a violent world from the award winning author of Open City. New York Times Book Review Editors Choice. Cole's mind is so agile that it's easy to follow him anywhere. The New Yorker WINNER OF THE ANISFIELD WOLF BOOK AWARD FINALIST FOR THE NATIONAL BOOK CRITICS CIRCLE AWARD A BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR. Time The Washington Post Financial Times Vulture Chicago Public Library Publishers Weekly Library Journal Life is hopeless but it is not serious. We have to have danced while we could and later to have danced again in the telling. A weekend spent antiquing is shadowed by the colonial atrocities that occurred on that land. A walk at dusk is interrupted by casual racism. A loving marriage is riven by mysterious tensions. And a remarkable cascade of voices speaks out from a pulsing metropolis. We're invited to experience these events and others through the eyes and ears of Tunde, a West African man working as a teacher of photography on a renowned New England campus. He is a reader, a listener, a traveler drawn to many different kinds of stories: stories from history and epic stories of friends, family, and strangers; stories found in books and films. Together these stories make up his days. In aggregate these days comprise a life. Tremor is a startling work of realism and invention that engages brilliantly with literature, music, race, and history as it examines the passage of time and how we mark it. It is a reckoning with human survival amidst history's own brutality which refuses symmetries and seldom consoles, but it is also a testament to the possibility of joy. As he did in his magnificent debut Open City, Teju Cole once again offers narration with all its senses alert, a surprising and deeply essential work from a beacon of contemporary literature.
