The Logic of God Malcolm L. Diamond, Thomas V. jr Litzenburg, 1975

A John Hick Reader John Hick, 2011-07-05

Canonical criticism is not a recognized branch of biblical studies granting new focus to questions of the authority and truth of the scriptural writings Developed within a critical sense of the dominant historical critical tone of biblical studies canonical criticism as it has been pursued by the American scholars Brevard S Childs and James A Sanders stands as witness to the theological necessity of a more literary approach to the Bible This book both criticizes the canonical enterprise and takes it much further into readings of the canon from the perspective not only of literature but also art and in particular the biblical art of Rembrandt In addition it remains acutely conscious of the contemporary environment of our reading within the political concerns of feminist criticism popular absorption in film and the narratives of the screen and finally the crisis or crises which characterize the so called postmodern condition What emerges is at once highly critical of traditional strategies of canonization and at the same time constructive and concerned to recover the Bible for our own time in readings which move outside the limited academic concerns of the biblical critic or the institutions of the church and religious community

Reason & the Contours of Faith Richard Rice, 2013-05-17 Can reason and religion get together Should believers think Can thinking people believe Does religion have to make sense Does careful thinking help or hinder religious experience People have wrestled with such questions for hundreds of years and they are just as perplexing today as ever Reason the Contours of Faith explores the wide ranging issues these questions raise from biblical interpretation and proofs for God s existence to the nature of religious conversion Its central purpose is to find an alternative to both fideism the idea that reason has nothing to do with faith and rationalism the conviction that reason has everything to do with it Part One Reason and the Contents of Faith argues that reason contributes in important but limited ways to our understanding of religion Part Two Reason and the Experience of Faith shows that reason can support religious commitment but never produces it The Vicarious Humanity of Christ and the Reality of Salvation Christian D. Kettler,2011-03-01 In this book the problem of the reality of salvation is addressed by T F Torrance s doctrine of the vicarious humanity of Christ Through this approach salvation as humanization is affirmed yet without the problems of anthropocentric theologies This book is unique in that it offers both a survey of contemporary Christian thinking on salvation as well as a constructive alternative based on Torrance s doctrine a significant yet neglected contribution to modern theology Faith in
