The Grammar of Discourse Robert E. Longacre,2013-11-21 In that The Anatomy of Speech Notions 1976 was the precursor to The Grammar of Discourse 1983 this revision embodies a third edition of some of the material that is found here The original intent of the 1976 volume was to construct a hierarchical arrangement of notional categories which find surface realization in the grammatical constructions of the various languages of the world The idea was to marshal the categories that every analyst regardless of theoretical bent had to take account of as cognitive entities The volume began with a couple of chapters on what was then popularly known as case grammar then expanded upward and downward to include other notional categories on other levels Chapters on discourse monologue and dialogue were buried in the center of the volume In the 1983 volume the chapters on monologue and dialogue discourse were moved to the fore of the book and the chapters on case grammar were made less prominent the volume was then renamed The Grammar of Discourse The current revision features more clearly than its predecessors the intersection of discourse and pragmatic concerns with grammatical structures on various levels It retains and expands much of the former material but includes new material reflecting current advances in such topics as salience clines for discourse rhetorical relations paragraph structures transitivity ergativity agency hierarchy and word order typologies Heroes and Villains Of the Bible R. D. Stuart,2008-04 While looking at heroes and villains of Scripture readers will not only learn about character flaws and attributes but will discover practical doctrines that encourage them to live for Christ Christian "The Bigger They Are, the Harder They Fall" Paul G. J.

O'Connell,Shang-Jin Wei,1997 Recent empirical work has made headway in exploring the non linear dynamics of deviations from the law of one price and purchasing power parity that are apt to arise from transaction costs However there are two important facets of this work that need improvement First the choice of empirical specification is arbitrary Second the data used are typically composite price indices which are subject to potentially serious aggregation biases This paper examines the evidence for transport cost induced nonlinear price behavior within the U S We address both of the above shortcomings First we use a simple continuous time model to inform the choice of empirical specification The model indicates that the behavior of deviations from price parity depends on the relative importance of fixed and variable transport costs Second we employ data on disaggregated commodity prices yielding a pure measure of the deviations from price parity We find strong evidence of nonlinear reversion in these deviations The nature of this reversion suggests that fixed costs of transportation are integral to an understanding of law of one price deviations

The Boxing Filmography Frederick V. Romano,2004-09-10

The love affair between boxing and Hollywood began with the dawn of film As early as the days of Chaplin the boxing film had assumed its place as a subgenre and over the decades it has taken the forms of biographies dramas romances comedies and even musicals and westerns Such well known pictures as The Champ Body and Soul Don King Only in America Girl Fight The Irish in Us The Kid from Brooklyn Somebody Up There Likes Me Raging Bull each of the Rocky movies and When We Were Kings are just a few examples of the feature films included in this filmography Thoroughly researched this work examines 98 boxing films from the 1920s through 2003 Each entry provides basic filmographic data the film s studio its genre its length cast and credits a detailed synopsis of the film illuminating commentary on the boxing sequences and excerpts from contemporary reviews Most entries also summarize the making of the film with particular attention to the training of the actors for the boxing scenes The filmography also includes information on studio publicity releases and advertisements press books and exhibitor campaign materials for each film
