The Continuing Challenge of AIDS Robert E. Beckley,Jerome R. Koch,2002-08-30 As the AIDS crisis spread and gained momentum Protestant Catholic and Jewish clergy in the United States and the United Kingdom became involved in sometimes surprising ways Using quantitative and qualitative data from the early 1990s and from follow up interviews conducted later in the decade the authors show that many clergy became involved in the pastoral care for and counseling of people stigmatized by AIDS including gay and bisexual men despite expressions of antipathy from their denominations Sociological theories concerning clergy roles social movements social space and social capital provide a framework for analyzing the initial findings and the data from subsequent interviews The study concludes that this small but dedicated group of clergy who ministered to the needs of this suffering population were part of a social movement that addressed a community problem despite both obstacles and opposition Using data obtained from structured interviews and responses to questionnaires concerning clergy responses to real and hypothetical situations involving people who are HIV positive or who have AIDS the authors illustrate how clergy and organized religious groups confronted a new and acute fatal illness that was initially associated with stigmatized behavior They demonstrate that many clergy saw their roles as advocates for these individuals and as providers of pastoral and spiritual care in spite of the rhetoric of conservative and fundamentalist clergy who condemned the victims as an example of the wrath of God against gay and bisexual men The study also shows that even those who were less actively engaged in AIDS pastoral care and counseling demonstrated tolerance for those affected by it Follow up interviews indicate finally that as AIDS became more of a chronic illness the social movement to provide religious and spiritual care and counseling began to wane Concurrent Resolution on the Budget for Fiscal Year 1991: Health care, February 7, 1990 ... Research and development funding, February 22, 1990; views of the Director of the Office of Science and Technology Policy United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Budget,1990

Inclusion in the United Methodist Church Amanda Udis-Kessler, 2012-02-27 The United Methodist Church has been in conflict over lesbian gay bisexual transgender inclusion issues since 1972 In this groundbreaking book Udis Kessler examines this struggle analyzing both sides of this divisive debate among one of the most prominent religious organizations in the United States Methodist Morals Darryl W. Stephens, 2024-01-12 Methodist Morals offers keen insight into the public church interpreting the United Methodist Social Principles as a dynamic discourse about morality and human rights in light of faith Revised every four years by the General Conference of the United Methodist Church the Social Principles exposes the moral deliberations of this distinctly American and increasingly worldwide church as it struggles to achieve community across multiple languages and cultures Perhaps no other document provides as rich a depiction of Protestants participating in the moral argument of public life This is the first full length study of Methodist social teachings in over fifty years Examining official Methodist teachings from institutional historical and cross cultural perspectives Darryl Stephens provides a rich analysis of this case study of Protestant social witness drawing on his expertise in church polity Methodist history and Christian social ethics A wide range of comparisons with documents of the United Nations with moral debate in Germany and Zimbabwe and with historical Methodist statements of social witness shows the Social Principles to be a unique form of social witness The issues of war abortion human sexuality and marriage illustrate the messiness of democratic deliberation in an ecclesial context and the evolution of a people ever concerned with the sin of worldliness even as they become more attuned to transforming social structures Stephens also contrasts this conception of the public church with the ecclesiologies of prominent Methodist ethicists Stanley Hauerwas and Paul Ramsey Intended for students of Methodism ecumenical church leaders and scholars of Christian social ethics and contemporary US mainline religion this work reveals the challenges to and possibilities for achieving moral community in an increasingly global and diverse world DARRYL W STEPHENS director of United Methodist studies at Lancaster Theological Seminary is former assistant general secretary for advocacy and sexual ethics in the UMC's General Commission on the Status and Role of Women He is the coeditor of Professional Sexual Ethics A Holistic Ministry Approach Parliamentary Papers, 1905 The London Gazette, 1916 Nuclear Weapons And The American Churches Donald L. Davidson, 2019-03-04 This book describes the positions advocated by ethicists and churches in the public debate on nuclear weapons After tracing the development of just war theory the dominant moral position on war in Western thought Dr Davidson synthesizes the views of contemporary ethicists on the moral principles associated with the just war tradition He then documents the postures of Reinhold Niebuhr Paul Ramsey Michael Walzer and James Turner Johnson with regard to the first use and retaliatory use of nuclear weapons deterrence policy the nuclear freeze proposal the arms race and disarmament The positions endorsed by the Roman Catholic Church and the major Protestant and Jewish denominations in the United States on the issues of nuclear warfare are described in detail with extensive treatment given to the development of the Catholic Bishops 1983 pastoral letter on war and peace and the statements of churches affiliated with the National Council of Churches The views of over 30 denominations representing more than 110 million members are considered The final chapter of the book contrasts the stance of the churches with that of the Reagan Administration Proposing guidelines for a moral defense policy in the nuclear age Dr Davidson's thesis is that national security requires a recognition of the need to protect and preserve values worth defending while simultaneously taking steps to prevent nuclear war The FALN and Macheteros Clemency United States. Congress. House. Committee on Government Reform, 1999 Journal New South Wales. Parliament. Legislative Council, 1903 Horseracing and the British, 1919-39 Mike Huggins, 2003 This is a detailed consideration of the history of racing in British culture and society and an exploration of the cultural world of racing during the inter war years the supposedly respectable middle classes and gave some working class groups hope and consolation during economically difficult times Regular attendance and increased spending on betting were found across class and generation and women too were keen participants Enjoyed by the Royal Family and controlled by the Jockey Club and National Hunt Committee racing's visible emphasis on rank and status helped defend hierarchy and gentlemanly amateurism and provided support for more conservative British attitudes The mass media provided a cumulative cultural validation of racing helping define national and regional identity and encouraging the affluent consumption of sporting experience and frank enjoyment of betting exploration of the internal culture of racing itself the racecourse and course life trainers and jockeys owners and breeders be of value for undergraduate courses on the history of modern British society sport and cultural studies and should be welcomed by racing enthusiasts everywhere Ecclesial Repentance Jeremy M. Bergen, 2011-03-31 Pot Politics Mitch Earleywine, 2007 Publisher description The Practice of Mission in Global Methodism David W. Scott, Darryl W. Stephens, 2021-04-19 This book brings together Methodist scholars and reflective practitioners from around the world to consider how emerging practices of mission and evangelism shape contemporary theologies of mission Engaging contemporary issues including migration nationalism climate change postcolonial contexts and the growth of the Methodist church in the Global South this book examines multiple forms of mission including evangelism education health and ministries of compassion A global group of contributors discusses mission as no longer primarily a Western activity but an enterprise of the entire church throughout the world This volume will be of interest to researchers studying missiology evangelism global Christianity and Methodism and to students of Methodism and mission
