Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 1992 Studies in Austrian Literature, Culture and Thought, 19?? Arts & Humanities Citation Index, 1991 Studies in Austrian Literature, Culture and Thought, 19?? Modern Austrian Prose Paul F. Dvorak, 2001 Studies in Austrian literature, culture, and thought, Shadow Lines Lorna Martens, 1996 Intellectual culture in early twentieth century Austria reached levels of originality and excellence that have rarely been equalled before or since Shadow Lines examines works by major novelists dramatists poets and intellectuals of that extraordinary era among them Sigmund Freud Arthur Schnitzler Robert Musil Hugo von Hofmannsthal Rainer Maria Rilke Ludwig Wittgenstein and Franz Kafka Lorna Martens considers how each of these authors contributed to a decisive transformation in Austrian culture involving a shift away from the dialectical syntheses of much nineteenth century German thought and culture to potent unresolvable dualisms of known and unknown orderly and chaotic features of human experience consciousness and the unconscious reason and the irrational language and the inexpressible In most of these writers according to Martens all that is knowable reasonable and orderly is grounded in that which is dark irrational chaotic What Martens calls the dark area emerges variously as the unconscious Freud the sexual drive Freud Schnitzler Musil the death instinct Freud Schnitzler the dangerous chaos below the surface of things Rilke the inaccessible totality von Hofmannsthal or the unsayable Mauthner von Hofmannsthal Musil Wittgenstein The essential yet enigmatic relation between the known and the unknown leads to much that is unsettling and strangely fascinating in these writers works A book that shrewdly relates the works of these authors to the intellectual and political turmoil of the times Shadow Lines is a new critical appraisal of Austrian literature and intellectual culture at the dawn of the century Shadows of the Past Hans H. Schulte, Gerald Chapple, 2009 How did Austrian writers grapple with their country's problematic twentieth century history Nine scholars investigate how the complex role of the national past changed the content and context of Austria's literature Contributions range from Klaus Zeyringer's aggressive argument for an authentically Austrian literature to the late Harry Zohn's autobiographical insights of a transplanted Viennese Probing essays examine the Liberal and the National Socialist era writers in exile and in their roles as post war social critics Shadows of the Past also puts the authors themselves in the spotlight A mini reader of hard hitting as well as humorous narrative texts complements the literary history that begins the volume Written by Barbara Frischmuth Elisabeth Reichart and Erich Wolfgang Skwara these six texts are accompanied by helpful introductions to each author As a further aid for English speaking readers the original in German literary and critical texts are translated for the first time Shadows of the Past allows students of European culture and comparative literature to experience a dramatic century in Austrian literature and history Modern Austrian Literature Through the Lens of Adaptation Catriona Firth, 2012 For decades postwar Austrian literature has been measured against and moulded into a series of generic categories and grand cultural narratives from nostalgic restoration literature of the 1950s through the socially critical anti Heimat novel to recent literary reckonings with Austria's Nazi past Peering through the lens of film adaptation this book rattles the generic shackles imposed by literary history and provides an entirely new critical perspective on Austrian literature Its original methodological approach challenges the primacy of written sources in existing scholarship and uses the distortions generated by the shift in medium as a productive starting point for literary analysis Five case studies approach canonical texts in post war Austrian literature by Gerhard Fritsch Franz Innerhofer Gerhard Roth Elfriede Jelinek and Robert Schindel through close readings of their cinematic adaptations concentrating on key areas of narratological concern plot narrative perspective authorship and post modern ontologies Setting the texts within the historical cultural and political discourses that define the Alpine Republic this study investigates fundamental aspects of Austrian national identity such as its Habsburg and National Socialist legacies

Writing the Austrian Traditions Wolfgang Huemer, Marc-Oliver Schuster, Wirth-Institute for Austrian and Central European Studies, 2003 The literary and the philosophical traditions in Austria are closely intertwined This book presents twelve original essays from experts who focus on the mutual influence between Austrian writers and philosophers and thus additionally present valuable insights into the general interconnections between literature and philosophy Among the discussed Austrian writers and philosophers are Sigmund Freud Ludwig Wittgenstein Karl Kraus Robert Musil Hugo von Hofmannsthal members of the Vienna Circle Adalbert Stifter Hermann Broch and Alexius Meinong The collection is concluded by original poems from Franz Josef Czernin a contemporary Austrian writer whose extensive literary work is highly self reflective and creatively engages with philosophical questions about language poetics and realism

Austrian Studies Vol. 29 Heide Kunzelmann, Lyn Marven, 2021-12-17 Austrian cultural production after 1945 has been enduringly haunted by unsavoury truths The fraught relationship of post war Austria with its own history and the collective denial of responsibility for National Socialist crimes informed a cultural discourse that was polarized between apologetic or extremely judgmental viewpoints Fliedl 1998 Towards the turn of the new millennium however research began to discern alternatives in the steadily growing number of phenomena and artefacts that accept the uncanny core of a dialectical integrative approach to Austria's difficult history W G Sebald 1991
